The Learning and Skills Act 2000 established a body corporate called the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>1</sup>, which replaced the Further Education Funding Council for England.

On 1 April 2001<sup>2</sup>, the Further Education Funding Council for England was dissolved, and all property, rights and liabilities to which it was entitled or subject immediately before that day became property, rights and liabilities of the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>3</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> had power to make a scheme providing for the preliminary transfer of any of the property, rights and liabilities of the Further Education Funding Council for England to the Secretary of State, Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England<sup>5</sup> or the Adult Learning Inspectorate<sup>6</sup>.

The Secretary of State had power to include in the scheme such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provisions as he thought appropriate: see s 90(3). The scheme was to come into force on the day it specified, but that day had to be before 1 April 2001 (ie the day appointed under s 154 for the commencement of s 89: see note 2 supra): s 90(4), (6). The scheme was to have effect to transfer, in accordance with its provisions, the property, rights and liabilities to which it applies: s 90(5). Stamp duty was not chargeable on a scheme under s 90: s 94(2).

1088A. The Chief Executive of Skills Funding.

There is to be a Chief Executive of Skills Funding ('the Chief Executive'), who is to be appointed to the office by the Secretary of State and whose functions will (with specified exceptions) be limited to England: see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 81, Sch 4. The Secretary of State may direct the Chief Executive to designate a person to carry out apprenticeship functions on behalf of the Chief Executive: s 82. The Chief Executive may secure the provision of facilities for apprenticeship training of young people (s 83) and may enter into arrangements with local education authorities when securing such training (s 84). The Chief Executive must (1) promote apprenticeships for young people to employers, and encourage them to employ young people as apprentices (s 85); (2) secure the provision of reasonable facilities for the education and training for persons aged 19 or over and those who are subject to adult detention (s 86); (3) secure the provision of proper facilities for education and training to enable adults who lack particular skills to obtain relevant qualifications and ensure that learners are not liable to pay fees for courses of study so provided (ss 87-89, Sch 5; Adult Skills (Specified Qualifications) Regulations 2010, SI 2010/733); and (4) encourage participation in education and training amongst people aged 19 or over and others subject to adult detention (s 90).

The Chief Executive must also secure sufficient apprenticeship places for every suitably qualified person within one of the categories of people eligible for the offer of an apprenticeship who wants one: ss 91, 93, 94 (ss 91-98 come into force on a day or days to be appointed). Eligibility criteria for persons who may elect for the apprenticeship offer are specified, and a person who elects for the offer must select two apprenticeship sectors for the purposes of the offer: s 92. The qualifications a person must hold to elect for the apprenticeship offer at level 2 or level 3 are specified: ss 95, 96. The Secretary of State may suspend the apprenticeship offer in a specified geographical area in relation to a particular apprenticeship sector or at a particular level for up to two years (s 97), and may amend the age under which people are eligible for the apprenticeship offer (s 98).

The Chief Executive may fund other persons for the purpose of fulfilling the duties and exercising the powers vested in him (s 100) and may attach conditions to the financial resources that he makes available (s 101). The Chief Executive may also adopt or develop schemes for the assessment of the performance of individual providers of education and training and may take this assessment into account when deciding which providers he will continue to fund: s 102. The Chief Executive may also carry out means tests or arrange for others to do so in order to establish how much financial support students may be eligible to receive in respect of the costs of education or training: s 103. The Chief Executive must provide or secure provision of services to assist people to find apprenticeships (s 104) and must promote progression to a level 3 apprenticeship where a person has completed a level 2 apprenticeship (s 105, which comes into force on a day or days to be appointed). The Secretary of State may request the Chief Executive to provide advice and assistance to enable the Secretary of State to discharge responsibilities for statutory apprenticeships (s 106), and the Chief Executive may provide services to individuals and to bodies exercising education and training functions in relation to those functions (s 107) and assist persons to select, train for, obtain and retain employment (s 108). The Chief Executive may carry out programmes of research and development and establish systems for collecting information, and must provide the Secretary of State with information and advice relating to his functions on request: s 110.

The Secretary of State may confer on the Chief Executive additional functions connected to the functions of the Secretary of State and relevant to the provision of facilities for education or training within the remit of the Chief Executive: s 111.

The Secretary of State may by order specify an area of England outside Greater London as an area for which a specified body may formulate and keep under review a strategy for how education and training for those persons that the Chief Executive is responsible for is to be delivered: s 112. Corresponding provision is made in relation to Greater London: s 113. The Chief Executive has a duty to implement any strategy formulated by a body set up under the powers contained in ss 112, 113: s 114. In performing his functions, the Chief Executive must have regard to (1) the needs of persons who are aged 19 or over who have learning difficulties and persons with learning difficulties who are subject to adult detention (s 115); (2) the needs of persons subject to adult detention (s 116); (3) any information which has been provided by a person designated by the Secretary of State (s 117); and (4) any guidance given by the Secretary of State (s 118). ## (vi) Local Learning and Skills Councils

1110. Local learning and skills councils.

The Learning and Skills Council for England (the 'Council')<sup>1</sup> must establish a committee (known as a 'local learning and skills council') for each area of England specified by the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup>. A local learning and skills council consists of not less than 12 and not more than 16 members appointed by the Council with the approval of the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>. Members of a local learning and skills council may be (but need not be) members of the Council<sup>4</sup>. The Secretary of State must appoint one of the members as chairman after seeking the advice of the Council<sup>5</sup>.

A person is to hold and vacate office as a member or as chairman of a local learning and skills council in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>6</sup>. On ceasing to be a member or chairman a person is eligible for re-appointment<sup>7</sup>. A person may at any time by notice in writing resign his office as a member or as chairman<sup>8</sup>. If the Council is satisfied that a member of a local learning and skills council has been absent from meetings of the council for a period longer than six consecutive months without the council's permission<sup>9</sup>, or is unable or unfit to carry out the functions of a member<sup>10</sup>, the Council may by notice in writing to the member remove him from his office, which then becomes vacant<sup>11</sup>.

The Council must appoint one of its employees as the director of a local learning and skills council<sup>12</sup>, and must seek the advice of the chairman of a local learning and skills council before making such an appointment<sup>13</sup>. If a person to be appointed as a director of a local learning and skills council is not already a member of that council, the Council must appoint him as a member of the local learning and skills council for the same term as the term of his appointment as director<sup>14</sup>. If a person to be appointed as a director of a local learning and skills council is already a member of that council but his term of appointment as such ends before the term of his appointment as director ends, the Council must extend his term of appointment as a member so that it ends when the term of his appointment as director ends<sup>15</sup>.

The Council may appoint such of its employees as it thinks fit to act as the staff of a local learning and skills council<sup>16</sup>.

A local learning and skills council may regulate its own procedure<sup>17</sup>. It may authorise the chairman or the director to exercise such of its functions as it may determine<sup>18</sup>. If the chairman is authorised to exercise a function he may authorise another member of the local learning and skills council to exercise it<sup>19</sup>. If the director is authorised to exercise a function he may authorise an employee of the local learning and skills council to exercise it<sup>20</sup>.

The validity of any proceedings of a local learning and skills council is not affected by a vacancy among the members or by any defect in the appointment of a member<sup>21</sup>.

The Council must pay: (1) in respect of the chairman of a local learning and skills council such salary and travelling, subsistence and other allowances as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>22</sup>; and (2) in respect of the other members of a local learning and skills council such travelling, subsistence and other allowances as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>23</sup>.

1145-1148 Committees of the National Council for Education and Training for Wales

Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 48, Sch 5 repealed; National Council for Education and Training for Wales now abolished and all functions transferred to National Assembly for Wales: National Council for Education and Training for Wales (Transfer of Functions to the National Assembly for Wales and Abolition) Order 2005, SI 2005/3238.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/9A. DUTY TO PARTICIPATE IN EDUCATION OR TRAINING: ENGLAND/1148A. Duty to participate in education or training in England.

9A. DUTY TO PARTICIPATE IN EDUCATION OR TRAINING: ENGLAND

1148A. Duty to participate in education or training in England.

As from a day to be appointed the statutory framework is changed to put a duty on all young people in England to participate in education or training until the age of 18, with corresponding duties on local education authorities and employers to enable and support participation.

The following provisions are not yet in force.

1. Young persons

The Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) applies to any person who is resident in England and who (1) has ceased to be of compulsory school age, (2) has not reached the age of 18, and (3) has not attained a level 3 qualification (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 3): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 1. Regulations may provide for a person to be, or not to be, regarded as resident in England for the purposes of any provision of Pt 1: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(2).

A person to whom the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 applies must (a) be participating in appropriate full-time education or training (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 4), (b) be participating in training in accordance with a contract of apprenticeship, or (c) both (i) be in full-time occupation (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 5), and (ii) participate in sufficient relevant training or education in each relevant period (see Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 6-8): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 2(1). For the purposes of Pt 1, a person who is in full-time occupation is to be taken to be participating in sufficient relevant training or education at any particular time if (A) arrangements have been made (whether by means of enrolment on a course or courses, or otherwise) for the person to receive sufficient relevant training or education during the current relevant period, and (B) where the arrangements call for the person to be participating in training or education at the time, the person is so participating: s 2(2).

2. Local education authorities and educational institutions

A local education authority in England must ensure that its functions are (so far as they are capable of being so exercised) exercised so as to promote the effective participation in education or training of persons belonging to its area to whom the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) applies with a view to ensuring that those persons fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 10.

The governing body of an institution in England to which the Education and Skills Act 2008 s 11 applies (ie (1) a community, foundation or voluntary school; (2) a community or foundation special school; (3) a pupil referral unit; (4) an institution within the further education sector) must exercise its functions (so far as they are capable of being so exercised) so as to promote the participation, through regular attendance, of persons to whom Pt 1 applies and for whom the institution provides education or training in that education or training: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 11.

A local education authority in England must make arrangements to enable it to establish (so far as it is possible to do so) the identities of persons belonging to its area to whom Pt 1 applies but who are failing to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 12. See further Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(4), (5).

Where (a) arrangements have been made for a person to whom Pt 1 applies to participate in education or training provided by an educational institution in England, (b) the person is not participating in that education or training at a time when the arrangements call for the person to be so participating, and (c) the responsible person has reasonable cause to believe that in consequence of that failure to participate the person is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2

(see PARA 1148A.1), the responsible person must give notice to the appropriate service provider of those circumstances: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 13. Relevant information about a pupil or student (i) who is attending an educational institution in England, and (ii) to whom Pt 1 applies, must, on request by a local education authority in England, be provided by the responsible person to the authority: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 14. Any of the following persons or bodies (ie (A) a local authority, (B) the Learning and Skills Council for England, (C) a Primary Care Trust, (D) a Strategic Health Authority, (E) a chief officer of police, (F) a provider of probation services, (G) a local probation board, and (H) a youth offending team) may supply information about a person to a local education authority in England for the purpose of enabling or assisting the authority to exercise its functions under Pt 1: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 16. Information held by local education authorities and information held by their service providers may be shared and used for the purposes of Pt 1: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 17 (amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 254(3)-(6)). In exercising its functions under Pt 1, a local education authority must have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 18.

3. Employers

A person must not, as employer, enter into a relevant contract of employment with a person to whom the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) applies without being satisfied, having taken all such steps as are reasonable to ascertain, that the person has made appropriate arrangements for training or education: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 21(1). In Pt 1 'contract of employment' means a contract of service, whether express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing, but does not include a contract of apprenticeship: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(1). In the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 Ch 3 (ss 19-39), 'relevant contract of employment' means a contract of employment (1) under which the employee is required to work for at least 20 hours per week, (2) which (a) has a fixed term of eight weeks or longer, or (b) does not have a fixed term but can reasonably be expected to be, or has been, in force for at least eight weeks, and (3) under which the place of work, or one of the places where the employee may be required to work, is in England: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 19(1). But a contract is not a 'relevant contract of employment' if the employer has undertaken to provide the employee with sufficient relevant training or education in each relevant period, and by virtue of the contract, the employee is in full-time occupation for the purposes of Pt 1: s 19(2). For the purposes of Pt 1 Ch 3, a person to whom Pt 1 applies has made appropriate arrangements for training or education if the person has enrolled on a course or courses constituting relevant training or education (or arrangements have otherwise been made for the person to receive relevant training or education), or the person is participating in full-time education or training: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 20(1). References in Pt 1 Ch 3 to appropriate arrangements made by the person are to the arrangements (of whatever kind and whether or not made by the person) for the person to receive the training or education in question: s 20(2). In the case of a relevant contract of employment which provides for commencement of the employment to be conditional on the employee's having made such arrangements (i) s 21(1) does not apply, but (ii) the employer must not permit the employment to commence, at a time when the employee is a person to whom Pt 1 applies, without being satisfied, having taken all such steps as are reasonable to ascertain, that the employee has made appropriate arrangements for training or education: s 21(2). Failure to comply with s 21 in relation to a contract of employment is not to be taken to affect the validity of the contract: s 21(3).

Where a relevant local education authority is satisfied that a person ('the employer') has contravened s 21, the authority may by notice (a 'penalty notice') require the employer to pay a financial penalty: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 22. Where a penalty notice has been given to a person ('the employer') under s 22 by a local education authority, the employer may, by giving notice (a 'notice of objection') to the authority, object to the giving of the penalty notice on either or both of the following grounds (A) that the employer did not commit the contravention of s 21 stated in the penalty notice; (B) that the amount of the penalty stated in the penalty notice is too high: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 23. An employer may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a penalty notice given under s 22: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 24. If an appeal has been made but not yet determined, the local authority may withdraw the penalty notice: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 25. Further provision is made with respect to the withdrawal or variation of a penalty notice given under s 22: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 26.

Where a person to whom Pt 1 applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment, and before commencement of the employment the person notified the employer of appropriate arrangements which the person had made, the employer must permit the employee to participate in training or education in accordance with those appropriate arrangements: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 27. Where a person to whom Pt 1 applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment, and after commencement of the employment the person notifies the employer of appropriate arrangements which the person has made, the employer must, so far as is reasonable having regard to specified matters, permit the person to participate in training or education in accordance with those appropriate arrangements: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 28. If a person reaches 18 years of age, remains in employment and has been participating in education or training in order to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1), the duty on the employer remains in place until the course finishes, the young person ceases to be resident in England, the person attains a level 3 qualification or the person attains the age of 19: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 29. For regulations as to whether a person is regarded as resident in England see PARA 1148A.1. 'Level 3 qualification' has the meaning given by the Education and Skills Act 2008 s 3: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(1). An enforcement notice may be issued by the local education authority where the employer has not fulfilled the duty to enable participation: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 30. Provision is made for a financial penalty for non-compliance with an enforcement notice given under s 30: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 31. A local education authority may withdraw an enforcement notice, provided that, if a penalty notice has been issued, any appeal against it has not yet been determined: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 32. An employer may object to a penalty notice within two weeks of being given the notice under s 31; the local education authority must consider the employer's notice of objection and either withdraw the penalty notice, reduce the amount of the penalty or confirm the penalty notice: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 33. An employer may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a penalty notice given under s 31: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 34. Where a penalty notice has been given to a person ('the employer') under s 31 by a local education authority, and any appeal made under s 34 in respect of the penalty notice has not been determined, the authority may withdraw the penalty notice by giving notice of the withdrawal to the employer: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 35. Further provision is made with respect to the withdrawal or variation of a penalty notice given under s 31: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 36.

4. Parenting contracts and parenting orders

The Education and Skills Act 2008 s 40 applies where a person to whom the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) applies ('the young person') is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 40(1). See further Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(4), (5). A local education authority in England may enter into a parenting contract with a parent of the young person (1) if the parent is resident in England, and (2) the authority considers that entering into the parenting contract would be desirable in the interests of the young person's fulfilment of that duty: s 40(2). For regulations as to whether a person is regarded as resident in England see PARA 1148A.1. A parenting contract is a document which contains (a) a statement by the parent that the parent agrees to comply with such requirements as may be specified in the document for such period as may be so specified, and (b) a statement by the local education authority that it agrees to provide support to the parent for the purpose of complying with those requirements: s 40(3). The requirements mentioned in s 40(3) may include (in particular) a requirement to attend a counselling or guidance programme: s 40(4). A parenting contract must be signed by the parent and signed on behalf of the local education authority: s 40(5). A parenting contract does not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort: s 40(6).

The Education and Skills Act 2008 s 41 applies where a person to whom Pt 1 applies ('the young person') is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 41(1). A local education authority in England may apply to a magistrates' court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the young person, if the parent is resident in England: s 41(2). If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of the parent if it is satisfied that (i) the young person is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2, and (ii) the making of the order would be desirable in the interests of the young person's fulfilment of that duty: s 41(3). A parenting order is an order which requires the parent (A) to comply, for a period not exceeding 12 months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and (B) subject to s 41(5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer: s 41(4). A parenting order under s 41 may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in head (B) in any case where a parenting order under s 41 or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion: s 41(5). A counselling or guidance programme which a parent is required to attend by virtue of head (B) may be or include a residential course but only if the court is satisfied that the following two conditions are fulfilled: s 41(6). The first condition is that the attendance of the parent at a residential course is likely to be more effective than attendance at a non-residential course in the interests of the young person's fulfilment of the duty imposed by s 2: s 41(7). The second condition is that any interference with family life which is likely to result from the attendance of the parent at a residential course is proportionate in all the circumstances: s 41(8). Supplemental provision with respect to parenting orders is made: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 42. An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the making of a parenting order under s 41: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 43.

Further provision is made with respect to parenting contracts and parenting orders: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 44.

5. Attendance notices

The Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 45-50 set out the procedure that a local education authority may follow should it believe that a person is failing without reasonable excuse to fulfil the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1). See further Education and Skills Act 2008 s 66(4), (5). The initial steps before the commencement of this process are set out in the Education and Skills Act 2008 s 45, which states that the local authority must ensure that appropriate support has made available and that the young person has been given the opportunity to take advantage of services designed to support participation; it also provides that the local education authority must give the young person 15 days' notice in writing of its intention to issue an attendance notice. If the young person fails to participate without reasonable excuse after the local education authority has given 15 days' notice, the local education authority may issue an attendance notice: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 46. The education or training specified in the attendance notice must be a course provided at a school, college or other education establishment or a contract of apprenticeship, and be a way of fulfilling the duty imposed by s 2: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 47. A local education authority in England must establish an attendance panel, constituted in accordance with regulations; its functions include hearing appeals against attendance notices, appeals against penalty notices and making recommendations to local education authorities: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s

48. Appeal arrangements are set out: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 49. The local education authority can vary or revoke an attendance notice in certain circumstances, and can specify additional education or training: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 50.

The Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 51-59 relate to the failure to comply with an attendance notice. It is an offence for a person to whom an attendance notice has been given to fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the requirements of the attendance notice; it is a defence for a person charged with such an offence to show that he or she is, and since the giving of the attendance notice has been, fulfilling the duty imposed by s 2 (see PARA 1148A.1): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 51. The restrictions on proceedings for offences under s 51 are set out: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 52. Where a local education authority which has given an attendance notice to a person under s 46 has reason to believe that the person has committed an offence under s 51 relating to the notice, the authority may give the person a penalty notice in respect of the offence; a penalty notice is a notice offering a person the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction in respect of the offence to which the notice relates by payment of a penalty in accordance with the notice: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 53. A local education authority must make arrangements for enabling a young person to whom a penalty notice is given by the authority under s 53 to appeal against the notice: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 54. Provision is made with regard to the enforcement of a non-participation fine when a person reaches the age of 18: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 56. 'Non-participation fine' means a fine imposed for an offence under a 51, or in respect of a failure to comply with any sentence imposed for such an offence: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 55(1). Similar provision is made in respect of a person who is 18 when given a fine: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 57. Further provision is made with respect to the enforcement of non-participation fines: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 58. The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision as to the application of amounts recovered by local education authorities by virtue of ss 56 and 57: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 59.

The Secretary of State must appoint a person to conduct a review of the initial operation of the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 Ch 5 (ss 45-60); and the person appointed must make a report to the Secretary of State on the review within a reasonable period after the school leaving date for 2016: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 60.

6. Miscellaneous

Regulations may (1) provide for who is to be treated as the employer for the purposes of the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) in relation to any way of working prescribed by regulations under s 5 (see PARA 1148A.1), and (2) provide for any provision of Pt 1 to apply with modifications in relation to any such way of working: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 61(1). Regulations may provide for any provision of Pt 1 to apply with modifications in cases where a person to whom Pt 1 applies (a) is employed under a contract of employment, and (b) is for the time being supplied by the employer to another person ('the principal') to perform work in accordance with a contract made between the employer and the principal: s 61(2). For the meaning of 'contract of employment' see PARA 1148A.3.

Crown employees are to be treated as if they are employed under contracts of employment: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 62. The powers of local education authorities to take enforcement action against employers do not apply where the employer in question is the House of Lords or the House of Commons: see Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 63, 64. Penalties payable under financial penalty notices are payable to local education authorities, who may only use the funds generated in the exercise of specified functions: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 65.

The Secretary of State may by order make corresponding provision for Wales: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 67.

1149-1154 Provision of Services in England

The Learning and Skills Act 2000 ss 114-121 are repealed: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 79, Sch 2. For provision as to support services see PARA 1154A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/10. SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE/(1) PROVISION OF SERVICES IN ENGLAND/1154A. Provision of support services.

1154A. Provision of support services.

A local education authority in England must make available to young persons and relevant young adults for whom it is responsible such services as it considers appropriate to encourage, enable or assist the effective participation of those persons in education or training: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 68(1). 'Young person' means a person who has attained the age of 13 but not the age of 20: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 78(1). 'Relevant young adult' means a person who has attained the age of 20 but not the age of 25, and has a learning difficulty; and the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 13(5), (6) (construction of references to learning difficulties: see PARA 1091) apply for this purpose: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 78(1). For the purposes of the Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 68-77, a local education authority is responsible for any young person or relevant young adult who is receiving education or training in its area (and for these purposes 'training' includes vocational, social, physical and recreational training), normally resident in its area, or otherwise within its area: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 78(2), (3). Section 68(1) is subject to any direction given by the Secretary of State under the Education and Skills Act 2008 s 69 (amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 255(2)): s 68(2). For the purposes of s 68 and s 69, a local education authority makes services available if it (1) provides them, or (2) makes arrangements with another local education authority or another person for their provision: s 68(3). In carrying out its functions under s 68, a local education authority must (a) comply with any direction given by the Secretary of State under s 69 (amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 255(1), (2)), and (b) have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State: s 68(4). Nothing in s 68 requires a local education authority to make services available to a young person or relevant young adult for whom it is responsible if (i) another local education authority in England is also responsible for the person, and (ii) services are being provided to the person by, or under arrangements made by, the other authority in exercise of its functions under s 68(1): s 68(5).

A local education authority in England (A) may provide, secure the provision of or participate in the provision of services under arrangements entered into by it with another local education authority in pursuance of any function of that other local education authority under s 68, and (B) may provide, secure the provision of or participate in the provision of services for encouraging, enabling or assisting the effective participation in education or training of young persons, or relevant young adults, (including such persons from other areas) otherwise than in accordance with s 68 or head (A): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 70(1). Nothing in or done under s 68, 69 or s 70 is to be taken to prejudice any powers which a local education authority has with respect to the exercise of its functions otherwise than under those provisions: s 70(2).

Services provided for young persons in pursuance of s 68 or head (b) may include the provision of support on a conditional basis: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 71. Relevant information about a pupil or student who is attending an educational institution in England must be provided by the responsible person to a person involved in the provision of services in pursuance of s 68 or head (b), on a request by that person: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 72. The responsible person in relation to an educational institution in England, must, on a request by a person involved in the provision of services in pursuance of s 68 or head (b) permit that person to have access to a pupil or student attending the institution on the institution's premises at reasonable times, and make available to that person, so far as is reasonably convenient, facilities on the institution's premises for providing services to individual such pupils or students or groups of such pupils or students: see Education and Skills

Act 2008 s 73. The Secretary of State may provide or secure the provision of services for encouraging, enabling or assisting the effective participation of young persons and relevant young adults in England in education or training; such services are services provided by means of the publication whether electronically or otherwise of information, advice and guidance; and the provision, in response to requests by young persons and relevant young adults, of information, advice or guidance to those persons by telephone or other electronic means: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 74. Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills must, when requested to do so by the Secretary of State, inspect and report on the provision of services in pursuance of s 68 or 74, and may undertake such other inspections of the provision of those services as Her Majesty's Chief Inspector thinks fit: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 75. The Secretary of State may make arrangements for the supply of social security information for the purposes of the provision of services for young persons in pursuance of s 68 or head (b): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 76 (amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 254(7)-(9)). The Secretary of State may also make arrangements for the holding and supply of information in connection with, or for the purposes of, the provision of services for young persons in pursuance of s 68 or head (b): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 76A (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 255(3)). Specified persons and public bodies are given the power to supply information about a young person or relevant young adult to any other person or body involved in the provision of services in pursuance of s 68 or head (b) for the purpose of the provision of those services: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 77.

Such directions may relate to a particular class of young person<sup>13</sup> and may make different provision for different classes of young person<sup>14</sup>. They may be revoked or varied by a later direction<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'local authority' means a county council or a county borough council: Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 129(1). As to county councils and county borough councils in Wales see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 37 et seq.

1156. Consultation and co-ordination.

Before complying with a direction of the National Assembly for Wales<sup>1</sup> by providing, securing the provision of or participating in the provision of youth support services<sup>2</sup> for residents of a particular place or area, a local authority<sup>3</sup> must consult each of the following with responsibility for all or part of the area<sup>4</sup>: (1) a health authority<sup>5</sup>; (2) a chief officer of police<sup>6</sup>; (3) a police authority<sup>7</sup>; (4) a local probation board<sup>8</sup>; and (5) a youth offending team<sup>9</sup>. Where a local authority provides or proposes to provide youth support services for the residents of a particular place or area<sup>17</sup>, or secures or proposes to secure the provision of youth support services for the residents of a particular place or area<sup>18</sup>, persons or bodies listed in heads (1) to (5) above with responsibility for all or part of that place or area must<sup>19</sup>: (i) exercise their functions so as to support and assist the services provided, secured or proposed by the local authority<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) co-ordinate the exercise of their functions, so far as seems reasonable, with persons providing those services<sup>21</sup>. However, this does not require persons or bodies to take action which would significantly interfere with the efficient or effective exercise of their functions<sup>22</sup>.

11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION

(1) INTRODUCTION

1164. Bodies responsible for inspections.

The Office for Standards in Education ('OFSTED') is a non-ministerial government department which is accountable to Parliament and comprises Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England<sup>1</sup> and his staff, including Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in England<sup>2</sup>. The purpose of OFSTED is to improve the standards of achievement and quality of nurseries<sup>3</sup>, education in schools<sup>4</sup> and in institutions providing further education or adult learning<sup>5</sup> or teacher training<sup>6</sup>, and to provide services to encourage, enable and assist effective participation by young persons in education or training<sup>7</sup> in England. This is achieved through regular inspection, public reporting and informed advice. OFSTED also has joint responsibility with the Audit Commission<sup>8</sup> for the inspection of local education authorities<sup>9</sup>. OFSTED's primary function is the inspection of schools in England. Under the Education Act 2005<sup>10</sup>, the principal duty of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England is to establish and maintain a system for the regular inspection by independent inspectors of schools, including sixth forms, in England<sup>11</sup>. OFSTED sets and monitors the framework for those inspections, which are carried out by both Her Majesty's Inspectors and by teams made up of additional inspectors recruited, trained and assessed by regional inspection providers to a standard set by OFSTED<sup>12</sup>.

The Office of Her Majesty's Inspectorate for Education and Training in Wales (or 'Arolygiaeth Ei Mawrhydi dros Addysg a Hyfforddiant yng Nghymru') ('Estyn') is a non-ministerial government department comprising Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education and Training in Wales<sup>13</sup> and his staff, including Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education and Training in Wales<sup>14</sup>. The purpose of Estyn is to improve the quality and standards in education and training in Wales, and for that purpose has similar functions to OFSTED. The School Inspections Act 1996 sets out Estyn's functions in relation to the inspection of schools, including sixth forms, in Wales<sup>15</sup>, carried out by registered inspectors<sup>16</sup>. Although the School Inspections Act 1996 has been prospectively repealed, the system of registered inspectors is preserved for Wales under the Education Act 2005, which when it comes into force will provide that no person may conduct an inspection of any school in Wales unless he is a member of the inspectorate, or registered as an inspector in a register kept by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education and Training in Wales<sup>17</sup>. The Auditor General for Wales<sup>18</sup> may assist with any inspection of a local education authority in Wales, if requested to do so by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education and Training in Wales<sup>19</sup>.

In relation to adult learning and further education, inspections are carried out in England by the Adult Learning Inspectorate<sup>20</sup> or Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England or both acting together, and are carried out in Wales by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education and Training in Wales. Inspections of higher education are carried out by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education<sup>21</sup>.

Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint a person to the office of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills<sup>1</sup>, who is to be a member of the Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills ('OFSTED')<sup>2</sup>. The Chief Inspector holds and vacates office in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>3</sup>, which are to be determined by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, but (1) must not be appointed for a term of more than five years<sup>5</sup>; (2) may at any time resign by giving written notice to the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>; and (3) may be removed from office by Her Majesty on the grounds that he is unable or unfit to carry out the duties of his office<sup>7</sup>. The previous appointment of a person as Chief Inspector does not affect his eligibility for appointment<sup>8</sup>.

OFSTED is to pay the Chief Inspector such remuneration, and such travelling and other allowances, as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>9</sup>. In the case of any Chief Inspector determined by the Secretary of State, OFSTED is to pay such pension, allowance or gratuity to or in respect of him<sup>10</sup>, or such contributions or payments towards provision for such a pension, allowance or gratuity<sup>11</sup>, as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>12</sup>. If there is a vacancy in the office of Chief Inspector, the Secretary of State may appoint a person to be Chief Inspector during such period, not exceeding one year, as he thinks fit<sup>14</sup>, on such terms as he may determine<sup>15</sup>. The application of the Chief Inspector's seal must be authenticated by the signature of the Chief Inspector or some other person who has been authorised for that purpose by the Chief Inspector, whether generally or specially<sup>20</sup>. The Chief Inspector and any person authorised to act on his behalf are to be treated as certifying officers for the purposes of proving certain documents<sup>21</sup>.

1 Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 113(1), (2). ## 2. Functions of the Chief Inspector

The Chief Inspector<sup>1</sup> has the general duty of keeping the Secretary of State informed about: (1) the quality of activities within the Chief Inspector's remit and, where appropriate, the standards achieved by those for whose benefit such activities are carried on<sup>2</sup>; (2) improvements in the quality of such activities and in any such standards<sup>3</sup>; (3) the extent to which such activities are being carried on as user-focused activities<sup>4</sup>; and (4) the efficient and effective use of resources in the carrying on of such activities and services<sup>5</sup>. Activities<sup>6</sup> are within the Chief Inspector's remit if he exercises any inspection function in relation to them or if they are services of the kind provided by persons in respect of whom he is the registration authority by virtue of any enactment<sup>7</sup>.

If requested to do so by the Secretary of State, the Chief Inspector must provide the Secretary of State with information or advice on such matters relating to activities within the Chief Inspector's remit as are specified in the request<sup>8</sup>. The Chief Inspector may at any time give advice to the Secretary of State on any matter connected with any activities within his remit, including advice relating to a particular establishment, institution or agency<sup>9</sup>. The Chief Inspector is to have such other functions in connection with activities within his remit as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>. The Chief Inspector may do anything that he considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of, or in connection with, his functions<sup>11</sup>, and information obtained by the Chief Inspector in connection with any of his functions may be used by him in connection with any of his other functions<sup>12</sup>.

The functions conferred on the Chief Inspector<sup>13</sup> are conferred on him in his capacity as holder of that office and not in his capacity as a member of OFSTED<sup>14</sup>. Any proceedings brought in respect of any such function of the Chief Inspector are to be brought against the Chief Inspector in his capacity as holder of that office<sup>15</sup>. Subject to any order made by the Secretary of State, for all purposes relating to the government department constituted by OFSTED, the Chief Inspector is to be regarded as part of that government department as performing his functions on behalf of it<sup>16</sup>.

The Chief Inspector is to perform his functions for the general purpose of encouraging: (a) the improvement of activities within his remit<sup>17</sup>; (b) the carrying on of such activities as user-focused activities<sup>18</sup>; and (c) the efficient and effective use of resources in the carrying on of such activities<sup>19</sup>. He must ensure that his functions are performed efficiently and effectively and that, so far as practicable, those functions are performed in a way that responds to the needs of persons for whose benefit activities within his remit are carried on and the views expressed by other relevant persons<sup>20</sup> about such activities<sup>21</sup>. In performing his functions the Chief Inspector must have regard to the matters to which OFSTED is to have regard to in performing its functions<sup>22</sup>, and such aspects of government policy as the Secretary of State may direct<sup>23</sup>.

The Chief Inspector must make an annual report to the Secretary of State, who must lay a copy of it before each House of Parliament<sup>24</sup>. Further, the Chief Inspector may make to the Secretary of State such other reports relating to matters which fall within the scope of the Chief Inspector's functions as he considers appropriate<sup>25</sup>, and may arrange for any report made by him<sup>26</sup> to be published in such manner as he considers appropriate<sup>27</sup>.

3. The Chief Inspector's interaction with other authorities

Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills<sup>1</sup> may delegate any of his inspection functions<sup>2</sup>, to such extent as he may determine, to another public authority<sup>3</sup>, but if the carrying out of an inspection is so delegated, it is nevertheless to be regarded for the purposes of any enactment as carried out by the Chief Inspector<sup>4</sup>. The Chief Inspector must from time to time, or at such times as the Secretary of State may specify by order, prepare a document setting out what inspections he proposes to carry out (an 'inspection programme')<sup>5</sup> and a document setting out the manner in which he proposes to carry out his functions of inspecting and reporting (an 'inspection framework')<sup>6</sup>. Before preparing an inspection programme or an inspection framework the Chief Inspector must consult: (1) the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>; (2) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Prisons<sup>8</sup>; (3) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Constabulary<sup>9</sup>; (4) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of the Crown Prosecution Service<sup>10</sup>; (5) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Probation for England and Wales<sup>11</sup>; (6) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Court Administration<sup>12</sup>; (7) the Care Quality Commission<sup>13</sup>; (8) the Audit Commission for Local Authorities and the National Health Service in England<sup>14</sup>; and (9) any other person or body specified by an order made by the Secretary of State<sup>15</sup>. Once it is prepared, the Chief Inspector must send to each of those persons or bodies a copy of each programme or framework<sup>16</sup>.

If any person or body mentioned in heads (2)-(9) above is proposing to carry out an inspection that would involve inspecting a specified institution<sup>17</sup> and the Chief Inspector considers that the proposed inspection would impose an unreasonable burden on that institution, or would do so if carried out in a particular manner, the Chief Inspector must give a notice to that authority requiring it not to carry out the proposed inspection, or not to carry it out in that manner<sup>18</sup>.

The Chief Inspector must co-operate with (a) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Prisons<sup>19</sup>; (b) Her Majesty's Inspectors of Constabulary<sup>20</sup>; (c) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of the Crown Prosecution Service<sup>21</sup>; (d) Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Probation for England and Wales<sup>22</sup>; (e) Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Court Administration<sup>23</sup>; (f) the Care Quality Commission<sup>24</sup>; (g) the Audit Commission for Local Authorities and the National Health Service in England<sup>25</sup>; and (h) any other public authority specified by order made by the Secretary of State<sup>26</sup>, where it is appropriate to do so for the efficient and effective exercise of his functions<sup>27</sup>.

The Chief Inspector may (i) act jointly with another public authority where it is appropriate to do so for the efficient and effective exercise of his functions<sup>28</sup>; (ii) if he thinks it appropriate to do so, provide advice or assistance to another public authority for the purpose of the exercise by that authority of its functions<sup>29</sup>; (iii) make arrangements with a public authority for the carrying out by him of inspections of any institution or matter which he is not required or authorised to carry out by virtue of any other enactment<sup>30</sup>.

4. Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education, Children's Services and Skills

Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint a person as one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education, Children's Services and Skills (an 'HMI')<sup>1</sup>. An HMI is to serve, in accordance with the terms of his appointment, as a member of the staff of OFSTED<sup>2</sup>. Those terms of appointment are to be determined by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills<sup>3</sup>, and a person's appointment as an HMI ends when he ceases to serve as a member of the staff of OFSTED<sup>4</sup>.

Anything authorised or required by or under any enactment to be done by the Chief Inspector may be done by any HMI, any other member of the staff of OFSTED, or any additional inspector, who is authorised generally or specially for the purpose by the Chief Inspector<sup>5</sup>. Where an HMI, a member of the staff of OFSTED or an additional inspector is authorised to act on behalf of the Chief Inspector in connection with the carrying out of any of the activities within his remit<sup>6</sup>, the Chief Inspector must ensure that the person concerned has such qualifications, experience and skills as are necessary to secure that he is able to perform the function or, as the case may be, assist with its performance, in an effective manner<sup>7</sup>. The Chief Inspector may arrange for additional inspectors to assist him in the performance of his functions<sup>8</sup>.

1 Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 114(1), (2). Orders made under s 114(1) are beyond the scope of this work. Any person who is one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in England immediately before the day on which s 114 comes into force (ie 1 April 2007: SI 2007/935), and is then serving as member of the staff of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England or of the Adult Learning Inspectorate, is to become, as from that day, one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education, Children's Services and Skills: 2006 Act s 114(6)-(8).

The making of any report of an inspection of a school under the Education Act 2005 s 5 which states the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school must be personally authorised by the Chief Inspector or an HMI who is authorised by the Chief Inspector for this purpose: 2006 Act Sch 12 para 9(3). Without prejudice to the generality of Sch 12 para 9(1), references to the Chief Inspector in (1) the 2005 Act s 10 (power of entry for purposes of inspection under s 5 (see PARA 1173) or 8 (see PARA 1176); or (2) any other enactment by virtue of which any power of entry is exercisable by the Chief Inspector, or otherwise having effect in connection with any such power of entry, include references to any person authorised to act on his behalf under the 2006 Act Sch 12 para 9(1): see Sch 12 para 9(4), (5). - 2081 (2) how far that education meets the needs of the range of pupils<sup>5</sup> at those schools<sup>6</sup>;

The Chief Inspector may at any time give advice to the Secretary of State on any matter connected with school, or a particular school, in England<sup>20</sup>. The Chief Inspector has such other functions<sup>21</sup> in connection with schools in England, including functions with respect to the training of teachers for such schools<sup>22</sup>, as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State<sup>23</sup>. ### 1173. Duty to inspect certain schools at prescribed intervals.

- 2102 (i) a right of entry to the premises<sup>24</sup> of the school<sup>25</sup>;
- 2103 (ii) a right of entry to any other premises on which, by virtue of arrangements made by the school, any pupils who are registered<sup>26</sup> at the school and have attained the age of 15, or will attain that age in the current school year, but have not ceased to be of compulsory school age<sup>27</sup>, are receiving part of their education from any person ('the provider')<sup>28</sup>;

TEXT AND NOTES 1-5--If requested to do so by the Secretary of State, Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills ('the Chief Inspector') must inspect and report on such school, or class of school, in England as is specified in the request: 2005 Act s 8(1) (s 8 substituted by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 14 para 100). The Chief Inspector may inspect any school in England in circumstances where he is not required to do so by the 2005 Act s 5 or s 8(1): s 8(2) (as so substituted). As to the Chief Inspector see PARA 1167A.1.

The Chief Inspector has power to investigate certain complaints by parents about schools: see ss 11A-11C; and PARA 1176A.

NOTE 2--As to the application of the 2005 Act Pt 1, with modifications, in relation to pupil referral units in Wales see the Education (Pupil Referral Units) (Application of Enactments) (Wales) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1069, regs 1, 3, Sch 1 para 11. TEXT AND NOTES 6-16--The Chief Inspector may publish an interim statement between inspections that he considers it is not necessary for the school to be inspected under the 2005 Act s 5 for at least a year: see Education Act 2005 s 10A (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 225(2)).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(i) Inspection of Schools in England/A. HER MAJESTY'S INSPECTORATE/1176A. Power of Chief Inspector's to investigate complaints by parents about schools.

1176A. Power of Chief Inspector's to investigate complaints by parents about schools.

The Chief Inspector<sup>1</sup> may investigate a qualifying complaint if he thinks it is appropriate to do so<sup>2</sup> (1) for the purpose of determining whether it is or may be appropriate to have regard to the matters raised by the complaint in carrying out any of his functions in relation to schools in England<sup>3</sup>; and (2) in particular, for the purpose of determining, in the light of the complaint, when to carry out an inspection of a school<sup>4</sup>, and whether it would be appropriate to carry out an inspection under his discretionary powers<sup>5</sup>. A complaint is a qualifying complaint if it is (a) about a matter relating to a relevant school<sup>6</sup> and that matter falls within a prescribed description<sup>7</sup>, and does not fall within any prescribed exception<sup>8</sup>; (b) made in writing to the Chief Inspector<sup>9</sup>; and (c) made by a person who satisfies prescribed conditions<sup>10</sup>.

The following provisions apply where a qualifying complaint is made to the Chief Inspector by a person who is a registered parent of a registered pupil<sup>11</sup> at the school to which the complaint relates<sup>12</sup>. If the Chief Inspector so requests for the purposes of an investigation of the complaint, the governing body<sup>13</sup> of the school to which the complaint relates must provide him with such information it holds as may be specified or described in the Chief Inspector's request<sup>14</sup>, and such other information it holds as it considers may be relevant to the investigation<sup>15</sup>. If the complaint relates to a maintained school<sup>16</sup> and the Chief Inspector so requests for the purposes of an investigation of the complaint, the local education authority<sup>17</sup> which maintains the school must provide him with such information it holds as may be specified or described in the Chief Inspector's request<sup>18</sup>, and such other information it holds as it considers may be relevant to the investigation<sup>19</sup>. If, for the purposes of an investigation of the complaint, it appears to the Chief Inspector to be appropriate to hold a meeting for registered parents of registered pupils at the school to which the complaint relates, he must give notice to that effect to the governing body of the school<sup>20</sup>. However, if the school is a maintained school which does not have a delegated budget, the Chief Inspector must give notice to that effect to the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>21</sup>. On being so notified, the governing body or, as the case may be, the local education authority must co-operate with the Chief Inspector in the making of arrangements for the meeting<sup>22</sup>.

Where, for the purposes of an investigation of a qualifying complaint, the Chief Inspector requests specified information<sup>23</sup> or gives notice that he considers it appropriate to hold a meeting<sup>24</sup>, he may, if he considers it appropriate to do so, prepare a report of the outcome of the investigation by him of the complaint<sup>25</sup>. If the Chief Inspector prepares such a report, he must send a copy of it to the governing body of the school<sup>26</sup>. However, if the school is a maintained school which does not have a delegated budget, the Chief Inspector must give notice to that effect to the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>27</sup>. The body to which a report is so sent must, if so requested by the Chief Inspector, provide a copy of it to the registered parents of registered pupils at the school to which the complaint relates<sup>28</sup>.

Regulations may enable the Chief Inspector to determine that a condition prescribed for the purposes of s 11A(2)(c) by virtue of s 11A(3) is not to apply in relation to a person making a complaint: s 11A(4). For the purposes of s 11A(2)(c), a person making a complaint satisfies the prescribed condition if, before making the complaint, that person has followed any complaints procedure: (1) where the school falls within the 2005 Act s 5(2)(a), (b) or (c), established by the governing body of the relevant school pursuant to the Education Act 2002 s 29(1)(a); or (2) where the school falls within the 2005 Act s 5(2)(d), (e), (f) or (g), established in relation to the school: SI 2007/1089 reg 5. ### 1180. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to maintained schools.

Where, in a report of an inspection of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> carried out under his duty to inspect schools at prescribed intervals<sup>2</sup>, the Chief Inspector<sup>3</sup> stated: (1) that in his opinion special measures were required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>4</sup>; or (2) that in his opinion the school required significant improvement<sup>5</sup>, the local education authority<sup>6</sup> must:

- 2126 (a) prepare a written statement of any action it proposes to take in the light of the report, and the period within which it proposes to take such action, or, if it does not propose to take any such action, of its reasons for not doing so<sup>7</sup>; and

It is the duty of the local education authority to prepare the statement within the period allowed, that is such period as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>, or if the report states that the Chief Inspector is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>12</sup>, and the Secretary of State is of the opinion that the urgency of the case requires a shorter period<sup>13</sup>, such shorter period as the Secretary of State may direct<sup>14</sup>. However, this does not relieve the local education authority of any duty to prepare a statement which has not been performed within that period<sup>15</sup>.

Where there is sent to the proprietor<sup>1</sup> of a school<sup>2</sup> other than a maintained school<sup>3</sup> a report of any inspection carried out under the duty of the Chief Inspector<sup>4</sup> to inspect schools at prescribed intervals<sup>5</sup> in which the Chief Inspector states: (1) that he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>6</sup>; or (2) that he is of the opinion that the school requires significant improvement<sup>7</sup>, the proprietor of the school must prepare a written statement of the action which he proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which he proposes to take it<sup>8</sup>.

(A) HER MAJESTY'S INSPECTORATE

1187. In general.

Until a day to be appointed, the School Inspections Act 1996, which repealed and replaced the Education (Schools) Act 1992 and parts of the Education Act 1993, makes provision as regards the inspection of schools in Wales<sup>1</sup>.

The repeal, or revocation, and re-enactment of provisions by the School Inspections Act 1996 does not affect the continuity of the law<sup>2</sup>, and this has effect subject to any amendments of the law which give effect to recommendations of the Law Commission<sup>3</sup>. Any subordinate legislation made or other thing done, or having effect as if done, under or for the purposes of any provision repealed and re-enacted by the School Inspections Act 1996, if in force or effective immediately before the commencement of the corresponding provision of that Act, has effect after that as if made or done under or for the purposes of that corresponding provision<sup>4</sup>. Any reference, express or implied, in any enactment or in any instrument or document to any provision repealed and re-enacted by the School Inspections Act 1996, or to things done or falling to be done under or for the purposes of any such provision, must (so far as the context permits) be construed as including, in relation to times, circumstances or purposes in relation to which the corresponding provision of that Act has effect, a reference, as the case may be, to that corresponding provision, or to things done or falling to be done under or for the purposes of that corresponding provision<sup>5</sup>.

Any reference to an enactment repealed by the School Inspections Act 1996 which is contained in a document made, served or issued after the commencement of that repeal must be construed, except so far as a contrary intention appears, as a reference to or, as the context may require, including a reference to the corresponding provision of the School Inspections Act 1996<sup>6</sup>.

1 The School Inspections Act 1996 is repealed by the Education Act 2005 s 60 as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), and provision for the inspection of schools in Wales is made by Pt 1 Chs 3-7 (ss 19-63) (not yet in force). However, no such day has been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed, the School Inspections Act 1996 continues to apply in relation to Wales. As to the inspection of schools in Wales under the School Inspections Act 1996 see PARA 1188 et seq post; and as to the inspection of schools in Wales under the Education Act 2005 see PARA 1226 et seq post. As to the inspection of schools in England see PARA 1167 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

2 School Inspections Act 1996 s 47(3), Sch 8 para 1(1). See note 1 supra.

3 Ibid Sch 8 para 1(6). Schedule 8 para 1(1)-(5) has effect instead of the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2) (but is without prejudice to any other provision of the Interpretation Act 1978): School Inspections Act 1996 Sch 8 para 1(6). See note 1 supra.

4 Ibid Sch 8 para 1(2). Any reference, express or implied, in the School Inspections Act 1996 or any other enactment or in any instrument or document to any provision of that Act, or to things done or falling to be done under or for the purposes of any provision of that Act, must (so far as the context permits) be construed as including, in relation to times, circumstances or purposes in relation to which the corresponding provision repealed by that Act had effect, a reference, as the case may be, to that corresponding provision, or to things done or falling to be done under or for the purposes of that corresponding provision: Sch 8 para 1(3). See note 1 supra.

5 Ibid Sch 8 para 1(4). Without prejudice to the generality of Sch 8 para 1(4), where a power conferred by an Act is expressed to be exercisable in relation to enactments contained in Acts passed before or in the same session as the Act conferring the power, the power is also exercisable in relation to provisions of the School Inspections Act 1996 which reproduce such enactments: Sch 8 para 1(5). See note 1 supra.

6 Ibid Sch 8 para 2. Section 5(9) (as substituted and amended) (offence wilfully to obstruct the Chief Inspector for Wales in the exercise of his functions: see PARA 1192 post) does not have effect in relation to anything done before it came into force: Sch 8 para 3. See note 1 supra.

Repeal of these provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(ii) Inspection of Schools in Wales/A. INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS UNDER THE SCHOOL INSPECTIONS ACT 1996/(A) Her Majesty's Inspectorate/1192. Functions of the Chief Inspector.

1192. Functions of the Chief Inspector.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

The Chief Inspector<sup>2</sup> has the general duty of keeping the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> informed about:

- 2136 (1) the quality of the education provided by schools in Wales<sup>4</sup>;
- 2137 (2) the educational standards achieved in those schools<sup>5</sup>;
- 2138 (3) the quality of the leadership in and management of those schools, including whether the financial resources made available to those schools are managed efficiently<sup>6</sup>; and
- 2139 (4) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils<sup>7</sup> at those schools<sup>8</sup>.

When asked to do so by the Assembly, the Chief Inspector must give advice to the Assembly on such matters as may be specified in its request<sup>9</sup>, and inspect and report on such school, or class of school, in Wales as may be so specified<sup>10</sup>.

The Chief Inspector has, in addition, the following specific duties:

- 2140 (a) establishing and maintaining the register of inspectors<sup>11</sup>;
- 2141 (b) giving guidance to inspectors registered in that register, and such other persons as he considers appropriate, in connection with inspections of schools in Wales<sup>12</sup> and the making of reports of such inspections<sup>13</sup>;
- 2142 (c) keeping under review the system of inspecting schools<sup>14</sup> and, in particular, the standard of such inspections and of the reports made by registered inspectors<sup>15</sup>;
- 2143 (d) keeping under review the extent to which any requirement imposed by or under the School Inspections Act 1996, or any other enactment, on any registered inspector, local education authority<sup>16</sup>, proprietor<sup>17</sup> of a school or governing body<sup>18</sup> in relation to inspections of schools in Wales is complied with<sup>19</sup>;
- 2144 (e) promoting efficiency in the conduct and reporting of inspections of schools in Wales by encouraging competition in the provision of services by registered inspectors<sup>20</sup>.

The Chief Inspector may at any time give advice to the Assembly on any matter connected with schools, or a particular school, in Wales<sup>21</sup>. The Chief Inspector has such other functions<sup>22</sup> in connection with schools in Wales, including functions with respect to the training of teachers for such schools, as may be assigned to him by the Assembly<sup>23</sup>. In exercising his functions the Chief Inspector must have regard to such aspects of government policy as the Assembly may direct<sup>24</sup>. The Chief Inspector:

- 2145 (i) must make an annual report to the Assembly, which must publish the matter contained in the report<sup>25</sup>;
- 2146 (ii) may make such other reports to the Assembly, with respect to matters which fall within the scope of his functions, as he considers appropriate<sup>26</sup>; and

- 2147 (iii) may arrange for any such report made by him<sup>27</sup> to be published in such manner as he considers appropriate<sup>28</sup>.

For the purposes of the exercise of any function so conferred the Chief Inspector<sup>29</sup> has at all reasonable times:

- 2148 (A) a right of entry to the premises<sup>30</sup> of any school in Wales<sup>31</sup>;
- 2149 (B) a right to inspect, and take copies of, any records kept by the school, and any other documents containing information relating to the school, which he requires for those purposes<sup>32</sup>;
- 2150 (C) a right of entry to any premises (other than school premises) on which, by virtue of arrangements made by a school in Wales, any pupils who are registered<sup>33</sup> at the school and have attained the age of 15, or will attain that age in the current school year, but have not ceased to be of compulsory school age<sup>34</sup>, are provided with part of their education by any person ('the provider')<sup>35</sup>;
- 2151 (D) a right of entry to any premises of the provider used in connection with the provision by him of that education<sup>36</sup>; and
- 2152 (E) a right to inspect and take copies of any records kept by the provider relating to the provision of that education, and any other documents containing information so relating, which the Chief Inspector requires for those purposes<sup>37</sup>.

(B) REGISTERED INSPECTORS

1194. Registration of inspectors.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

No person may conduct an inspection of any school<sup>2</sup> in Wales<sup>3</sup> unless he is registered as an inspector in a register kept by the Chief Inspector<sup>4</sup> for the purposes of Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996<sup>5</sup>. The Chief Inspector must not register<sup>6</sup> a person unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose<sup>7</sup>, it appears to him that that person: (1) is a fit and proper person for discharging the functions<sup>8</sup> of a registered inspector<sup>9</sup>; and (2) will be capable of conducting inspections under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996 competently and effectively<sup>10</sup>, and no person may be so registered if he falls within a category of persons prescribed<sup>11</sup> for these purposes<sup>12</sup>.

An application for registration must be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such particulars, as the Chief Inspector may direct, and it must be accompanied by the prescribed fee<sup>13</sup>. On an application duly made, the Chief Inspector: (a) register the applicant<sup>14</sup>; (b) refuse to register him<sup>15</sup>; or (c) register him subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector considers it appropriate to impose<sup>16</sup>. Conditions imposed under head (c) above may be conditions applying generally in relation to all cases or particular classes of case, or such conditions together with specific conditions applying in the particular case<sup>17</sup>. Where a person is registered subject to such conditions, he must be taken to be authorised to act as a registered inspector only so far as those conditions permit<sup>18</sup>. The period for which any registration has effect must be determined by the Chief Inspector and must be entered in the register kept by him<sup>19</sup>.

1187-1225 Inspection of Schools under the School Inspections Act 1996

Repeal of these provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(ii) Inspection of Schools in Wales/A. INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS UNDER THE SCHOOL INSPECTIONS ACT 1996/(B) Registered Inspectors/1200. Inspection of certain schools by registered inspectors.

1200. Inspection of certain schools by registered inspectors.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

It is the duty of the Chief Inspector<sup>2</sup> to secure that every school<sup>3</sup> in Wales of the types listed in heads (1) to (7) below is inspected, at such intervals as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>, by a registered inspector<sup>5</sup>. The schools which may be inspected are<sup>6</sup>:

- 2173 (1) community, foundation and voluntary schools<sup>7</sup>;
- 2174 (2) community and foundation special schools<sup>8</sup>;
- 2175 (3) special schools which are not community or foundation special schools but are for the time being approved by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>9</sup>;
- 2176 (4) city technology colleges<sup>10</sup>;
- 2177 (5) city colleges for the technology of the arts<sup>11</sup>;
- 2178 (6) academies<sup>12</sup>; and
- 2179 (7) maintained nursery schools<sup>13</sup>.

However, there is no requirement to inspect any school which is a closing school<sup>14</sup>, and in respect of which the Chief Inspector has decided, having regard to the date on which the closure is to take effect, that no useful purpose would be served by the school being inspected<sup>15</sup>.

It is the general duty of any registered inspector conducting an inspection to report on:

- 2180 (a) the quality of the education provided by the school<sup>16</sup>;
- 2181 (b) the educational standards achieved in the school<sup>17</sup>;
- 2182 (c) the quality of the leadership in and management of the school, including whether the financial resources made available to the school are managed efficiently<sup>18</sup>; and
- 2183 (d) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils<sup>19</sup> at the school<sup>20</sup>.

An inspection does not extend to: (i) denominational education<sup>21</sup>; (ii) education which is brought within the remit the Chief Inspector by Part IV of the Learning and Skills Act 2000<sup>22</sup>; or (iii) the content of collective worship<sup>23</sup>.

1 The School Inspections Act 1996 is repealed by the Education Act 2005 s 60 as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), and provision for the inspection of schools in Wales is made by Pt 1 Chs 3-7 (ss 19-63) (not yet in force). However, no such day has been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed, the School Inspections Act 1996 continues to apply in relation to Wales. In relation to any school in Wales, the first inspection under the School Inspections Act 1996 s 10 (as amended) must have taken place before 1 September 2005 (or, in the case of a secondary school, 1 September 2004) and after that first inspection the prescribed interval is every six years: Education (School Inspection) (Wales) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1866, reg 4. Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Every inspection<sup>2</sup> is to be conducted by a registered inspector<sup>3</sup> with the assistance of a team (an 'inspection team')<sup>4</sup>. No person is to act as a member of an inspection team unless he is enrolled in the list kept by the Chief Inspector<sup>5</sup> or he is a member of the inspectorate<sup>6</sup> and, if he is not the Chief Inspector, is authorised so to act by the Chief Inspector<sup>7</sup>. It is the duty of the registered inspector to ensure that:

Enrolment of persons to act as team members.

1203. Enrolment of persons to act as team members.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

The Chief Inspector<sup>2</sup> must keep a list of persons who may act as members of an inspection team<sup>3</sup>, and no person may act as a member of an inspection team unless he is enrolled in the list<sup>4</sup>. The Chief Inspector must not enrol any person in the list unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose<sup>5</sup>, it appears to him that that person is a fit and proper person for carrying out an inspection<sup>6</sup> and will be capable of assisting in an inspection competently and effectively<sup>7</sup>. An application for enrolment in the list must, except in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>, be accompanied by the prescribed fee<sup>9</sup>.

1 The School Inspections Act 1996 is repealed by the Education Act 2005 s 60 as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), and provision for the inspection of schools in Wales is made by Pt 1 Chs 3-7 (ss 19-63) (not yet in force). See note 1 supra. The provisions of the School Inspections Act 1996 s 7(5)-(9) (conditions imposed on registration, and the period for which registration is to have effect: see PARA 1194 ante) apply in relation to the enrolment of a person in the list and to acting as a member of an inspection team as they apply in relation to the registration of a person under s 7(2) (see PARA 1194 ante) and to acting as a registered inspector: Sch 3 para 3A(4) (as so added). Without prejudice to the generality of Sch 2 para 2(1) (regulations may make provision as to the period and manner for the making of appeals: see PARA 1198 ante), regulations under that provision may provide that, where a person is appealing simultaneously: (1) against a decision of the Chief Inspector relating to that person's registration; and (2) against a decision of the Chief Inspector relating to that person's enrolment in the list, both appeals are to be heard at the same time: Sch 3 para 3A(7) (as so added). ### 1187-1225 Inspection of Schools under the School Inspections Act 1996

Repeal of these provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(ii) Inspection of Schools in Wales/A. INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS UNDER THE SCHOOL INSPECTIONS ACT 1996/(C) Procedure for School Inspections/1214. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to community, foundation or voluntary schools or community or foundation special schools.

1214. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to community, foundation or voluntary schools or community or foundation special schools.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where there is sent to the appropriate authority<sup>2</sup> for a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school or maintained nursery school<sup>3</sup> either a report of an inspection<sup>4</sup> of the school, or a report of an inspection of the school by a member of the inspectorate<sup>5</sup> in which that person is required<sup>6</sup> to state that he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>7</sup>, the appropriate authority must prepare a written statement of the action which it proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which it proposes to take it<sup>8</sup>.

It is the duty of the appropriate authority to prepare the statement within the period allowed, that is:

- 2200 (1) such period as may be prescribed<sup>9</sup>; or
- 2201 (2) if: (a) the report states that the person making it is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>10</sup>; (b) either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector<sup>11</sup> agrees with his opinion<sup>12</sup>; and (c) the National Assembly for Wales is of the opinion that the urgency of the case requires a shorter period<sup>13</sup>, such shorter period as the Assembly may direct<sup>14</sup>, but this does not relieve the appropriate authority of any duty to prepare a statement which has not been performed within that period<sup>15</sup>.

Where such a statement has been prepared by the appropriate authority, that authority must, before the end of the prescribed period<sup>16</sup>, send copies of it<sup>17</sup>: (i) to the Chief Inspector<sup>18</sup>; (ii) in the case of a community, foundation or voluntary or community or foundation special school or maintained nursery school, to whichever of the governing body<sup>19</sup> and the local education authority<sup>20</sup> is not the appropriate authority<sup>21</sup>; and (iii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to such other persons, if any, as may be prescribed<sup>22</sup>.

If in the case of a community, foundation or voluntary or community or foundation special school or maintained nursery school, the statement is prepared in response to a report of an inspection of the school in which the person who made the report states that in his opinion special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school, and either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector agrees with his opinion, the appropriate authority must, before the end of the prescribed period<sup>23</sup>, send a copy of the statement to the Assembly<sup>24</sup>. The appropriate authority must also send a copy of the statement in the case of a school having foundation governors<sup>25</sup>, to the person who appoints them and, if different, to the appropriate appointing authority<sup>26</sup>. The appropriate authority must:

- 2202 (A) make any such statement prepared by it available for inspection by members of the public, at such times and at such place as may be reasonable<sup>27</sup>;
- 2203 (B) provide a copy of the statement, free of charge or in prescribed cases<sup>28</sup> on payment of such fee as it thinks fit, not exceeding the cost of supply<sup>29</sup>; and
- 2204 (C) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every registered<sup>30</sup> parent<sup>31</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>32</sup> at the school receives a copy of the statement as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>33</sup>.

Where the governing body of a school has prepared such a statement, it must in the governors' report<sup>34</sup> state the extent to which the proposals set out in the statement (or if there is more than one, the most recent statement) have been carried into effect<sup>35</sup>.

1 The School Inspections Act 1996 is repealed by the Education Act 2005 s 60 as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), and provision for the inspection of schools in Wales is made by Pt 1 Chs 3-7 (ss 19-63) (not yet in force). ### 1187-1225 Inspection of Schools under the School Inspections Act 1996

Repeal of these provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(ii) Inspection of Schools in Wales/A. INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS UNDER THE SCHOOL INSPECTIONS ACT 1996/(C) Procedure for School Inspections/1218. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to schools which are not community, foundation or voluntary schools or community or foundation special schools.

1218. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to schools which are not community, foundation or voluntary schools or community or foundation special schools.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where there is sent to the appropriate authority<sup>2</sup> for a school which is not a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school or maintained nursery school<sup>3</sup>: (1) a report of an inspection<sup>4</sup> of the school<sup>5</sup>; or (2) a report of an inspection of the school made by a member of the inspectorate<sup>6</sup> in which that person is required<sup>7</sup> to state that he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>8</sup>, the appropriate authority must prepare a written statement of the action which it proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which it proposes to take it<sup>9</sup>. It is the duty of the appropriate authority to prepare the statement within the period allowed, that is: (a) such period as may be prescribed<sup>10</sup>; or (b) if the report states that the person making it is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school, and either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector<sup>11</sup> agrees with his opinion, and the National Assembly for Wales is of the opinion that the urgency of the case requires a shorter period, such shorter period as the Assembly may direct<sup>12</sup>, but this does not relieve the appropriate authority of any duty to prepare a statement which has not been performed within that period<sup>13</sup>.

Where such a statement has been prepared by the appropriate authority it must, before the end of the prescribed period<sup>14</sup>, send copies of it: (i) to the Chief Inspector<sup>15</sup>; (ii) to the Assembly<sup>16</sup>; and (iii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to such other persons, if any, as may be prescribed<sup>17</sup>. In the case of a special school which is not a community or foundation special school<sup>18</sup>, the appropriate authority must, before the end of the prescribed period<sup>19</sup>, send a copy of any such statement prepared by it to any local education authority<sup>20</sup>, if the authority is paying fees in respect of the attendance of a registered pupil<sup>21</sup> at the school<sup>22</sup>. The appropriate authority must:

- 2216 (A) make any such statement prepared by it available for inspection by members of the public, at such times and at such place as may be reasonable<sup>23</sup>;
- 2217 (B) provide a copy of the statement, free of charge or in prescribed cases<sup>24</sup> on payment of such fee as it thinks fit, not exceeding the cost of supply<sup>25</sup>; and
- 2218 (C) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every registered parent<sup>26</sup> of a registered pupil at the school receives a copy of the statement as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>27</sup>.

- 2242 (c) keeping under review the system of inspecting schools<sup>17</sup> and, in particular, the standard of such inspections and of the reports made by registered inspectors<sup>18</sup>;
- 2243 (d) keeping under review the extent to which any requirement imposed by or under Part 1 of the Education Act 2005<sup>19</sup>, or any other enactment, on any registered inspector, local education authority<sup>20</sup>, proprietor<sup>21</sup> of a school or governing body<sup>22</sup> in relation to inspections of schools in Wales is complied with<sup>23</sup>;
- 2244 (e) promoting efficiency in the conduct and reporting of inspections of schools in Wales by encouraging competition in the provision of services by registered inspectors<sup>24</sup>.

The Chief Inspector may at any time give advice to the Assembly on any matter connected with schools, or a particular school, in Wales<sup>25</sup>. The Chief Inspector has such other functions<sup>26</sup> in connection with schools in Wales, including functions with respect to the training of teachers<sup>27</sup> for such schools, as may be assigned to him by the Assembly<sup>28</sup>. In exercising his functions, the Chief Inspector must have regard to such aspects of policy adopted or formulated by the Assembly as the Assembly may direct<sup>29</sup>.

For the purposes of the exercise of any function so conferred<sup>30</sup>, the Chief Inspector<sup>31</sup> has at all reasonable times:

- 2245 (i) a right of entry to the premises<sup>32</sup> of any school in Wales<sup>33</sup>; and

- 2248 (iv) a right of entry to any premises of the provider used in connection with the provision by him of that education<sup>38</sup>; and
- 2249 (v) a right to inspect and take copies of any records kept by the provider relating to the provision of that education, and any other documents containing information so relating, which the Chief Inspector requires for those purposes<sup>39</sup>.

It is an offence wilfully to obstruct the Chief Inspector in the exercise of his functions in relation to the inspection of a school<sup>40</sup>, or in the exercise of any right of entry, inspection, and copying of records and documents<sup>41</sup> for the purposes of the exercise of any other function<sup>42</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine<sup>43</sup>.

The Chief Inspector:

- 2250 (A) must make an annual report to the Assembly<sup>44</sup>, which must publish any report that is so made<sup>45</sup>;
- 2251 (B) may make such other reports to the Assembly, with respect to matters which fall within the scope of his functions, as he considers appropriate<sup>46</sup>; and
- 2252 (C) may arrange for any such report made by him<sup>47</sup> to be published in such manner as he considers appropriate<sup>48</sup>.

The Assembly may by regulations<sup>49</sup> establish a panel for the purpose of providing advice to the Assembly on matters relating to the functions that are at any time exercisable by the Chief Inspector under Part 1 of the Education Act 2005 or any other enactment<sup>50</sup>, and make provision as to the functions of the panel<sup>51</sup>.

1227-1263 Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Schools in Wales ... Combined reports under the inspection enactments

These provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. ## (B) REGISTERED INSPECTORS

1233. Registration of inspectors.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

No person may conduct an inspection of any school<sup>2</sup> in Wales<sup>3</sup> unless he is a member of the inspectorate<sup>4</sup>, or registered as an inspector in a register kept by the Chief Inspector<sup>5</sup>. The Chief Inspector must not register a person unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose<sup>6</sup>, it appears to him that that person:

2258 (1) is a fit and proper person for discharging the functions<sup>7</sup> of a registered inspector<sup>8</sup>; and

and no person may be so registered if he falls within a category of persons prescribed<sup>10</sup> for these purposes<sup>11</sup>.

An application for registration must be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such particulars, as the Chief Inspector may direct<sup>12</sup>, and it must be accompanied by the prescribed fee<sup>13</sup>. On an application duly made, the Chief Inspector may: (a) register the applicant<sup>14</sup>; (b) refuse to register him<sup>15</sup>; or (c) register him subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector considers it appropriate to impose<sup>16</sup>. The matters to which the Chief Inspector may have regard in deciding whether to register the applicant include, in particular: (i) the extent to which the Chief Inspector proposes to exercise his discretion<sup>17</sup> to secure that regular inspections<sup>18</sup> are conducted by members of the inspectorate rather than registered inspectors<sup>19</sup>; and (ii) the extent to which there is a need for registered inspectors in Wales<sup>20</sup>. Conditions imposed under head (c) above may be conditions applying generally in relation to all cases, or to particular classes of case, or such conditions together with specific conditions applying in the particular case<sup>21</sup>. Where a person is registered subject to conditions, he must be taken to be authorised to act as a registered inspector only so far as those conditions permit<sup>22</sup>.

The period for which any registration has effect must be determined by the Chief Inspector and must be entered in the register kept by him<sup>23</sup>.

Inspection of certain schools by registered inspectors.

1239. Inspection of certain schools by registered inspectors.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

It is the duty of the Chief Inspector<sup>2</sup> to secure that every school<sup>3</sup> in Wales of the types listed in heads (1) to (4) below is inspected, at such intervals as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>, by a registered inspector<sup>5</sup> or by a member of the inspectorate<sup>6</sup>. The schools which may be inspected are:

It is the general duty of any inspector conducting such an inspection to report on:

- 2282 (d) the quality of the leadership in and management of the school, including whether the financial resources made available to the school are managed effectively<sup>17</sup>;
- 2283 (e) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils at the school<sup>18</sup>; and
- 2284 (f) the contribution made by the school to the well-being of those pupils<sup>19</sup>.

An inspection does not extend to: (i) denominational education<sup>20</sup>; (ii) education which is brought within the remit the Chief Inspector by Part IV of the Learning and Skills Act 2000<sup>21</sup>; or (iii) the content of collective worship<sup>22</sup>.

1242. Enrolment of persons to act as team members.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

The Chief Inspector<sup>2</sup> must keep a list of persons who may<sup>3</sup> act as members of an inspection team<sup>4</sup>. The Chief Inspector may not enrol any person in the list unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose<sup>5</sup>, it appears to him that that person is a fit and proper person for carrying out an inspection<sup>6</sup> and will be capable of assisting in an inspection competently and effectively<sup>7</sup>. An application for enrolment in the list must, except in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>, be accompanied by the prescribed fee<sup>9</sup>.

TEXT AND NOTE 30--Reference to National Council for Education and Training for Wales now to National Assembly for Wales: 2005 Act s 38(6) (amended by the National Council for Education and Training for Wales (Transfer of Functions to the National Assembly for Wales and Abolition) Order 2005, SI 2005/3238).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(ii) Inspection of Schools in Wales/B. INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS UNDER THE EDUCATION ACT 2005/(C) Procedure for School Inspection/1254. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to maintained schools.

1254. Special measures by appropriate authority in relation to maintained schools.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where there is sent to the appropriate authority<sup>2</sup> for a maintained school<sup>3</sup> either a report of a regular inspection<sup>4</sup> of the school<sup>5</sup>, or a report of an inspection of the school by a member of the inspectorate<sup>6</sup> in which that person is required<sup>7</sup> to state that he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>8</sup> or that the school requires significant improvement<sup>9</sup>, the appropriate authority must prepare a written statement of the action which it proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which it proposes to take it<sup>10</sup>.

It is the duty of the appropriate authority to prepare the statement within the period allowed, that is:

- 2311 (1) such period as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>; or
- 2312 (2) if: (a) the report states that the person making it is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school or that the school requires significant improvement<sup>12</sup>; (b) either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector<sup>13</sup> agrees with his opinion<sup>14</sup>; and (c) the National Assembly for Wales is of the opinion that the urgency of the case requires a shorter period<sup>15</sup>, such shorter period as the Assembly may direct<sup>16</sup>.

However, this does not relieve the appropriate authority of any duty to prepare a statement which has not been performed within that period<sup>17</sup>.

Where such a statement has been prepared by the appropriate authority, that authority must, before the end of the prescribed period, send copies of it: (i) to the Chief Inspector<sup>18</sup>; (ii) to whichever of the governing body<sup>19</sup> and the local education authority<sup>20</sup> is not the appropriate authority<sup>21</sup>; and (iii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to such other persons, if any, as may be prescribed<sup>22</sup>.

If in the case of a maintained school, the statement is prepared in response to a report of an inspection of the school in which the person who made the report states that in his opinion special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school or that the school requires significant improvement<sup>23</sup>, and either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector agrees with his opinion<sup>24</sup>, the appropriate authority must, before the end of the prescribed period, send a copy of the statement to the Assembly<sup>25</sup>. The appropriate authority must also send a copy of the statement in the case of a school having foundation governors<sup>26</sup>, to the person who appoints them and, if different, to the appropriate appointing authority<sup>27</sup>. The appropriate authority must:

- 2313 (A) make any such statement prepared by it available for inspection by members of the public, at such times and at such place as may be reasonable<sup>28</sup>;
- 2314 (B) provide a copy of the statement, free of charge or in prescribed cases on payment of such fee as it thinks fit, not exceeding the cost of supply, to any person who asks for one<sup>29</sup>; and

- 2315 (c) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every registered<sup>30</sup> parent<sup>31</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>32</sup> at the school receives a copy of the statement as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>33</sup>.

Where the governing body of a school has prepared such a statement, it must in the governors' report<sup>34</sup> state the extent to which the proposals set out in the statement (or if there is more than one, the most recent statement) have been carried into effect<sup>35</sup>.

1 As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), provision for the inspection of schools in Wales is made by Pt 1 Chs 3-7 (ss 19-63) (not yet in force). 1257. Statement to be prepared by proprietor of a school causing concern which is not a maintained school.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where there is sent to the proprietor<sup>2</sup> of a school<sup>3</sup> other than a maintained school<sup>4</sup> either: (1) a report of a regular inspection<sup>5</sup> of the school<sup>6</sup>; or (2) a report of an inspection of the school made by a member of the inspectorate<sup>7</sup> in which that person is required<sup>8</sup> to state that he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>9</sup> or that the school required significant improvement<sup>10</sup>, the proprietor of the school must prepare a written statement of the action which he proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which he proposes to take it<sup>11</sup>. It is the duty of the proprietor to prepare the statement within the period allowed, that is: (a) such period as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>; or (b) if the report states that the person making it is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school or that the school required significant improvement, and either that person is a member of the inspectorate or the report states that the Chief Inspector<sup>13</sup> agrees with his opinion, and the National Assembly for Wales is of the opinion that the urgency of the case requires a shorter period, such shorter period as the Assembly may direct<sup>14</sup>. However, this does not relieve the proprietor of the school of any duty to prepare a statement which has not been performed within that period<sup>15</sup>.

Where such a statement has been prepared by the proprietor of the school, he must, before the end of the prescribed period, send copies of it: (i) to the Chief Inspector<sup>16</sup>; (ii) to the Assembly<sup>17</sup>; and (iii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to such other persons, if any, as may be prescribed<sup>18</sup>. In the case of a special school<sup>19</sup> which is not a community or foundation special school<sup>20</sup>, the proprietor of the school must, before the end of the prescribed period, send a copy of any such statement prepared by him to any local education authority<sup>21</sup>, if the authority is paying fees in respect of the attendance of a registered pupil<sup>22</sup> at the school<sup>23</sup>. The proprietor of the school must:

- 2323 (A) make any such statement prepared by him available for inspection by members of the public, at such times and at such place as may be reasonable<sup>24</sup>;
- 2324 (B) provide a copy of the statement, free of charge or in prescribed cases on payment of such fee as he thinks fit, not exceeding the cost of supply, to any person who asks for one<sup>25</sup>; and
- 2325 (C) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every registered<sup>26</sup> parent<sup>27</sup> of a registered pupil at the school receives a copy of the statement as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>28</sup>.

1260. Action plans following inspection of religious education.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

The governing body<sup>2</sup> to whom an inspector<sup>3</sup> has reported<sup>4</sup> must, before the end of the prescribed<sup>5</sup> period, prepare a written statement (referred to as 'the action plan') of the action which it proposes to take in the light of his report and the period within which it proposes to take it<sup>6</sup>. Where an action plan has been prepared by a governing body, it must, before the end of the prescribed period, send copies of it to the person who appoints the school's foundation governors<sup>7</sup>, to the local education authority<sup>8</sup> and to such other persons, if any, in such circumstances, as may be prescribed<sup>9</sup>. The governing body must:

- 2329 (1) make any action plan prepared by it available for inspection by members of the public, at such times and at such a place as may be reasonable<sup>10</sup>;
- 2330 (2) provide a copy of the plan, free of charge or in prescribed cases on payment of such fee as it thinks fit, not exceeding the cost of supply, to any person who asks for one<sup>11</sup>; and
- 2331 (3) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every parent<sup>12</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>13</sup> at the school for whom the school provides denominational education<sup>14</sup>, or who takes part in acts of collective worship<sup>15</sup>, as the case may be, receives a copy of the plan as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>16</sup>.

Where the governing body of a school has prepared an action plan, it must include in its governors' report<sup>17</sup> a statement of the extent to which the proposals set out in the plan have been carried into effect<sup>18</sup>.

1264-1274 Intervention in Schools

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Ch IV (ss 14-19A), Sch 1A (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 7 paras 3-13, Sch 18 Pt 4) now applies only in relation to schools in Wales, and references to the Secretary of State are now to the National Assembly for Wales. Similar provision is made in relation to schools in England by Pt 4 (ss 59-73), Sch 6: see PARAS 1264-1273. A local education authority in England must, in exercising its functions under Pt 4, have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State: s 72.

1264 Powers of intervention exercisable by local education authorities in relation to maintained schools

NOTE 1--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 14(1A) repealed: Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 7 para 4(2). In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt I Ch IV 'maintained school' means any school in Wales that is a community, foundation or voluntary school, a community or foundation special school, or a maintained nursery school: s 14(3A) (added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 7 para 4(5)). As to such schools, see PARAS 94, 102 et seq.

In the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Pt 4 (ss 59-73), which makes provision about schools causing concern in England, 'maintained school' means a school in England which is a community, foundation or voluntary school, a community special school or foundation special school, or a maintained nursery school: ss 59(1), 73. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81; definition applied by virtue of s 187(2), (3).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(iii) Intervention in Schools/A. POWERS OF INTERVENTION EXERCISABLE BY LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/1265. Intervention by the local education authority where a maintained school is subject to a formal warning.

1265. Intervention by the local education authority where a maintained school is subject to a formal warning.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may give a warning notice<sup>2</sup> to the governing body of a maintained school<sup>3</sup> where:

2337 (1) the authority is satisfied:

1. (a) that the standards of performance of pupils<sup>4</sup> at the school are unacceptably low and are likely to remain so unless the authority exercises its power of appointing additional governors or its power to suspend the school's right to a delegated budget<sup>5</sup>; or
2. (b) that there has been a serious breakdown in the way the school is managed or governed which is prejudicing, or likely to prejudice, such standards of performance<sup>6</sup>; or
3. (c) that the safety of pupils or staff of the school is threatened (whether by a breakdown of discipline or otherwise)<sup>7</sup>; and

2338 (2) the authority has previously informed the governing body and the head teacher<sup>8</sup> of the matters on which that conclusion is based<sup>9</sup>; and

2339 (3) those matters have not been remedied to the authority's satisfaction within a reasonable period<sup>10</sup>.

If the local education authority has: (i) given the governing body a warning notice and given the head teacher of the school a copy of the notice at the same time<sup>11</sup>; and (ii) the governing body has failed to comply, or secure compliance, with the notice to the authority's satisfaction within the compliance period<sup>12</sup>; and (iii) the authority has given reasonable notice in writing to the governing body that it proposes to exercise its power of intervention<sup>13</sup>, then the local education authority may exercise its power of intervention by appointing additional governors<sup>14</sup> and suspending the school's right to a delegated budget<sup>15</sup>, and may (in relation to England) provide for the governing body to consist of interim executive members<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 14-15 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 paras (b), (c). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

2 For these purposes, a 'warning notice' is a notice in writing by the local education authority setting out: (1) the matters referred to in head (2) in the text; (2) the action which it requires the governing body to take in order to remedy those matters; and (3) the period within which that action is to be taken by the governing body ('the compliance period'): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 15(3). As to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to England, see PARA 203 et seq ante; and as to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to Wales, see PARA 251 et seq ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 1264 note 1 ante.

Before the end of the initial period, the governing body may make representations in writing to the Chief Inspector against the warning notice, and must send a copy of any such representations to the local education authority: s 60(7). The Chief Inspector must consider any representations made to him under s 60(7) and may, if he thinks fit, confirm the warning notice: s 60(8). The Chief Inspector must give notice in writing of his decision whether or not to confirm the warning notice to the local education authority, the governing body and such other persons as the Secretary of State may require: s 60(9). If, following an inspection of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> in England<sup>2</sup>, the Chief Inspector for England<sup>3</sup> has given the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> a notice<sup>5</sup> that the school requires significant improvement<sup>6</sup>, and, where any subsequent report of an inspection of the school has been made<sup>7</sup>, the notice has not been superseded by the person making the subsequent inspection making a report stating that in his opinion the school no longer requires significant improvement or by the Chief Inspector giving the Secretary of State a notice<sup>8</sup> that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>9</sup>, then the local education authority may exercise its power of intervention by appointing additional governors<sup>10</sup> and suspending the school's right to a delegated budget<sup>11</sup>, and may provide for the governing body to consist of interim executive members<sup>12</sup>.

A school in Wales has serious weaknesses if, although giving its pupils<sup>13</sup> in general an acceptable standard of education, it has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>14</sup>. ### 1264-1274 Intervention in Schools

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Ch IV (ss 14-19A), Sch 1A (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 7 paras 3-13, Sch 18 Pt 4) now applies only in relation to schools in Wales, and references to the Secretary of State are now to the National Assembly for Wales. Similar provision is made in relation to schools in England by Pt 4 (ss 59-73), Sch 6: see PARAS 1264-1273. A local education authority in England must, in exercising its functions under Pt 4, have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State: s 72.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(iii) Intervention in Schools/A. POWERS OF INTERVENTION EXERCISABLE BY LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/1268. Power of local education authority to appoint additional governors.

1268. Power of local education authority to appoint additional governors.

Where a maintained school<sup>1</sup> is subject to a formal warning<sup>2</sup> or requires significant improvement<sup>3</sup> or requires special measures to be taken<sup>4</sup>, and this has given rise to the local education authority's<sup>5</sup> powers of intervention<sup>6</sup>, then the local education authority may appoint such number of additional governors as it thinks fit<sup>7</sup>.

In the case of a school which is subject to a formal warning, the local education authority's power to appoint additional governors is only exercisable within the period of two months following the end of the compliance period<sup>8</sup>. In the case of a school requiring significant improvement or requiring special measures, the local education authority's power to appoint additional governors is only exercisable<sup>9</sup> if: (1) the relevant notice has been given to the local education authority<sup>10</sup>; and (2) a period of not less than ten days has elapsed since the date of the notice<sup>11</sup>.

In relation to any such appointment made by the local education authority to the governing body of a school, the instrument of government for the school has effect as if<sup>12</sup> it provided for the local education authority to appoint such number of additional governors as it thinks fit<sup>13</sup>.

In relation to a voluntary aided school<sup>14</sup> which is subject to a formal warning<sup>15</sup>, where the local education authority has exercised its power to appoint additional governors, the appropriate appointing authority<sup>16</sup> may appoint such number of additional foundation governors as is equal to the number of additional governors appointed by the authority<sup>17</sup>. Any such additional foundation governors cease to hold office at the time when the additional governors appointed by the authority cease to do so, and are not eligible for re-appointment except where, and to the extent that, those governors are re-appointed<sup>18</sup>. In relation to a voluntary aided school which requires special measures or requires significant improvement<sup>19</sup>, where the Secretary of State has not exercised his power to appoint additional governors<sup>20</sup> the appropriate appointing authority may appoint such number of additional foundation governors as it thinks fit<sup>21</sup>.

However, this power is only exercisable if: (a) the appropriate appointing authority has received a notice in writing from the Secretary of State informing it that he has received from the Chief Inspector a relevant notice<sup>22</sup>; and (b) a period of not less than ten days has elapsed since the date of the notice<sup>23</sup>.

POWERS OF INTERVENTION EXERCISABLE BY CENTRAL GOVERNMENT/1271. Power to appoint additional governors.

B. POWERS OF INTERVENTION EXERCISABLE BY CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

1271. Power to appoint additional governors.

If at any time the local education authority's<sup>1</sup> powers of intervention<sup>2</sup> have arisen in the case of a maintained school<sup>3</sup> by reason of it requiring significant improvement<sup>4</sup> or requiring special measures to be taken<sup>5</sup>, the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> may appoint such number of additional governors as he thinks fit, and he may nominate one of those governors to be the chairman of the governing body<sup>7</sup> in place of any person who has been elected as chairman of that body<sup>8</sup>. Before making any such appointment in relation to a voluntary aided school<sup>9</sup>, the Secretary of State must consult, in the case of a Church of England school<sup>10</sup>, a Church in Wales school<sup>11</sup> or a Roman Catholic Church school<sup>12</sup>, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>13</sup>, or, in any other case, the person who appoints the foundation governors<sup>14</sup>. A governor so appointed holds office as governor for such term, and if nominated as chairman of the governing body, is chairman of that body for such period, as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>15</sup>. The Secretary of State may pay to any governor so appointed such remuneration and allowances as the Secretary of State may determine<sup>16</sup>. In relation to any appointment made by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup> to the governing body of a school, the instrument of government for the school has effect as if<sup>18</sup> it provided for the Secretary of State to appoint such number of additional governors as he thinks fit<sup>19</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State has exercised his power to appoint additional governors in relation to a school, then in any such case the local education authority may not exercise its power<sup>20</sup> to suspend the governing body's right to a delegated budget<sup>21</sup>, and if it has already exercised its power to suspend the right to a delegated budget<sup>22</sup>, the Secretary of State must, if requested to do so by the governing body, revoke the suspension<sup>23</sup>. The revocation of a suspension must be notified to the local education authority in writing, and take effect from such date as is specified in that notification<sup>24</sup>.

1274. Power to direct local education authority to obtain advisory services.

If at any time a local education authority's<sup>1</sup> powers of intervention<sup>2</sup> have arisen in the case of one or more schools maintained by it<sup>3</sup> by reason of the school in question requiring significant improvement<sup>4</sup> or requiring special measures to be taken<sup>5</sup>, and if it appears to the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> (in relation to England<sup>7</sup>) or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>8</sup> (in relation to Wales<sup>9</sup>) that the local education authority: (1) has not been effective or is unlikely to be effective in eliminating deficiencies in the conduct of that school or those schools<sup>10</sup>; (2) is unlikely to be effective in eliminating deficiencies in the conduct of other schools which may in the future require the authority to exercise its powers of intervention by reason of the school requiring significant improvement or requiring special measures to be taken<sup>11</sup>; or (3) maintains a disproportionate number of schools with such deficiencies<sup>12</sup>, the Secretary of State or the Assembly may direct the local education authority to enter into a contract or other arrangement with a person specified in the direction, or a person falling within a class so specified, for the provision to the authority or the governing body of any school maintained by it<sup>13</sup>, or both, of specified services of an advisory nature<sup>14</sup>. The direction may require the contract or other arrangement to contain specified terms and conditions<sup>15</sup>; and any direction so given is enforceable, on an application made on behalf of the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, of the Assembly, by a mandatory order<sup>16</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State or the Assembly has notified the local education authority that he or it is contemplating the giving of such a direction<sup>17</sup>, the authority must give the Secretary of State or the Assembly, and any person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Assembly for these purposes, such assistance, in connection with the proposed contract or other arrangement, as the authority is reasonably able to give<sup>18</sup>. ### C. INTERVENTION RELATING TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF SIXTH FORM EDUCATION

(A) RESTRUCTURING SIXTH FORM EDUCATION IN ENGLAND

(a) Power to Publish Proposals

1275. Proposals relating to secondary schools requiring significant improvement in relation to their sixth forms.

A school<sup>1</sup> requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>2</sup> if the school is failing to give its pupils over compulsory school age an acceptable standard of education<sup>3</sup>, or if, in relation to pupils over compulsory school age, the school is performing significantly less well than it might in all the circumstances reasonably be expected to perform<sup>4</sup>.

If a person who inspects such a school states in his report an opinion<sup>5</sup> that special measures are not required in relation to the school<sup>6</sup>, but is of the opinion that the school requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>7</sup>, he must state that opinion in his report<sup>8</sup>. If in the course of an area inspection<sup>9</sup> the Chief Inspector<sup>10</sup> forms the opinion that a particular school requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>11</sup>, the Chief Inspector must make a report about the school stating his opinion<sup>12</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals<sup>13</sup> apply in relation to a school if an opinion that it requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form is stated in a report<sup>14</sup>. The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals also apply in relation to a school if:

- 2345 (1) a report of an inspection under the Education Act 2005<sup>15</sup> states the opinion that the school requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>16</sup>;
- 2346 (2) the next report of a kind mentioned in head (1) above also states that opinion<sup>17</sup>; and
- 2347 (3) neither report states the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>18</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals cease to apply in relation to a school if a report of an inspection<sup>19</sup> concludes that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>20</sup>, or that the school does not require significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>21</sup>.

Where a report of an inspection under the Education Act 2005<sup>22</sup> states an opinion that a school requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>23</sup>, the person making such a report must send a copy (together with a copy of the summary, if there is one): (a) to the Secretary of State<sup>24</sup>; and (b) if the school is in England, to the appropriate authority for the school<sup>25</sup>. The provisions of the Education Act 2005 which relate to:

- 2348 (i) additional copies of reports of regular inspections of maintained schools<sup>26</sup> being sent to the head teacher of the school, the local education authority or the governing body, and to the person who appoints the foundation governors or the appropriate appointing authority<sup>27</sup>;
- 2349 (ii) the making available of such reports to the public free of charge, providing them free of charge to any person who so requests, and securing that every registered parent of a registered pupil receives a copy of the summary<sup>28</sup>;
- 2350 (iii) where the local education authority receives a copy of a report about a school the governing body of which have a delegated budget, the preparation and sending of a written statement detailing any action it proposes to take<sup>29</sup>, apply, with the necessary modifications, to a report of an inspection under Part I of the Education Act 2005 which states an opinion that a school in England requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form<sup>30</sup>.

Where a person who inspects a school is of the opinion that a school requires significant improvement in relation to its sixth form, the provisions of the Education Act 2005 relating to the duty of the Chief Inspector to send a draft report to the governing body or proprietor, to consider their comments and to state his opinion in a report<sup>31</sup> also apply, with the necessary modifications, as they apply where he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>32</sup>.

INTERVENTION RELATING TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF SIXTH FORM EDUCATION/(A) Restructuring Sixth Form Education in England/(c) Implementation of Proposals/1281. Implementation of proposals relating to schools requiring special measures or significant improvement.

(c) Implementation of Proposals

1281. Implementation of proposals relating to schools requiring special measures or significant improvement.

Where proposals in respect of schools maintained by a local education authority<sup>1</sup> in England<sup>2</sup> are published<sup>3</sup> the provisions relating to the implementation of such proposals in England<sup>4</sup> apply<sup>5</sup>. Regulations<sup>6</sup> may require: (1) the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>7</sup>; (2) a school organisation committee<sup>8</sup>; and (3) an adjudicator<sup>9</sup>, to provide prescribed<sup>10</sup> information to prescribed persons at prescribed times<sup>11</sup>. Any person may send objections to, or comments on, the proposals to the school organisation committee within such period as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>. The school organisation committee must consider the proposals and either reject them<sup>13</sup>, or approve them without modification<sup>14</sup>, or approve them subject to modifications<sup>15</sup>, or, if the committee thinks it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer them to the adjudicator<sup>16</sup>. In considering proposals a school organisation committee must have regard to: (a) any guidance issued by the Secretary of State; and (b) any objections or comments made<sup>17</sup> and not withdrawn<sup>18</sup>. An approval<sup>19</sup> may be made subject to the occurrence by a specified time of a specified event which is of a prescribed kind<sup>20</sup>.

A committee must refer proposals to the adjudicator if: (i) the committee votes on a decision in relation to the proposals<sup>21</sup>; (ii) the decision is required to be unanimous by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>22</sup>; and (iii) the result of the vote is not unanimous<sup>23</sup>. A committee must also refer proposals to the adjudicator if by the end of the prescribed period the committee has not determined what action to take in relation to the proposals, and the Learning and Skills Council for England requests that the proposals be referred to the adjudicator<sup>24</sup>. Where proposals are referred to the adjudicator he must consider them afresh<sup>25</sup>. The Learning and Skills Council for England may withdraw proposals by notice in writing to the school organisation committee at any time before a determination has been made by the committee or the adjudicator<sup>26</sup>.

Where proposals are approved<sup>27</sup> they must be implemented<sup>28</sup>. However, the school organisation committee:

- 2362 (A) may modify the proposals, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>29</sup>;
- 2363 (B) where the proposals were approved subject to the occurrence of a specified event by a specified time, may, before the arrival of the specified time, substitute a later time<sup>30</sup>; and
- 2364 (C) may determine that the proposals are not to be implemented if implementation would be unreasonably difficult or if it would be inappropriate because of changes in circumstances since the proposals were approved<sup>31</sup>.

If a school organisation committee has not, by the end of the prescribed period, determined whether to take any action under heads (A) to (C) above, the committee must, if the Learning and Skills Council for England requests, refer the question to the adjudicator<sup>32</sup>. A committee may, where it thinks it appropriate to do so and subject to regulations, refer such a question to the adjudicator<sup>33</sup>, and must also refer to the adjudicator such a question if the committee votes on the question, the decision is required to be unanimous by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>34</sup>, and the result of the vote is not unanimous<sup>35</sup>. Where a question is referred to the adjudicator he must consider the matter afresh<sup>36</sup>.

The duty to implement proposals to alter a school in the case of a community or community special school<sup>37</sup>, is a duty of the local education authority<sup>38</sup>, and in the case of a voluntary, foundation or foundation special school<sup>39</sup>, is a duty of the governing body<sup>40</sup>. The duty to implement proposals to discontinue a school<sup>41</sup> in the case of a community or community special school, is a duty of the local education authority<sup>42</sup>, and in the case of a voluntary, foundation or foundation special school, is a shared duty of the governing body and the local education authority<sup>43</sup>.

The provisions relating to the implementation of proposals for the closure of schools in England<sup>44</sup> have effect in relation to a school which is a community, voluntary or foundation school<sup>45</sup>, and is situated in an area other than that of the local education authority which maintains it<sup>46</sup>, with such modifications as may be prescribed by regulations<sup>47</sup> made by the Secretary of State<sup>48</sup>.

1281 Implementation of proposals relating to schools requiring special measures or significant improvement

TEXT AND NOTES--References to a school organisation committee now refer to a local education authority: 2000 Act Sch 7 paras 32-37 (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 3 paras 40-45, Sch 18 Pt 2).

INTERVENTION RELATING TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF SIXTH FORM EDUCATION/(A) Restructuring Sixth Form Education in England/(c) Implementation of Proposals/1282. Implementation of proposals to restructure the provision of sixth form education.

1282. Implementation of proposals to restructure the provision of sixth form education.

Proposals made by the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>1</sup> to restructure the provision of sixth form education in England<sup>2</sup> which have been published and submitted to the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> must be either approved by him (with or without modification or subject to the occurrence of any event)<sup>4</sup>, or rejected by him<sup>5</sup>.

Regulations<sup>6</sup> may make provision about such proposals and may in particular make provision about: (1) consultation on the proposals after publication<sup>7</sup>; (2) the making of objections to or comments on the proposals<sup>8</sup>; (3) the withdrawal or modification of the proposals<sup>9</sup>; (4) the approval of the proposals by the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>.

Where such proposals have been so approved by the Secretary of State, they must be implemented in the form in which they were so approved<sup>11</sup>. However, at the request of any persons prescribed in regulations<sup>12</sup>, the Secretary of State: (a) may modify the proposals, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>; and (b) where any approval was given subject to the occurrence of a specified event, may specify a later date by which the event in question must occur<sup>14</sup>. If the Secretary of State is satisfied, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed in regulations<sup>15</sup>, that implementation of the proposals would be unreasonably difficult<sup>16</sup> or that circumstances have so altered since approval was given that implementation of the proposals would be inappropriate<sup>17</sup>, he may determine that the proposals need not be implemented in the form in which they were so approved<sup>18</sup>.

To the extent that the proposals are proposals to establish a school, they must be implemented by whichever local education authority<sup>19</sup> is being proposed to establish the school<sup>20</sup>.

To the extent that the proposals are proposals to make a prescribed alteration<sup>21</sup> to a school, then:

- 2365 (i) where the proposals relate to a community school<sup>22</sup>, they must be implemented by the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>23</sup>;
- 2366 (ii) where the proposals relate to a voluntary aided school, they must be implemented, so far as relating to the provision of any relevant premises<sup>24</sup>, by the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>25</sup>, and otherwise by the governing body of the school<sup>26</sup>; and
- 2367 (iii) where the proposals relate to any other school, they must be implemented by the local education authority which maintains the school and the governing body of the school, respectively, to such extent (if any) as the proposals provide for each of them to do so<sup>27</sup>.

To the extent that the proposals are proposals to discontinue a school they must be implemented, in the case of proposals relating to a community or community special school<sup>28</sup>, by the local education authority which maintains the school, and, in any other case, by the local education authority which maintains the school and the governing body of the school<sup>29</sup>.

1283. Proposals relating to secondary schools with inadequate sixth forms.

A school<sup>1</sup> has an inadequate sixth form<sup>2</sup> if the school is failing or likely to fail to give pupils over compulsory school age an acceptable standard of education, or the school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>3</sup> for pupils over compulsory school age<sup>4</sup>.

If a person who inspects such a school states in his report an opinion<sup>5</sup> that special measures are not required in relation to the school<sup>6</sup>, but is of the opinion that the school has an inadequate sixth form, he must state that opinion in his report<sup>7</sup>. If in the course of an area inspection<sup>8</sup> the Chief Inspector<sup>9</sup> forms the opinion that a particular school has an inadequate sixth form<sup>10</sup>, the Chief Inspector must make a report about the school stating his opinion<sup>11</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals<sup>12</sup> apply in relation to a school if an opinion that it has an inadequate sixth form is stated in a report<sup>13</sup>, and, where the person making the report is not a member of the inspectorate<sup>14</sup>, the report also states that the Chief Inspector agrees with his opinion<sup>15</sup>. The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals also apply in relation to a school if:

- 2368 (1) a report of an inspection under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996<sup>16</sup> states the opinion that the school has an inadequate sixth form<sup>17</sup>;
- 2369 (2) the next report of a kind mentioned in head (1) above also states that opinion<sup>18</sup>;

- 2371 (4) neither report states the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>20</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals cease to apply in relation to a school if a report of an inspection<sup>21</sup> concludes that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>22</sup>, or that the school does not have an inadequate sixth form<sup>23</sup>.

Where a report of an inspection under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996 states an opinion that a school has an inadequate sixth form, and is made by a member of the inspectorate or states that the Chief Inspector agrees with that opinion<sup>24</sup>, the person making such a report must send a copy (together with a copy of the summary, if there is one): (a) in the case of a school in Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>25</sup>; and (b) if the person making the report is a member of the inspectorate, to the appropriate authority for the school<sup>26</sup>. - 2373 (ii) the making available of such reports to the public free of charge, providing them free of charge to any person who so requests, and securing that every registered parent of a registered pupil receives a copy of the summary<sup>29</sup>;
- 2374 (iii) the preparation of an action plan by the appropriate authority for a school following an inspection<sup>30</sup>; and
- 2375 (iv) where the local education authority receives a copy of a report about a school the governing body of which have a delegated budget, the preparation and sending of a written statement detailing any action it proposes to take<sup>31</sup>, apply, with the necessary modifications, to a report of an inspection under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996 which states an opinion that a school has an inadequate sixth form<sup>32</sup>.

The provisions of the School Inspections Act 1996 relating to inspections by registered inspectors<sup>33</sup> also apply, with the necessary modifications, where the inspector is of the opinion that a school has an inadequate sixth form as it applies where he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to a school<sup>34</sup>.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(2) SCHOOLS/(iii) Intervention in Schools/C. INTERVENTION RELATING TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF SIXTH FORM EDUCATION/(B) Restructuring Sixth Form Education in Wales/(a) Power to Publish Proposals/1284. Proposals relating to institutions for 16-19 year olds requiring special measures or having significant weaknesses.

1284. Proposals relating to institutions for 16-19 year olds requiring special measures or having significant weaknesses.

If a person who inspects a school<sup>1</sup> in Wales states in his report an opinion<sup>2</sup> that special measures are not required in relation to the school, but is of the opinion that the school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities, he must state that opinion in his report<sup>3</sup>. If in the course of an area inspection<sup>4</sup> the Chief Inspector<sup>5</sup> forms the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to a particular school or that a particular school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>6</sup> the Chief Inspector must make a report about the school stating his opinion<sup>7</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals<sup>8</sup> apply in relation to a school if an opinion that it has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities is stated in a report<sup>9</sup>, and where the person making the report is not a member of the inspectorate<sup>10</sup>, the report also states that the Chief Inspector agrees with his opinion<sup>11</sup>. The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals also apply in relation to a school if:

- 2376 (1) a report of an inspection under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996<sup>12</sup> states that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school or that the school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>13</sup>;
- 2377 (2) the next report of a kind mentioned in head (1) above also states an opinion of a kind mentioned in head (1) above<sup>14</sup>; and
- 2378 (3) each report either results from an inspection by a member of the inspectorate or states that the Chief Inspector agrees with the opinion mentioned in head (1) or head (2) above<sup>15</sup>.

The provisions relating to the publication and implementation of proposals cease to apply in relation to a school if a report of an inspection<sup>16</sup> states that special measures are required to be taken in relation to the school<sup>17</sup>, or states that the school does not have significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>18</sup>.

Where a report of an inspection under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996 which states an opinion that a school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities, and is made by a member of the inspectorate or states that the Chief Inspector agrees with that opinion<sup>19</sup>, the person making such a report must send a copy (together with a copy of the summary, if there is one): (a) to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>20</sup>, in the case of a school in Wales<sup>21</sup>; and (b) if the person making the report is a member of the inspectorate, to the appropriate authority for the school<sup>22</sup>. The provisions of the School Inspections Act 1996 which relate to:

- 2379 (i) additional copies of reports and summaries of inspections by registered inspectors<sup>23</sup> being sent to the Chief Inspector, the head teacher of the school, the local education authority or the governing body, and to the person who appoints the foundation governors or the appropriate appointing authority<sup>24</sup>;

- 2380 (ii) the making available of such reports to the public free of charge, providing them free of charge to any person who so requests, and securing that every registered parent of a registered pupil receives a copy of the summary<sup>25</sup>;
- 2381 (iii) the preparation of an action plan by the appropriate authority for a school following an inspection<sup>26</sup>; and
- 2382 (iv) where the local education authority receives a copy of a report about a school the governing body of which have a delegated budget, the preparation and sending of a written statement detailing any action it proposes to take<sup>27</sup>, apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to a report under Part I of the School Inspections Act 1996 which states an opinion that a school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities<sup>28</sup>.

The provisions of the School Inspections Act 1996 relating to inspections by registered inspectors<sup>29</sup> also apply, with the necessary modifications, where the inspector is of the opinion that a school has significant weaknesses in one or more areas of its activities as it applies where he is of the opinion that special measures are required to be taken in relation to a school<sup>30</sup>.

1 The Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113(1), Sch 7 paras 9-14 (as amended) (see the text and notes 2-30 infra) apply to a maintained school within the meaning of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20(7) (see PARA 94 ante), which: (1) provides full-time education suitable to the requirements of pupils over compulsory school age; and (2) does not provide full-time education suitable to the requirements of pupils of compulsory school age: Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 7 para 8. (c) Implementation of Proposals

1289. Implementation of proposals relating to schools having inadequate sixth forms, requiring special measures or having significant weaknesses.

Where proposals in respect of schools maintained by a local education authority<sup>1</sup> in Wales<sup>2</sup> are published<sup>3</sup>, the provisions relating to the implementation of such proposals in Wales<sup>4</sup> apply<sup>5</sup>. Regulations<sup>6</sup> may require the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>7</sup>, and the National Assembly for Wales to provide prescribed<sup>8</sup> information to prescribed persons at prescribed times<sup>9</sup>. Any person may send objections to the proposals to the National Assembly for Wales within such period as may be prescribed<sup>10</sup>. The National Assembly for Wales must consider the proposals and either reject them<sup>11</sup>, or approve them without modification<sup>12</sup>, or approve them subject to modifications<sup>13</sup>. In considering proposals the National Assembly for Wales must have regard to the school organisation plan for the school's area<sup>14</sup>, and any objections made<sup>15</sup> and not withdrawn<sup>16</sup>. Before approving proposals subject to modifications the National Assembly for Wales must consult such persons as it considers appropriate<sup>17</sup>. An approval<sup>18</sup> may be subject to the occurrence by a specified time of a specified event which is of a prescribed kind<sup>19</sup>.

The National Council for Education and Training for Wales may withdraw proposals by notice in writing to the National Assembly for Wales at any time before a determination has been made<sup>20</sup>. Where proposals are approved<sup>21</sup> they must be implemented<sup>22</sup>. However, the National Assembly for Wales:

- 2389 (1) may modify the proposals, after consulting such persons as it considers appropriate<sup>23</sup>;
- 2390 (2) where the proposals were approved subject to the occurrence of a specified event by a specified time, may, before the arrival of the specified time, substitute a later time<sup>24</sup>;
- 2391 (3) may determine that the proposals are not to be implemented if implementation would be unreasonably difficult or if it would be inappropriate because of changes in circumstances since the proposals were approved<sup>25</sup>.

The duty to implement proposals to alter a school in the case of a community or community special school<sup>26</sup>, is a duty of the local education authority<sup>27</sup>, and in the case of a voluntary, foundation or foundation special school<sup>28</sup>, is a duty of the governing body<sup>29</sup>. The duty to implement proposals to discontinue a school<sup>30</sup> in the case of a community or community special school, is the duty of the local education authority<sup>31</sup>, and in the case of a voluntary, foundation or foundation special school, is a shared duty of the governing body and the local education authority<sup>32</sup>.

The provisions relating to the implementation of proposals for the closure of schools in Wales<sup>33</sup> have effect in relation to a school which: (a) is a community, voluntary or foundation school<sup>34</sup>; and (b) is situated in an area other than that of the local education authority which maintains it<sup>35</sup>, with such modifications as may be prescribed, in relation to schools in Wales, by regulations<sup>36</sup> made by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>37</sup>.

INTERVENTION RELATING TO THE RESTRUCTURING OF SIXTH FORM EDUCATION/(B) Restructuring Sixth Form Education in Wales/(c) Implementation of Proposals/1290. Implementation of proposals to restructure the provision of sixth form education.

1290. Implementation of proposals to restructure the provision of sixth form education.

Proposals made by the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>1</sup> to restructure the provision of sixth form education in Wales<sup>2</sup> which have been published and submitted to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> must be either approved by the Assembly (with or without modification or subject to the occurrence of any event)<sup>4</sup>, or rejected by it<sup>5</sup>.

Regulations<sup>6</sup> may make provision about such proposals and may in particular make provision about: (1) consultation on the proposals after publication<sup>7</sup>; (2) the making of objections to or comments on the proposals<sup>8</sup>; (3) the withdrawal or modification of the proposals<sup>9</sup>; (4) the approval of the proposals by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>10</sup>.

Where such proposals have been so approved by the Assembly, they must be implemented in the form in which they were so approved<sup>11</sup>. However, at the request of any persons prescribed in regulations<sup>12</sup>, the Assembly: (a) may modify the proposals, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>; and (b) where any approval was given subject to the occurrence of a specified event, may specify a later date by which the event in question must occur<sup>14</sup>. If the Assembly is satisfied, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed in regulations<sup>15</sup>, that implementation of the proposals would be unreasonably difficult<sup>16</sup> or that circumstances have so altered since approval was given that implementation of the proposals would be inappropriate<sup>17</sup>, it may determine that the proposals need not be implemented in the form in which they were so approved<sup>18</sup>.

To the extent that the proposals are proposals to establish a school, they must be implemented by whichever local education authority<sup>19</sup> is being proposed to establish the school<sup>20</sup>.

To the extent that the proposals are proposals to make a prescribed alteration<sup>21</sup> to a school, then:

- 2392 (i) where the proposals relate to a community school<sup>22</sup>, they must be implemented by the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>23</sup>;
- 2393 (ii) where the proposals relate to a voluntary aided school, they must be implemented, so far as relating to the provision of any relevant premises<sup>24</sup>, by the local education authority which maintains the school<sup>25</sup>, and otherwise by the governing body of the school<sup>26</sup>; and

(3) NURSERY EDUCATION

(i) Inspection of Nursery Education in England

1291. General functions of the Chief Inspector.

The Chief Inspector<sup>1</sup> has the general duty of keeping the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> informed about the quality and standards of relevant nursery education<sup>3</sup>, how far relevant nursery education meets the needs of the range of children for whom it is provided<sup>4</sup>, the quality of leadership and management in connection with the provision of relevant nursery education<sup>5</sup>, the contribution of relevant nursery education to the well-being of the children for whom it is provided<sup>6</sup>, and the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of children<sup>7</sup> for whom relevant nursery education is provided<sup>8</sup>. When asked to do so by the Secretary of State, the Chief Inspector must give advice to the Secretary of State on such matters relating to relevant nursery education as may be specified in the Secretary of State's request<sup>9</sup>. The Chief Inspector may at any time give advice to the Secretary of State on any matter connected with relevant nursery education generally<sup>10</sup> or relevant nursery education, or nursery education under consideration for funding<sup>11</sup>, provided at particular premises<sup>12</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'Chief Inspector' (without more) means, as respects nursery education provided in England, Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 122(1), Sch 26 para 2(1)(a), (c)(i) (Sch 26 para 2(1) substituted by the Education Act 2005 s 53, Sch 7 Pt 2 paras 8 10(1), (2)). 6 Ibid Sch 26 para 3(ac) (as added: see note 4 supra). For these purposes, 'well-being', in relation to children for whom nursery education is provided in England, is a reference to their well-being having regard to the matters mentioned in the Children Act 2004 s 10(2) (co-operation to improve well-being: see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 187); School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 26 para 2(5)(a) (added by the Education Act 2005 Sch 7 Pt 2 paras 8, 10(1), (6)).

As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), 'nursery education under consideration for funding' means nursery education provided by a person with whom a local education authority is considering making arrangements in pursuance of its duty regarding the availability of nursery education (see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 118; and PARA 86 ante) for the provision of nursery education in consideration of financial assistance provided by the authority under the arrangements: Sch 26 para 1(2) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 7 Pt 2 paras 8, 9(1), (3)). As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c), the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 26 para 1(3) is substituted so that education is to be treated for the purposes of Sch 26 (as amended) as nursery education under consideration for funding even though it is provided for children who have not attained the prescribed age where: (i) any education is for the time being provided at any premises for children who have not attained the age prescribed for the purposes of s 118(1)(b) (see PARA 86 ante) ('the prescribed age'); and (ii) that education is provided by a person who proposes to provide nursery education at those premises for children who have attained the prescribed age, and with whom a local education authority is considering making arrangements of the kind mentioned in Sch 26 para 1(2) (prospectively amended): Sch 26 para 1(3) (prospectively substituted by the Education Act 2005 Sch 7 Pt 2 paras 8, 9(1), (4)). ## UPDATE

1295-1302 Inspection of Nursery Education in Wales

These provisions now in force: SI 2006/1338.

1297 Inspections conducted by members of the inspectorate

NOTE 1--1998 Act s 122(1) amended: Childcare Act 2006 Sch 2 para 33.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/11. INSPECTION AND INTERVENTION/(3) NURSERY EDUCATION/(ii) Inspection of Nursery Education in Wales/1298. Registration of nursery education inspectors.

1298. Registration of nursery education inspectors.

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 requires the Chief Inspector<sup>1</sup> to establish and maintain a register of nursery education inspectors for Wales<sup>2</sup>.

The Chief Inspector must give guidance to registered nursery education inspectors<sup>3</sup> and such other persons as he considers appropriate in connection with inspections<sup>4</sup> and the making of reports of such inspections<sup>5</sup>, and must keep under review the system of inspections<sup>6</sup> and, in particular, the standard of such inspections and of the reports made of them<sup>7</sup>. The Chief Inspector must not register a person unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose<sup>8</sup>, it appears to him that the person<sup>9</sup> is a fit and proper person for discharging the functions<sup>10</sup> of a registered nursery education inspector<sup>11</sup>, and will be capable of conducting inspections<sup>12</sup> competently and effectively; and no person may be so registered if he falls within a category of persons prescribed<sup>13</sup> for these purposes<sup>14</sup>. Subject to that, the Chief Inspector must register such persons as he considers appropriate<sup>15</sup>. The factors which the Chief Inspector may take into account for these purposes include the extent to which there is a need for registered inspectors in any part of Wales<sup>16</sup>. The Chief Inspector may require payment of a fee before so registering a person<sup>17</sup>; and registration may be subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector considers it appropriate to impose<sup>18</sup>. Any conditions so imposed may be conditions applying generally in relation to all cases, or to particular classes of case, or such conditions together with specific conditions applying in the particular case<sup>19</sup>. Where a person is registered subject to conditions so imposed, he must be taken to be authorised to act as a registered nursery education inspector only so far as those conditions permit<sup>20</sup>.

The period for which any registration is to have effect must be determined by the Chief Inspector and must be entered in the register<sup>21</sup>.

If the Chief Inspector is satisfied that any of the conditions mentioned in heads (1) to (4) below is satisfied with respect to a nursery education inspector registered in his register, he may remove the name of that inspector from that register<sup>22</sup>. The conditions are that:

- 2416 (1) he is no longer a fit and proper person for discharging the functions<sup>23</sup> of a registered nursery education inspector<sup>24</sup>;
- 2417 (2) he is no longer capable of conducting inspections<sup>25</sup> competently and effectively<sup>26</sup>;
- 2418 (3) there has been a significant failure on his part to comply with any condition<sup>27</sup> subject to which his registration has effect<sup>28</sup>;
- 2419 (4) he has, without reasonable explanation, produced a report of an inspection<sup>29</sup> which is, in whole or in part, seriously misleading<sup>30</sup>.

The Chief Inspector may vary any condition subject to which the registration of an inspector has effect, or vary the registration of an inspector by imposing a condition subject to which it will have effect, if he is satisfied that he is authorised<sup>31</sup> to remove the name of the inspector from his register<sup>32</sup>, or that it would otherwise be in the public interest for him to do so<sup>33</sup>.

Any person who is aggrieved<sup>34</sup> by:

- 2420 (a) the refusal of the Chief Inspector to renew his registration<sup>35</sup>;

- 2421 (b) the imposition or variation of any condition subject to which he is registered<sup>36</sup>; or may appeal against the Chief Inspector's decision<sup>38</sup>. No decision against which an appeal may be so made has effect until any appeal against it which is duly made is disposed of, or the period within which an appeal may be made expires without an appeal being made<sup>39</sup>.
 2422 (c) the removal of his name from the register<sup>37</sup>,

On determining any such appeal, the tribunal may confirm, reverse or vary the decision appealed against<sup>40</sup>, or remit the case to the Chief Inspector with directions as to the action to be taken by him<sup>41</sup>.

A. THE ADULT LEARNING INSPECTORATE

(A) IN GENERAL

1304. Establishment of the Adult Learning Inspectorate.

The Adult Learning Inspectorate was set up as a body corporate under the Learning and Skills Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, with a remit to inspect adult learning in England<sup>2</sup>. The inspectorate consists of nine members appointed by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>, one of whom the Secretary of State must appoint as chairman and another of whom he must appoint as the inspectorate's chief officer<sup>4</sup>. The chief officer is known as the Chief Inspector of Adult Learning<sup>5</sup>. In appointing any member, the Secretary of State must have regard to the desirability of appointing a person who has experience relevant to the inspectorate's functions<sup>6</sup>.

The inspectorate is not to be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown<sup>7</sup>, and the inspectorate's property is not to be regarded as property of the Crown or as property held by or on its behalf<sup>8</sup>.

The Secretary of State may make grants to the inspectorate of such amounts and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit<sup>9</sup>. The conditions may:

- 2425 (1) set the inspectorate's budget for any of its financial years<sup>10</sup>;
- 2426 (2) require it to use the grants for specified purposes<sup>11</sup>;
- 2427 (3) enable the Secretary of State to require the repayment, in whole or in part, of sums paid by him if any condition imposed is not complied with<sup>12</sup>;
- 2428 (4) require the payment of interest in respect of any period during which a sum due to the Secretary of State in accordance with any of the conditions remains unpaid<sup>13</sup>.

The inspectorate began work on 1 April 2001.

1305. Tenure of members.

A person is to hold and vacate office as a member or as chairman or chief officer of the Adult Learning Inspectorate<sup>1</sup> in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>2</sup>. If a person is to be appointed<sup>3</sup> as chairman or chief officer and is not already a member of the inspectorate, the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> must appoint him as a member for the same term as his appointment as chairman or chief officer<sup>5</sup>. If a person is to be so appointed and is already a member of the inspectorate but his term of appointment as such would end before his term of appointment as chairman or chief officer ends, the Secretary of State must extend his term of appointment as a member so that it ends when his appointment as chairman or chief officer ends<sup>6</sup>. On ceasing to be a member, chairman or chief officer a person is eligible for re-appointment<sup>7</sup>. ### 1307. Staff.

The Adult Learning Inspectorate<sup>1</sup> may appoint such employees, including inspectors, as it thinks fit<sup>2</sup>. A person employed as an inspector is known as an Inspector of Adult Learning<sup>3</sup>. The inspectorate must pay to its employees such remuneration and allowances as it may determine<sup>5</sup> and its employees are to be appointed on such other terms as the inspectorate may determine<sup>6</sup>. Such a determination<sup>7</sup> requires the Secretary of State's<sup>8</sup> approval<sup>9</sup>.

Employment with the inspectorate is included among the kinds of employment to which a scheme relating to the pensions, allowances or gratuities which are to be paid, or may be paid, by the Minister for the Civil Service<sup>10</sup> under the Superannuation Act 1972<sup>11</sup> can apply<sup>12</sup>. The inspectorate must pay to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as he may direct, such sums as he may determine in respect of the increase<sup>13</sup> in the sums payable under the Superannuation Act 1972 out of money provided by Parliament<sup>14</sup>. ### 1309. Members' interests.

A member of the Adult Learning Inspectorate<sup>1</sup> who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in any matter that is brought up for consideration at a meeting of the inspectorate or a committee of the inspectorate must disclose the nature of his interest to the meeting<sup>2</sup>. If such a disclosure is made it must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting<sup>3</sup>, and the member must not take any part in any deliberation or decision of the inspectorate or any committee of the inspectorate with respect to that matter<sup>4</sup>. If a member is not present at a meeting at which a matter in which he is interested is brought up for consideration, the requirement to disclose the nature of his interest<sup>5</sup> only applies to him if he was aware that the matter would be brought up for consideration at the meeting<sup>6</sup>. Before making a request, the National Assembly for Wales must consult the Chief Inspector for Wales as to the matters to be specified in the request<sup>16</sup>. An inspection is to consist of a review of the way in which the person is providing the education, training or advisory service specified in the request<sup>17</sup>. Any inspection under the provisions described above must be conducted by one or more of any of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education and Training in Wales<sup>18</sup>, or any additional authorised inspector<sup>19</sup>, but such an inspector or inspectors may be assisted by such other persons, whether or not members of the staff of the Chief Inspector for Wales, as the Chief Inspector for Wales thinks fit<sup>20</sup>. In conducting an inspection, the inspector or inspectors must act in accordance with any instruction or guidelines given from time to time by the Assembly<sup>21</sup>. Where an inspection has been completed, the inspector or inspectors must make a written report on the inspection and send the report to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>22</sup>. The Assembly may arrange for any report of an inspection to be published in such manner as it considers appropriate<sup>23</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>24</sup>. The Chief Inspector<sup>25</sup> has the general duty of keeping the Assembly informed about the quality of the relevant services<sup>26</sup> provided in Wales in pursuance of arrangements made or directions given by the Assembly under certain provisions of the Employment and Training Act 1973<sup>27</sup>. Any person who provides, or arranges for the provision of, relevant services in accordance with such arrangements or directions (a 'service provider')<sup>28</sup> must be inspected by the Chief Inspector at prescribed intervals<sup>29</sup>. When asked to do so by the Assembly, the Chief Inspector must: (1) give advice to the Assembly on such matters relating to the provision of relevant services in Wales in pursuance of such arrangements or directions as may be specified in the Assembly's request<sup>30</sup>; or (2) inspect any service provider<sup>31</sup>. The Chief Inspector may at any time: (a) give advice to the Assembly relating to the provision of relevant services in Wales in pursuance of such arrangements or directions<sup>32</sup>; or (b) inspect any service provider<sup>33</sup>. Such an inspection of any service provider is to consist of a review of the way in which the person is discharging his responsibilities<sup>34</sup>, having regard to any guidance given by the Assembly with respect to the provision of relevant services<sup>35</sup>. If a person ('a relevant provider') who provides a relevant service<sup>36</sup> also provides education, training or an advisory service in Wales in pursuance of arrangements<sup>37</sup> made by the Assembly<sup>38</sup> or with the assistance of a grant or loan<sup>39</sup>, the Chief Inspector has the general duty of keeping the Assembly informed about the quality of any such education, training or advisory services provided by relevant providers in Wales<sup>40</sup>. The Chief Inspector must inspect any relevant provider at prescribed intervals<sup>41</sup>. When asked to do so by the Assembly, the Chief Inspector must: (i) give advice to the Assembly on such matters relating to the provision of any such education, training or advisory services by relevant providers<sup>42</sup>; or (ii) inspect any relevant provider<sup>43</sup>. The Chief Inspector may at any time: (A) give advice to the Assembly relating to the provision of such education, training or advisory services by relevant providers<sup>44</sup>; or (B) inspect any service provider<sup>45</sup>. An inspection of any relevant provider is to consist of a review of the way in which the person is providing the education, training or advisory services in pursuance of arrangements made by the Assembly or with the assistance of a grant or loan<sup>46</sup>. Any inspection under the provisions described above<sup>47</sup> must be conducted by one or more of any of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Education and Training in Wales<sup>48</sup>, or any additional authorised<sup>49</sup> inspector<sup>50</sup>. However, such an inspector or inspectors may be assisted by such other persons, whether or not members of the Chief Inspector's staff, as the Chief Inspector thinks fit<sup>51</sup>. In conducting such an inspection, the inspector or inspectors must act in accordance with any instruction or guidelines given from time to time by the Assembly<sup>52</sup>. The inspector conducting the inspection, and any person assisting him<sup>53</sup>, has at all reasonable times a right of entry to any premises where the relevant services or, as the case requires, the education, training or advisory services<sup>54</sup> are provided<sup>55</sup>; and he also has a right to inspect, and take copies of, any records or other documents kept by the person being inspected, which he requires for the purposes of the inspection<sup>56</sup>. It is an offence intentionally to obstruct the inspector conducting the inspection, or any person assisting him<sup>57</sup>, in the exercise of his functions in relation to the inspection<sup>58</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine<sup>59</sup>. Where such an inspection has been completed, the Chief Inspector must prepare a written report on the inspection within a prescribed period<sup>60</sup>, and send a copy of the report to the person inspected, the Assembly, any prescribed person, and any other person whom he considers appropriate<sup>61</sup>. The Chief Inspector must publish the report in the prescribed manner or, if none is prescribed, in such manner as he considers appropriate<sup>62</sup>. Regulations may require the person inspected to prepare a written statement in response to the report of the inspection<sup>63</sup>.

The Chief Inspector for Wales may, without being asked to, conduct such an inspection<sup>7</sup>. If financial resources have been applied by the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>8</sup> or a local education authority<sup>9</sup> in respect of education or training which is being so inspected, the inspection may extend to considering the manner in which those resources have been applied and whether they have been applied in a way which provides value for money<sup>10</sup>. The Assembly may also direct a local education authority whose area is wholly or partly in the area covered by the report to prepare a written statement of the action which it proposes to take in the light of the report and the period within which it proposes to take it<sup>21</sup>. In preparing the statement the National Council for Education and Training for Wales or the local education authority must consult such persons as the Assembly may direct<sup>22</sup>. A training provider to which an inspection relates must give the Chief Inspector all assistance in connection with the exercise of his functions which it is reasonably able to give, and must secure that all such assistance is also given by persons who work for the training provider<sup>18</sup>. The Chief Inspector may not carry out any inspection<sup>19</sup> unless: (i) at least eight weeks previously, he has given notice<sup>20</sup> of his intention to carry out the inspection to the training provider concerned, or where the training is provided by a partnership or association of training providers, to one of those training providers<sup>21</sup>; or (ii) with the agreement of that training provider or (as the case may be) one of those training providers, he has given it shorter notice of that intention<sup>22</sup>.

The Chief Inspector may not carry out any inspection<sup>19</sup> unless: (i) at least eight weeks previously, he has given notice<sup>20</sup> of his intention to carry out the inspection to the training provider concerned, or where the training is provided by a partnership or association of training providers, to one of those training providers<sup>21</sup>; or (ii) with the agreement of that training provider or (as the case may be) one of those training providers, he has given it shorter notice of that intention<sup>22</sup>.

NOTE 13--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2006/1338.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/12. LAND AND PREMISES/(1) PROVISION OF SITES AND PREMISES/1352. Provision of sites and buildings for foundation, voluntary controlled and foundation special schools.

12. LAND AND PREMISES

(1) PROVISION OF SITES AND PREMISES

1352. Provision of sites and buildings for foundation, voluntary controlled and foundation special schools.

In the case of a foundation, voluntary controlled or foundation special school<sup>1</sup>, the local education authority<sup>2</sup> must provide any new site<sup>3</sup> which is to be provided in addition to, or instead of, the school's existing site or part of its existing site<sup>4</sup>, and provide any buildings which are to form part of the school premises<sup>5</sup>. However, this does not apply in relation to the provision of any site or buildings which the authority or promoters are required to provide<sup>6</sup>, nor does this require the local education authority to finance the acquisition by the governing body<sup>7</sup> of any site or buildings provided otherwise than by the authority<sup>8</sup>.

Where a site is provided for a school under these provisions, the local education authority must transfer its interest<sup>9</sup> in the site, and in any buildings on the site which are to form part of the school premises: (1) to the trustees of the school to be held by them on trust for the purposes of the school<sup>10</sup>; or (2) if the school has no trustees, to the school's foundation body<sup>11</sup> or, in the absence of such a body, to the governing body, to be held by that body for the relevant purposes<sup>12</sup>. Where: (a) such a transfer is made<sup>13</sup>; and (b) the transfer is made to persons who possess, or are or may become entitled to, any sum representing proceeds of the sale of other premises which have been used for the purposes of the school<sup>14</sup>, those persons must notify the local education authority that head (b) above applies to them and they or their successors must pay to the local education authority so much of that sum as, having regard to the value of the interest transferred, may be determined to be just, either by agreement between them and the authority or, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>15</sup>.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 For these purposes, 'site' does not include playing fields but otherwise includes any site which is to form part of the premises of the school in question: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 22(7), Sch 3 para 2(11). 'Premises', in relation to a school, includes any detached playing fields but, except where otherwise expressly provided, does not include a teacher's dwelling-house: Education Act 1996 s 579(1); definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

9 References to an interest in land include any easement, right or charge in, to or over land: Education Act 1996 s 579(2); definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). 'Land' includes buildings and other structures, land covered with water, and any interest in land: Education Act 1996 s 579(1); definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

10 Ibid Sch 3 para 2(3)(a). References to land or other property held on trust, or by trustees, for the purposes of a school include references to land or other property which: (1) is held on trust for purposes which (whether the trust deed expressly so provides or not) include the purposes of the school; and (2) is used for the purposes of the school: s 21(3)(c).

11 For the meaning of 'foundation body' see PARA 104 note 6 ante.

12 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 2(3)(b). 13 Ibid Sch 3 para 2(6)(a).

14 Ibid Sch 3 para 2(6)(b). The reference in Sch 3 para 2(6)(b) to proceeds of the sale of other premises includes a reference to: (1) consideration for the creation or disposition of any kind of interest in other premises, including rent; and (2) interest which has accrued in respect of any such consideration: Sch 3 para 2(7).

15 Ibid Sch 3 para 2(6). For the purposes of any agreed determination under Sch 3 para 2(6), regard must be had to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State: Sch 3 para 2(7). For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, references to disposing of land include references to: (1) granting or disposing of any interest in land; (2) entering into a contract to dispose of land or to grant or dispose of any such interest; and (3) granting an option to purchase any land or any such interest: s 142(6).

Any sum paid under Sch 3 para 2(6) must be treated for the purposes of the Schools Sites Act 1841 s 14 (as amended) (sale or exchange of land held on trust for the purposes of a school: see PARA 1354 post) as a sum applied in the purchase of a site for the school: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 2(8).

A determination may be made under Sch 3 para 2(6) in respect of any property subject to a trust which has arisen under the Reverter of Sites Act 1987 s 1 (as amended) (right of reverter replaced by trust for sale: see CHARITIES vol 8 (2010) PARA 70) if, and only if: (a) the determination is made by the Secretary of State; and (b) he is satisfied that steps have been taken to protect the interests of the beneficiaries under the trust: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 2(9).

Schedule 3 para 2(6) applies for the purpose of compensating the authority notified under Sch 3 para 2(6) only in relation to such part of the sum mentioned in Sch 3 para 2(6)(b) (see head (b) in the text), if any, as remains after the application of s 76, Sch 22 paras 1-3 (as amended) (see PARAS 1364-1367 post) to that sum: Sch 3 para 2(10).

1352 Provision of sites and buildings for foundation, voluntary controlled and foundation special schools

NOTE 6--In the case of a school in England, the reference to the provision of any site or buildings is a reference to the provision of any site or building by virtue of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 2 Pt 3 paras 21-27 (see PARA 165A.2): 1998 Act Sch 3 para 2(2)(a) (amended by the 2006 Act Sch 3 para 31).

1353. Provision of sites for voluntary aided schools.

In the case of a voluntary aided school<sup>1</sup>, the local education authority<sup>2</sup> must provide any new site<sup>3</sup> which is to be provided in addition to, or instead of, the school's existing site, or part of its existing site<sup>4</sup>. However, this does not apply in relation to the provision of any site which persons other than the authority are required to provide by virtue of any enactment<sup>5</sup>, nor does this require the local education authority to finance the acquisition by the governing body<sup>6</sup> of any site or buildings provided otherwise than by the authority<sup>7</sup>.

Where a site is provided for a school under these provisions, the local education authority must transfer its interest in the site, and in any buildings on the site which are to form part of the school premises: (1) to the trustees of the school to be held by them on trust for the purposes of the school<sup>8</sup>; or (2) if the school has no trustees, to the school's foundation body<sup>9</sup>, to be held by that body for the relevant purposes<sup>10</sup>.

Where a site is provided for a school under these provisions<sup>11</sup> and work is required to be done to the site to clear it or make it suitable for building purposes<sup>12</sup>, the local education authority and the governing body of the school may make an agreement providing for the making of such payments, or of such other adjustments of their respective rights and liabilities<sup>13</sup>, as will secure that the cost of the work is borne by the authority<sup>14</sup>. Where a site is provided for a school under these provisions<sup>15</sup> and there are buildings on the site which are of value for the purposes of the school<sup>16</sup>, the local education authority and the governing body of the school may make an agreement providing for the making of such payments, or of such other adjustments of their respective rights and liabilities, as appear to be desirable having regard to the governing body's duties<sup>17</sup> with respect to the school premises<sup>18</sup>.

NOTE 18--Definition of 'school buildings' in 1996 Act s 579(1) amended: National Health Service (Consequential Provisions) Act 2006 Sch 1 para 185.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/12. LAND AND PREMISES/(1) PROVISION OF SITES AND PREMISES/1354. Provision of school premises under the School Sites Acts.

1354. Provision of school premises under the School Sites Acts.

The School Sites Acts<sup>1</sup> afford facilities for persons and bodies who might otherwise be under disabilities to convey land for certain purposes connected with education<sup>2</sup>.

The School Sites Act 1841 enabled a donor with a beneficial interest in land to convey up to one acre of the land as a site for a school for the education of poor persons or for a teacher's residence, subject to provisos, one of which was that the land should revert to him or his successors if at any time in the future the land ceased to be used for the purposes mentioned in the Act<sup>3</sup>.

Difficulties arose where reverter occurred but the donor or his successors could not be traced<sup>4</sup>. The Reverter of Sites Act 1987 substituted a trust for sale<sup>5</sup> for the right of reverter<sup>6</sup> and provided for the making of Charity Commissioners' schemes, enabling an alternative use to be made of school sites if and when the school closed<sup>7</sup>.

The Charity Commissioners are empowered to establish a scheme extinguishing the rights of beneficiaries under the trust and requiring the property to be held on trust for specified charitable purposes, and those purposes must be as similar as possible to those obtaining before the reverter, and must also provide for enabling a beneficiary who has not consented to the scheme to claim compensation within five years<sup>8</sup>. Before a scheme is made, notice of the application for a scheme must be published in two national newspapers and a local one<sup>9</sup>. An appeal against the making of a scheme may be brought within three months of the order making the scheme<sup>10</sup>.

It is also provided that the power of sale of land or buildings<sup>11</sup> is exercisable at any time in relation to land in relation to which (but for the exercise of the power) a trust may subsequently arise<sup>12</sup>, and that the exercise of that power in respect of any land prevents any such trust arising in relation to that land or any land representing the proceeds of sale of that land<sup>13</sup>.

1 The School Sites Act 1841, the School Sites Act 1844, the School Sites Act 1849, School Sites Act 1851 and the School Sites Act 1852: see the text and notes 2-3 infra.

2 Such disabilities existed under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act 1888 (repealed by the Charities Act 1960 ss 38, 48(2), Sch 7 Pt II). The powers are therefore no longer necessary but much land was conveyed under the School Sites Acts and their provisions continue to apply to the land so conveyed. As to the School Sites Act 1841 see the text and note 3 infra.

The School Sites Act 1844 was concerned with parliamentary grants for the education of the poor: see s 1 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (terms and conditions upon which parliamentary aid is given towards the building of schools); the School Sites Act 1844 s 2 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (applications by trustees of ancient endowed schools for parliamentary aid for rebuilding schools); the School Sites Act 1844 s 4 (grant of sites to ministers and churchwardens and their successors); and s 5 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (grant of part of glebe). Where any parliamentary grant was made towards the provision, repair or furnishing of any school premises with the consent of the trustees or holders of the legal estate, no sale, exchange or mortgage can validly be made of the premises, subject to certain exceptions, without the consent of the Secretary of State unless the grant is repaid to the Treasury: see the School Grants Act 1855 s 1 (amended by the Statute Law Revision 1892; the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1978 s 1, Sch 2 para 2; and the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1981). As to savings in relation to purchasers for value without notice see the School Grants Act 1855 s 2. As to the Treasury see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 512-517.

The School Sites Act 1849 extended and explained the provisions of the School Sites Acts: see the School Sites Act 1849 s 1 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (apportionment of rents and fines); the School

Sites Act 1849 s 2 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (liabilities of tenants and remedies of landlords); the School Sites Act 1849 s 3 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891) (limitation of land to be granted in same parish); the School Sites Act 1849 s 4 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891; and the Charities Act 1960 Sch 7 Pt II) (sites for schools for instruction of masters of elementary schools); and the School Sites Act 1849 s 5 (power to convey to corporations as trustees).

The School Sites Act 1851 amended the School Sites Act 1841 and the School Sites Act 1849: see the School Sites Act 1851 ss 1, 2.

The School Sites Act 1852 concerned conveyances and endowments: see the School Sites Act 1852 s 1 (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1891).

3 See the School Sites Act 1841 s 2 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888). There is no reference in the School Sites Act 1841 s 2 (as amended) to 'the purposes in the deed of grant mentioned', so that a breach of any restrictions in the deed would not have the drastic consequence of causing a reverter, although those restrictions could be enforced in the same way as those in any other charitable trust: Fraser v Canterbury Diocesan Board of Finance (No 2) supra. See also CHARITIES vol 8 (2010) PARA 70.

The School Sites Act 1841 made provision in relation to: the grant of land by the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster (see s 3 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888; and the Statute Law Revision Act 1890)); persons entitled to convey lands (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 5 (amended by the Mental Treatment Act 1930 s 20(5); the Law Reform (Married Women and Tortfeasors) Act 1935 s 5, Sch 2; and the Mental Health Act 1959 s 149(4)); the conveyance of land by corporations, justices and trustees (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 6 (amended by the Local Government Act 1929 s 137, Sch 12 Pt VII; the Local Government Act 1933 s 307, Sch 11 Pt IV; and the London Government Act 1939 s 207, Sch 8)); grants of land to corporations or trustees to be held by them for school purposes (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 7 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)); estates vested in trustees which may be conveyed to the minister and churchwardens (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 8 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)); the number of sites which may be granted by one person for separate schools (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 9 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)); forms of grants (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 10 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888; and the Education (Scotland) Act 1945 Sch 5)); application of purchase money for land sold by any ecclesiastical corporation sole (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 11 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)); form of certificate required by ecclesiastical corporations sole (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 13 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)); sale or exchange land or buildings by trustees (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 14 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888; and the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1978)); and the prohibition of schoolmasters acquiring life interest by virtue of appointment (see the School Sites Act 1841 s 17 (amended by the Statute Law Revision (No 2) Act 1888)).

1354 Provision of school premises under the School Sites Acts

NOTE 3--Fraser, cited, reported at [2006] 1 AC 377.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/12. LAND AND PREMISES/(1) PROVISION OF SITES AND PREMISES/1355. Additional property for use by an institution within the further education sector.

1355. Additional property for use by an institution within the further education sector.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order<sup>2</sup> provide for any land<sup>3</sup> or other property of a local authority<sup>4</sup> to be made available for use by an institution within the further education sector<sup>5</sup> (a 'new sector institution') where in his opinion the following requirements are satisfied<sup>6</sup>:

- 2519 (1) the property either has within the preceding six months been used for the purpose of the provision of further education<sup>7</sup> by an institution maintained by a local education authority<sup>8</sup>, but its use for that purpose has been discontinued or the local education authority intends its use for that purpose to be discontinued<sup>9</sup> or it is being used for that purpose but the local education authority intends its use for that purpose to be discontinued<sup>10</sup>; and
- 2520 (2) it is necessary or desirable for the property to be available for use for the purposes of the new sector institution, but the governing body<sup>11</sup> of that institution has been unable to secure agreement with the local authority, on such terms as may reasonably be required, to secure that the property is so available<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State must not make such an order unless the governing body of the new sector institution applies to him, before the end of the period of three years beginning with the operative date<sup>13</sup>, for such an order to be made<sup>14</sup>, and he has consulted the appropriate learning and skills council<sup>15</sup> and the local authority<sup>16</sup>. For the purpose of making any property available for use for the purposes of an institution, an order may: (a) transfer to, and vest in, the governing body the property concerned<sup>17</sup> and any rights or liabilities of the local authority acquired or incurred for the purpose of the provision of further education there<sup>18</sup>; or (b) confer any rights or impose any liabilities and, to the extent (if any) that the order does so, it has effect as if contained in an agreement between the local authority and the governing body<sup>19</sup>.

This is subject to the requirement that no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 34 may be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 34 is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Consequential Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2867, reg 2, Schedule Pt 1 para 18). Relief under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A (as added) must be claimed in a land transaction return or an amendment of such a return: s 88A(2) (as so added). ## (2) ACQUISITION, APPROPRIATION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND

(i) Acquisition of Land by Agreement

1356. Acquisition of land by agreement.

For the removal of doubt, it has been declared that making land<sup>1</sup> available for the purposes of a school<sup>2</sup> or institution which is, or is to be, maintained by a local education authority<sup>3</sup> or which such an authority has power to assist<sup>4</sup>, is a function of the authority<sup>5</sup>, even though the land will not be held by the authority<sup>6</sup>. A local education authority must not acquire by agreement any land required for the purposes of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>7</sup> unless it is satisfied that the arrangements made<sup>8</sup>:

- 2521 (1) as to the vesting of the land to be acquired<sup>9</sup>; and
- 2522 (2) as to the appropriation of that land for the purposes of the school<sup>10</sup>, are such as to secure that the expenditure ultimately borne by it will not include any expenditure which, if the land had been acquired by the governing body<sup>11</sup> of the school, would have fallen to be borne by the governing body<sup>12</sup>.

(ii) Compulsory Purchase of Land

1357. Compulsory purchase of land.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may authorise a local education authority<sup>2</sup> to purchase compulsorily any land<sup>3</sup>, whether within or outside its area, which: (1) is required for the purposes of any school<sup>4</sup> or institution which is, or is to be, maintained by it or which it has power to assist<sup>5</sup>; or (2) is otherwise required for the purposes of its functions<sup>6</sup> under the Education Act 1996<sup>7</sup>; or (3) is required for the purposes of any academy<sup>8</sup> which has been or is to be established as a result of the implementation of proposals made pursuant to a notice published by the local education authority<sup>9</sup> and forms the whole or part of the site identified in that notice<sup>10</sup>. The Secretary of State must not authorise the compulsory purchase of any land required for the purposes of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>11</sup> unless he is satisfied that the arrangements made<sup>12</sup>:

- 2523 (a) as to the vesting of the land to be purchased<sup>13</sup>; and
- 2524 (b) as to the appropriation of that land for the purposes of the school<sup>14</sup>, are such as to secure that the expenditure ultimately borne by the local education authority will not include any expenditure which, if the land had been purchased by the governing body<sup>15</sup> of the school, would have fallen to be borne by the governing body<sup>16</sup>.

(iii) Appropriation of Land

1358. Appropriation of land by local education authority.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may appropriate<sup>2</sup> for any purpose for which it is authorised by statute to acquire land<sup>3</sup> by agreement<sup>4</sup> any land which belongs to it and is no longer required<sup>5</sup> for the purpose for which it is held immediately before the appropriation<sup>6</sup>. The appropriation is, however, also subject to the rights of other persons in, over or in respect of the land concerned<sup>7</sup>.

1 The Local Government Act 1972 s 122(1) (see the text and notes 2-7 infra) applies to principal councils. 'Principal council' means a council elected for a principal area (see s 270(1)); and, by virtue of the Education Act 1996, 'principal council' includes a local education authority (see s 12(1)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to principal councils see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 23.

2 It is subject to the Local Government Act 1972 s 122(2), (2A), (2B), (4) (s 122(2) as amended; and s 122(2A), (2B) as added); see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 513. As to restrictions on the change in use of school playing fields see PARA 1376 post; as to restrictions on the appropriation of land formerly used as a school see PARA 1359 post; and as to the duty to inform the Secretary of State of a proposal to change the use of land formerly used as a school see PARA 1360 post.

3 'Land' includes any interest in land and any easement or right in, to or over land: ibid s 270(1).

4 It is under the Local Government Act 1972 or under any other enactment: see PARA 1356 ante; and LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 509.

5 The authority is the sole judge of whether or not the land is still required for the purpose for which it is held immediately before the appropriation, and its decision cannot be challenged in the absence of bad faith: Dowty Boulton Paul Ltd v Wolverhampton Corpn (No 2) [1973] Ch 94, [1972] 2 All ER 1073; affd [1976] Ch 13, [1973] 2 All ER 491, CA.

If:

- 2525 (1) a freehold or leasehold interest in land<sup>1</sup> is held by a local education authority<sup>2</sup>;
- 2526 (2) the authority proposes to make an appropriation of the land<sup>3</sup>; and
- 2527 (3) at any time in the period of eight years ending with the day on which the appropriation is proposed to be made, the land was used wholly or mainly for the purposes of a county school<sup>4</sup> or community school<sup>5</sup>, then, unless the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> consents, the authority must not make the appropriation<sup>7</sup>. If an authority makes an appropriation in contravention of this provision, the Secretary of State may purchase the interest concerned compulsorily<sup>8</sup>.

On completion of such a compulsory purchase the Secretary of State must transfer the interest to a person concerned with the running of an academy<sup>9</sup>.

Disposal of land under the Local Government Act 1972 by a local education authority.

(iv) Disposal of Land

A. DISPOSAL OF LAND BY LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES

1361. Disposal of land under the Local Government Act 1972 by a local education authority.

The Local Government Act 1972 provides that a local education authority<sup>1</sup> may, subject to certain conditions<sup>2</sup>, dispose of land in any manner it wishes<sup>3</sup>. Except with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, a local education authority must not dispose of land under these provisions, otherwise than by way of a short tenancy<sup>5</sup> for a consideration less than the best that can reasonably be obtained<sup>6</sup>. A local education authority may not dispose of any land consisting or forming part of an open space<sup>7</sup> unless, before disposing of the land, it causes notice of its intention to do so, specifying the land in question, to be advertised in two consecutive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the land is situated, and considers any objections to the proposed disposal which may be made to it<sup>8</sup>.

1 The Local Government Act 1972 s 123(1) (see the text and notes 2-3 infra) applies to principal councils. 'Principal council' means a council elected for a principal area (see s 270(1)); and, by virtue of the Education Act 1996, 'principal council' includes a local education authority (see s 12(1)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to principal councils see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 23.

2 The subject to the Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2), (2A), (2B) (s 123(2A), (2B) as added): see the text and notes 4-8 infra. As to restrictions on the disposal of school playing fields see PARA 1376 post; and as to the restriction on the disposal of land formerly used as a school see PARA 1362 post.

3 See ibid s 123(1). In R v Barnet London Borough Council, ex p Pardes House School Ltd [1989] COD 512, [1989] EGCS 64, Farquharson J held that, when disposing of land used for educational purposes, the local education authority, in fulfilling its duty to act fairly, must consider its own policy with regard to the use of land for educational purposes.

4 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

5 For these purposes, a disposal of land is a disposal by way of a short tenancy if it consists: (1) of the grant of a term not exceeding seven years; or (2) of the assignment of a term which at the date of the assignment has not more than seven years to run: Local Government Act 1972 s 123(7). See LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 27.

6 Ibid s 123(2). Section 123(2) (prohibition on disposal of land below market value without consent of the Secretary of State: see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 515) does not apply in the case of a disposal: (1) to the governing body of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school; or (2) to persons proposing to establish such a school: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 22, Sch 3 Pt III para 12. As to the disapplication of restrictions on local authority disposals see also PARA 306 ante. As to foundation, voluntary and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante; and as to special schools generally see PARA 1027 et seq ante.

The Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2) does not apply to a disposal to a person for the purposes of an academy: Education Act 1996 s 482(6), Sch 35A para 10(2) (Sch 35A added by the Education Act 2002 s 65(3), Sch 7 Pt 1 para 1). As to academies see PARA 496 et seq ante.

7 As to open spaces see OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARA 501 et seq.

8 Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2A) (s 123(2A), (2B) added by the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 s 118, Sch 23 para 14). See LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 515. The Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2A) (as added) does not apply to a disposal which is made to a person for the purposes of an academy and for no consideration: Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 10(3) (as added: see note 6 supra). See also PARA 1362 post.

Where by virtue of the Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2A) (as added) a local education authority disposes of land which is held for the purposes of the Public Health Act 1875 s 164 (pleasure grounds: see OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARA 556) or held in accordance with the Open Spaces Act 1906 s 10 (duty to maintain open spaces and burial grounds: see CREMATION AND BURIAL vol 10 (Reissue) PARA 1164; OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARA 577), the land is by virtue of the disposal to be freed from any trust arising solely by virtue of its being land held in trust for enjoyment by the public in accordance with those statutory provisions: Local Government Act 1972 s 123(2B) (as so added).

Restriction on the disposal of land formerly used for the purposes of a school.

1362. Restriction on the disposal of land formerly used for the purposes of a school.

If:

- 2531 (1) a freehold or leasehold interest in land<sup>1</sup> is held by a local education authority<sup>2</sup>;
- 2532 (2) the authority proposes to make a disposal in respect of the interest<sup>3</sup>, or to enter into a contract to make a disposal in respect of it, or to grant an option to make an acquisition<sup>4</sup> in respect of it<sup>5</sup>; and
- 2533 (3) at any time in the period of eight years ending with the day on which the disposal, contract or option is proposed to be made, entered into or granted, the land was used wholly or mainly for the purposes of a county school<sup>6</sup> or community school<sup>7</sup>, then, unless the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> consents<sup>9</sup>, the authority must not make the disposal or enter into the contract or grant the option<sup>10</sup>. If an authority makes a disposal or enters into a contract or grants an option in contravention of the provision described above<sup>11</sup>, then: (a) in the case of a grant of an option, the Secretary of State may by notice served on the option holder repudiate the option at any time before it is exercised<sup>12</sup>; (b) in the case of a contract to make a disposal in respect of an interest, the Secretary of State may by notice served on the other party to the contract repudiate it at any time before a conveyance of the interest concerned<sup>13</sup> is executed<sup>14</sup>; (c) in the case of a disposal in respect of an interest (whether or not in pursuance of an option or a contract under head (a) or head (b) above), the Secretary of State may purchase the interest concerned<sup>15</sup> compulsorily<sup>16</sup>.

On completion of a compulsory purchase of an interest under head (c) above, the Secretary of State must transfer the interest to a person concerned with the running of an academy<sup>17</sup>.

2 Education Act 1996 s 482(6), Sch 35A para 2(1)(a) (Sch 35A added by the Education Act 2002 s 65(3), Sch 7 Pt 1 para 1). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 Sch 35A paras 2-3 (as added), references to a disposal in respect of an interest are references to a disposal of the whole interest or of a lesser interest: Sch 35A para 4(1) (a) (as added: see note 2 supra).

4 For the purposes of ibid Sch 35A paras 2-3 (as added), references to an acquisition in respect of an interest are references to an acquisition of the whole interest or of a lesser interest: Sch 35A para 4(1)(b) (as added: see note 2 supra).

8 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

9 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 2(2) (as added), the consent of the Secretary of State may be given in relation to a particular case or class of case, and may be given subject to conditions: Sch 35A para 12 (as added: see note 2 supra). Regulations under Sch 35A (as added) may include provision that consent under Sch 35A para 2 (as added) is to be sought in a specified way: Sch 35A para 11(f) (as so added). 'Regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 1996: s 579(1). As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 1996 generally see PARA 40 note 5 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under Sch 35A (as added).

10 Ibid Sch 35A para 2(2) (as added: see note 2 supra). Schedule 35A para 2(2) (as added) does not apply to a disposal made in pursuance of a contract made, or option granted, before 26 July 2002 (ie the coming into force of Sch 35A para 2 (as added): see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 1) Order 2002, SI 2002/2002, art 2): Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 2(3) (as so added). See also PARAS 1361 ante, 1376 post. Nor does Sch 35A para 2(2) (as added) apply to: (1) a disposal in favour of a person for the purposes of an academy and for no consideration; (2) a contract to make such a disposal; or (3) a grant of an option for a person to make an acquisition for the purposes of an academy and for no consideration: Sch 35A para 2(4) (as so added). As to academies see PARA 496 et seq ante.

A disposal or contract or grant is not invalid by reason only that it is made in contravention of Sch 35A para 2(2) (as added): Sch 35A para 2(5) (as so added). A person acquiring an interest in land or entering into a contract to acquire it is not to be concerned to enquire whether consent required by Sch 35A para 2(2) (as added) has been given: Sch 35A para 2(6) (as so added).

11 Ibid Sch 35A para 3(1) (as added: see note 2 supra).

12 Ibid Sch 35A para 3(2) (as added: see note 2 supra). Such a repudiation has effect when the notice is served, and as if the repudiation were made by the authority: Sch 35A para 3(4) (as so added).

13 If the disposal referred to in ibid Sch 35A para 3(3) (as added) or Sch 35A para 3(5) (as added) (see the text and notes 15-16 infra) is a disposal of a lesser interest (see note 3 supra), the reference to the interest concerned is to the lesser interest: Sch 35A para 4(2) (as added: see note 2 supra).

14 Ibid Sch 35A para 3(3) (as added: see note 2 supra). Such a repudiation has effect when the notice is served, and as if the repudiation were made by the authority: Sch 35A para 3(4) (as so added).

15 See note 13 supra.

The Acquisition of Land Act 1981 (see COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF LAND vol 18 (2009) PARA 501 et seq) applies in relation to the compulsory purchase of an interest under the Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 3(5) (as added): Sch 35A para 3(6) (as so added). If the Secretary of State acquires an interest by compulsory purchase under Sch 35A para 3(5) (as added), he is entitled to recover from the authority an amount equal to the aggregate of: (1) the compensation agreed or awarded in respect of the purchase; (2) any interest payable by him in respect of the compensation; and (3) the costs and expenses incurred by him in connection with the making of the compulsory purchase order: Sch 35A para 3(8) (as so added). The authority must provide the Secretary of State with such information as he may require it to provide in connection with a compulsory purchase under Sch 35A para 3(5) (as added): Sch 35A para 3(9) (as so added).

17 Ibid Sch 35A para 3(7) (as added: see note 2 supra).

Where: (1) a freehold or leasehold interest in land is transferred for no consideration from a local authority to a person for the purposes of an academy, whether or not by virtue of a scheme under Sch 35A para 1 (as added) (see PARA 1406 post); and (2) at any time on or after 26 July 2002 (ie the day on which Sch 35A (as added) came into force: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 1) Order 2002, SI 2002/2002, art 2), the authority is granted an option to make a reacquisition of the interest (subject to whatever conditions), the rule against perpetuities does not apply to the option: Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 9 (as so added). As to the rule against perpetuities see PERPETUITIES AND ACCUMULATIONS vol 35 (Reissue) PARA 1008 et seq. Where a lease is granted by or transferred from a local authority to a person for the purposes of an academy on or after 26 July 2002, the Law of Property Act 1925 s 153 (as amended) (enlargement of leases granted for no rent etc: see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(3) (2006 Reissue) PARA 1386) does not apply to permit that person to enlarge the term under the lease: Education Act 1996 Sch 35A para 10(1) (as so added).

LAND AND PREMISES/(2) ACQUISITION, APPROPRIATION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND/(iv) Disposal of Land/A. DISPOSAL OF LAND BY LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/1363. Disposal of land of a voluntary aided school by a local education authority in England.

1363. Disposal of land of a voluntary aided school by a local education authority in England.

Where a local education authority<sup>1</sup> in England<sup>2</sup> disposes of relevant land<sup>3</sup> enhanced in value wholly or partly by means of capital expenditure<sup>4</sup> incurred by the governing body<sup>5</sup> of a voluntary aided school after 1 April 2002<sup>6</sup>, the authority must notify the relevant body<sup>7</sup> that these provisions apply to it and that it must pay to the relevant body so much of the proceeds of disposal as may be determined to be just, either by agreement between the trustees and the relevant body or, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup>. However, these provisions do not apply unless the relevant body gives to the local education authority no later than 12 months after the expenditure is incurred a statement setting out the amount of expenditure<sup>9</sup>, and stating that it is capital expenditure<sup>10</sup>.

If the local education authority permits relevant land to be used for purposes not connected with the school, it must be treated for these purposes as having disposed of the land<sup>11</sup>, and must pay to the relevant body so much of the value of the land as may be determined to be just, either by agreement between the trustees and the relevant body or, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 76, Sch 22 Pt IV para 11 was added by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 12. The Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, applies only in relation to England: see art 2. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

3 For these purposes, 'relevant land' means any caretaker's dwelling, or other buildings which are not school buildings, which form part of the premises of a voluntary aided school: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 11(1)(d) (as added: see note 2 supra). For the meaning of 'school building' see PARA 1353 note 18 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to the meaning of 'premises' see PARA 1352 note 3 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

4 For these purposes, 'capital expenditure' has the meaning given by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 13 (see PARA 308 note 9 ante), as it has effect from time to time: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 11(1)(a) (as added: see note 2 supra).

5 As to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to England, see PARA 203 et seq ante.

6 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 11(2) (as added: see note 2 supra). The date referred to in the text is the 'commencement date', being the date on which the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, came into force (see reg 1(1)): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 11(1)(b) (as so added).

B. DISPOSAL OF LAND BY FOUNDATION, VOLUNTARY OR FOUNDATION SPECIAL SCHOOLS

1364. Disposal of land by governing bodies of foundation, voluntary or foundation special schools.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> must give written consent to the governing body<sup>2</sup> of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>3</sup> for the disposal<sup>4</sup> of:

- 2534 (1) any land<sup>5</sup> acquired<sup>6</sup> under transfers under certain provisions of the Education Act 1996 or the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>7</sup>;
- 2535 (2) any land acquired from a foundation body<sup>8</sup>;
- 2536 (3) any land acquired from the Funding Agency for Schools<sup>9</sup>;
- 2537 (4) any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of any maintenance, special purpose or capital grant<sup>10</sup>;
- 2538 (5) any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of expenditure incurred for the purposes of the school<sup>11</sup> and treated by the local education authority<sup>12</sup> as expenditure of a capital nature<sup>13</sup>; or
- 2539 (6) any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly with the proceeds of disposal<sup>14</sup> of any land acquired or enhanced in value as mentioned in any of heads (1) to (5) above<sup>15</sup>.

Where the governing body applies to the Secretary of State for his consent to any such disposal and he decides to give that consent, he may do one or more of the following<sup>16</sup>: (a) require the land or any part of the land to be transferred to such local authority<sup>17</sup> as he may specify, subject to the payment by that authority of such sum by way of consideration, if any, as he determines to be appropriate<sup>18</sup>; and (b) give the governing body, when the land or any part of the land is disposed of, a direction to pay, either to him or to such local authority as he may specify, the whole or any part of the proceeds of disposal<sup>19</sup> and a direction as to the use to which the whole or any part of the proceeds of disposal should be put<sup>20</sup>.

These provisions do not apply to any disposal which: (i) is made by the governing body of a foundation or foundation special school after 7 June 2005<sup>21</sup>; and (ii) is a disposal to the trustees of the school made on the school becoming a school with a foundation<sup>22</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

<sup>2</sup> As to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to England, see PARA 203 et seq ante; and as to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to Wales, see PARA 251 et seq ante.

<sup>3</sup> As to foundation, voluntary and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante; and as to special schools generally see PARA 1027 et seq ante.

<sup>4</sup> School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 76, Sch 22 para 1(1), (2) (Sch 22 para 1(2) amended by the Education Act 2005 s 107, Sch 17 paras 1, 2(1), (4)). For these purposes, 'disposal' includes: (1) a compulsory disposal (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 10(1)(b)(i)); and (2) in the case of any premises held under a tenancy to which the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 Pt II (ss 23-46) (as amended) (see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 701 et seq) applies, the termination of that tenancy under Pt II (as amended) (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 10(1)(b)(ii)). For the purposes of Sch 22 para 10(1)(b)(ii), expressions to which a meaning is given for the purposes of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 have the same meaning as in the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (see LANDLORD AND TENANT): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 10(2). As to the meaning of 'disposing of land' see PARA 1352 note 15 ante. As to the meaning of 'premises' see PARA 1352 note 3 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 1 (as amended) is subject to Sch 22 para 1(1A) (as added) (see the text and notes 21-22 infra): Sch 22 para 1(1) (amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 17 paras 1, 2(1), (2)(a)).

For these purposes, 'the trustees' in relation to a school, means any person (other than the governing body) holding property on trust for the purposes of the school: Sch 22 para 10(1)(a). As to grant-maintained and grant-maintained special schools see PARA 102 notes 16-17 ante.

In Sch 22 para 1(1) (as amended), references, in relation to the governing body of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school, to any land being acquired in a particular way, include references to the land being acquired in that way by the temporary governing body for the school: Sch 22 para 10(5).

7 Ibid Sch 22 para 1(1)(a). 12 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

13 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 1(1)(e). However, Sch 22 para 1(1)(e) does not apply in the case of any expenditure incurred on or after 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante) unless the authority: (1) prepared a statement in writing containing details of the amount of the expenditure, the acquisition or works funded (or to be funded) by such expenditure and the total cost (or estimated total cost) of that acquisition or those works and indicating that the expenditure was being treated by it as expenditure of a capital nature; and (2) sent a copy of the statement to the governing body either before, or no later than 12 months after, the expenditure was incurred: Sch 22 para 1(5).

14 For these purposes, references to 'proceeds of disposal' in relation to a disposal of land, are references to: (1) any consideration for the disposal, including rent (ibid Sch 22 para 10(1)(c)(i)); (2) any compensation for the disposal, including any compensation paid by the landlord on the quitting of any premises within Sch 22 para 10(1)(b)(ii) (see note 4 supra) by the governing body, foundation body or trustees, whether or not the compensation is required to be paid by the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 s 37 (as amended) (compensation where order for new tenancy precluded on certain grounds: see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(2) (2006 Reissue)

19 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 22 para 1(3)(b)(i). More than one direction may be given under Sch 22 para 1(3)(b)(i) in relation to a disposal of land within Sch 22 para 1(1) (as amended) (see the text and notes 1-15 supra) where it is just to do so, in particular where the disposal involves the creation of a lease: Sch 22 para 1(4).

1364-1368 Disposal of Land by Foundation, Voluntary or Foundation Special Schools

1998 Act Sch 22 paras 1-4 (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 4 paras 3-8, Sch 18 Pt 6) now apply only in relation to schools in Wales. The 1998 Act Sch 22 paras A1-A27 (added by the 2006 Act Sch 4 para 2) make similar provision in relation to schools in England.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/12. LAND AND PREMISES/(2) ACQUISITION, APPROPRIATION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND/(iv) Disposal of Land/B. DISPOSAL OF LAND BY FOUNDATION, VOLUNTARY OR FOUNDATION SPECIAL SCHOOLS/1367. Disposal of land by trustees of foundation, voluntary or foundation special schools.

1367. Disposal of land by trustees of foundation, voluntary or foundation special schools.

Where the trustees<sup>1</sup> of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>2</sup> dispose of<sup>3</sup>:

- 2549 (1) any land<sup>4</sup> acquired under certain provisions of the Education Act 1996 or the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>5</sup>; or
- 2550 (2) any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of expenditure incurred on or after 1 September 1999<sup>6</sup> for the purposes of the school<sup>7</sup> and treated by the local education authority<sup>8</sup> as expenditure of a capital nature<sup>9</sup>; or
- 2551 (3) any land acquired by the governing body of the school under a transfer under certain provisions of the Education Act 1996<sup>10</sup>, or wholly or partly with the proceeds of disposal<sup>11</sup> of any land so acquired, and transferred by the governing body to be held on trust by the trustees<sup>12</sup>, they must notify the local education authority that head (1), head (2) or head (3), as the case may be, applies to them and they or their successors will pay to the authority so much of the proceeds of disposal as may be determined to be just, either by agreement between them and the authority or, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

Where a voluntary aided school was, immediately before 1 September 1999, a controlled school<sup>14</sup>, any disposal by the trustees of the school of any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of expenditure incurred under certain provisions of the Education Act 1996<sup>15</sup>, the trustees must notify the local education authority that this is the case and they or their successors will pay to the authority so much of the proceeds of disposal as may be determined to be just, either by agreement between them and the authority or, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup>.

Where the trustees of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school dispose of:

- 2552 (a) any land acquired from the Funding Agency for Schools<sup>17</sup>; or
- 2553 (b) any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of certain grants under the Education Act 1996<sup>18</sup>; or
- 2554 (c) any land acquired wholly or partly with the proceeds of disposal of any land acquired or enhanced in value as mentioned in head (a) or head (b) above<sup>19</sup>, the trustees must notify the local education authority that head (a), head (b) or head (c), as the case may be, applies to them and they and their successors must undertake to the authority to use the proceeds of disposal for the purposes of the school<sup>20</sup>, or for the purposes of any other existing or proposed foundation, voluntary or foundation special school, whether or not such proposals have yet been published under any enactment in respect of that proposed school<sup>21</sup>.

Where the trustees of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school dispose of any land acquired, or enhanced in value, wholly or partly by means of any grant made in pursuance of a special agreement<sup>22</sup>, the governing body of the school must repay such a grant to the local education authority by whom the school is maintained, unless the governing body and the authority otherwise agree<sup>23</sup>.

Where the trustees of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school wish, in the case of any land held by them for the purposes of the school, to use the land for purposes not connected with the provision of education in maintained schools, the provisions described above<sup>24</sup> apply as if any such change of use of the land were a disposal of the land<sup>25</sup>, and the value of the land as at the date of any determination<sup>26</sup> or of any direction<sup>27</sup> is treated as proceeds of the disposal of the land<sup>28</sup>.

Where the trustees fail to make such an application<sup>16</sup>, the Secretary of State may nevertheless make any such requirement or give any such direction as mentioned in heads (a) to (d) above<sup>17</sup>.

A governing body which is to be dissolved<sup>15</sup> may transfer any land or other property which is held by it on trust for the purposes of the school<sup>16</sup> to any person to hold such land or other property on trust for purposes connected with the provision of education in maintained schools<sup>17</sup>.

D. SCHOOL PLAYING FIELDS

1376. Control of disposals or changes in use of school playing fields in England.

In England<sup>1</sup>, the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> is required where a local authority<sup>3</sup> or, in certain cases<sup>4</sup>, the governing body of a maintained school<sup>5</sup> or a foundation body<sup>6</sup> disposes of any playing fields<sup>7</sup>: (1) which are, immediately before the date of the disposal, used by a maintained school for the purposes of the school<sup>8</sup>; or (2) which are not then so used but have been so used at any time within the period of ten years ending with that date<sup>9</sup>.

The Secretary of State's consent is also required where a local authority takes any action<sup>10</sup>, which is intended or likely to result in a change of use of any playing fields<sup>11</sup>:

- 2582 (a) which are, immediately before the date when the action is taken, used by a maintained school for the purposes of the school<sup>12</sup>; or
- 2583 (b) which are not then so used but have been so used at any time within the period of ten years ending with that date<sup>13</sup>, whereby the playing fields will be used for purposes which do not consist of or include their use as playing fields by a maintained school for the purposes of the school<sup>14</sup>.

1 Nothing in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 77 (see the text and notes 2-14 infra) applies in relation to Wales: s 77(9). For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

2 For these purposes, the Secretary of State's consent may be given in relation to a particular disposal or change of use or generally in relation to disposals or changes of use of a particular description, and in either case may be given subject to conditions: ibid s 77(5). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

3 See ibid s 77(1), (2)(a). For these purposes, 'local authority' includes a parish council: s 77(7). For the meaning of 'local authority' generally see PARA 50 note 1 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to areas and authorities in England see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 24 et seq. As to parish councils see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARAS 27-34.

Section 77 has effect despite anything in the Local Government Act 1972 ss 123, 127 (both as amended) (general power to dispose of land: see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARAS 515, 520) or in any other enactment: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 77(6). Any consent which a local authority is required to obtain by virtue of s 77 is in addition to any consent required by virtue of the Local Government Act 1972 ss 123, 127 (both as amended) (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARAS 515, 520): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 77(6).

Note that, until Sch 22 (as amended) came into force on 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante), s 77(2)(b) had effect as if the reference to Sch 22 para 1 (as amended) or Sch 22 para 2 (as amended) were a reference to the Education Act 1996 s 231(7) (repealed): see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (School Playing Fields) (Modification) (England) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/1, reg 2 (revoked).

5 See the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 77(1), (2)(b)(i). As to the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to England, see PARA 203 et seq ante. For these purposes, any reference to a maintained school includes, in relation to any time falling before the appointed day (see note 4 supra), a reference to the school as: (1) a county, voluntary or maintained special school; or (2) a grant-maintained or grant-maintained special school, within the meaning of the Education Act 1996: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 77(8). As to county, voluntary and maintained special schools see PARA 102 ante; and as to grant-maintained and grant-maintained special schools see PARA 102 notes 16-17 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' generally see PARA 94 ante.

6 See ibid s 77(1), (2)(b)(ii). For the meaning of 'foundation body' see PARA 104 note 6 ante.

7 See ibid s 77(1). For these purposes, 'playing fields' means land in the open air which is provided for the purposes of physical education or recreation, other than any prescribed description of such land: s 77(7). As to the meaning of 'land' see PARA 1352 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations generally under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 82 note 15 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 77(7).

Section 77(1) does not apply to a disposal which is made by a local authority (within the meaning of s 77: see note 3 supra) to a person for the purposes of an academy, and for no consideration: Education Act 1996 s 482(6), Sch 35A para 10(4) (Sch 35A added by the Education Act 2002 s 65(3), Sch 7 Pt 1 para 1). As to academies see PARA 496 et seq ante. See also PARA 1362 ante.

11 Ibid s 77(3). However s 77(3) does not apply where the land in question will, on a change of use falling within s 77(3), become used in connection with the provision by a local authority of educational facilities for a maintained school or any recreational facilities: s 77(4).

TEXT AND NOTE 10--Now, in default of agreement, by the Secretary of State if the land is in England or, if the land is in Wales, by an arbitrator, the expense of which is to be borne equally by the trustees and the National Assembly for Wales, to be appointed by the President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators: 2000 Act s 144(4)(b) (substituted by SI 2005/3238).

LAND AND PREMISES/(2) ACQUISITION, APPROPRIATION AND DISPOSAL OF LAND/(iv) Disposal of Land/E. DISPOSAL OF LAND USED AND HELD BY FURTHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS/1378. Disposal of land held by further education corporations.

1378. Disposal of land held by further education corporations.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for the dissolution of any further education corporation<sup>2</sup> and the transfer of property, rights and liabilities<sup>3</sup> of the corporation<sup>4</sup> to:

- 2587 (1) any person appearing to the Secretary of State to be wholly or mainly engaged in the provision of educational facilities or services of any description<sup>5</sup>;
- 2588 (2) any body corporate established for purposes which include the provision of such facilities or services<sup>6</sup>;
- 2589 (3) a learning and skills council<sup>7</sup>; or
- 2590 (4) a Higher Education Funding Council<sup>8</sup>.

A transfer under head (1) or head (2) above requires the consent of the person or body in question<sup>9</sup>.

Where the recipient of a transfer under any such order is not a charity<sup>10</sup> established for charitable purposes<sup>11</sup> which are exclusively educational purposes, any property transferred must be transferred on trust to be used for charitable purposes which are exclusively educational purposes<sup>12</sup>.

Before making an order in respect of a further education corporation, the Secretary of State must consult: (a) the corporation<sup>13</sup>; and (b) the appropriate learning and skills council<sup>14</sup>, unless the order was made for the purpose of giving effect to a proposal of that council<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'further education corporation' see PARA 579 note 3 ante.

3 As to the transfer of rights and liabilities see PARA 586 note 9 ante. As to the meaning of 'liability' see PARA 586 note 7 ante.

4 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 27(1). An order under s 27 may apply the provisions of s 26 (as amended) (transfer of staff: see PARA 589 ante) with such modifications as the Secretary of State may consider necessary or desirable: s 27(6). Orders under s 27 are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of s 27: s 88(1). However, no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 27 is to be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the provisions of the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 27 is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Consequential Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2867, reg 2, Schedule Pt 1 para 18). Relief under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A (as added) must be claimed in a land transaction return or an amendment of such a return: s 88A(2) (as so added). For the meanings of 'land transaction' and 'land transaction return' see PARA 587 note 8 ante.

5 Ibid s 27(2)(a).

6 Ibid s 27(2)(b).

7 Ibid s 27(3)(a). The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (ss 15-61A) (as amended) refers to a 'council' but for the purposes of that Part, any reference to a council is a reference to a learning and skills council: s 61A(1) (s 61A added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 37). For the purposes of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, the learning and skills councils are the Learning and Skills Council for England and the National Council for Education and Training for Wales: s 90(2A) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 41). As to the Learning and Skills Council for England see PARA 1072 et seq ante; and as to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales see PARA 1113 et seq ante. If, in construing any Act, a dispute arises as to whether any functions are exercisable by one of the learning and skills councils, the dispute must be determined by the Secretary of State after consulting the National Assembly for Wales: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(2B) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 41).

11 'Charitable purposes' has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 1993 (see CHARITIES vol 8 (2010) PARA 2): see the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 27(5); and the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2)(a). As to the charitable status of further education corporations see PARA 595 ante.

12 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 27(4).

13 Ibid s 27(7)(a).

14 See note 7 supra. For the purposes of ibid Pt I (as amended), a reference to the 'appropriate council', in relation to any educational institution, is to be construed as follows: (1) if the institution mainly serves the population of England, the reference is to the Learning and Skills Council for England; (2) if the institution mainly serves the population of Wales, the reference is to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales; (3) if the institution receives financial support from the other Council, the reference is to that Council also: s 61A(2) (as added: see note 7 supra). ## F. DISPOSAL OF LAND USED AND HELD BY HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS

1379. Disposal of land under the Universities and Colleges Estates Acts.

The universities and colleges to which the Universities and College Estates Acts 1925 and 1964 apply<sup>1</sup> have statutory powers, exercisable in accordance with their statutes<sup>2</sup> and additional to any pre-existing powers<sup>3</sup>, to dispose of their land<sup>4</sup>, including land held upon any trusts or for purposes connected with the university or college<sup>5</sup>. These powers include powers of sale and exchange<sup>6</sup>, leasing powers<sup>7</sup>, and powers to accept surrenders of leases and regrants in fee simple<sup>8</sup>, to grant water rights<sup>9</sup>, to grant land for public and charitable purposes<sup>10</sup>, to dedicate streets and open spaces<sup>11</sup>, to enter into forestry dedication covenants<sup>12</sup>, to compromise claims and release restrictions<sup>13</sup>, to vary leases and grants<sup>14</sup>, to apportion rents<sup>15</sup>, to deal separately with the surface and minerals<sup>16</sup>, to grant options<sup>17</sup>, to enter into contracts<sup>18</sup>, and to do and execute all necessary acts and deeds<sup>19</sup>. There are prescribed modes of investing or applying capital money<sup>20</sup>. There is power to raise money and a general power to effect other transactions concerning land<sup>21</sup>.

Changes were made under the Universities and Colleges Estates Act 1964 in the law relating to property held by universities or their colleges, the most important of which are: (1) to release land transactions by colleges and halls in universities in England and Wales from restrictions imposed by the Ecclesiastical Leases Acts of 1571, 1572, 1575 and 1836<sup>22</sup>; (2) to enable the universities of Oxford, Cambridge and Durham and their colleges to execute most transactions relating to land themselves<sup>23</sup>; and (3) to make provision for the transfer to those universities and their colleges and halls of all capital money held on their behalf and to enable them to receive and apply capital money derived from their land transactions<sup>24</sup>.

1 The Universities and College Estates Acts 1925 and 1964 apply to the universities (and their colleges and halls) of Oxford (including the Cathedral or House of Christ Church in Oxford), Cambridge and Durham (but not Newcastle) and the Colleges of St Mary of Winchester and of King Henry VI at Eton: Universities and College Estates Act 1925 s 1; Universities and College Estates Act 1964 s 2(1); Universities of Durham and Newcastle upon Tyne Act 1963 s 19.

2 See the Universities and College Estates Act 1925 s 41(2).

3 See ibid s 42 (amended by the Universities and College Estates Act 1964 s 3(1), Sch 1 Pt II para 14).

4 'Land' includes land of any tenure, and mines and minerals whether or not held apart from the surface, buildings or parts of buildings (whether the division is horizontal, vertical or otherwise) and all other corporeal hereditaments; also a manor, an advowson, and a rent and all other incorporeal hereditaments, and an easement, right, privilege, or benefit in, over, or derived from land: Universities and College Estates Act 1925 s 43(iv) (amended by the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 s 25(2)). 'Mines and minerals' mean mines and minerals whether already opened or in work or not, and include all minerals and substances in, on, or under the land, obtainable by underground or by surface working: see the Universities and College Estates Act 1925 s 43(vii) (amended by the Universities and College Estates Act 1964 s 4(1)). 'Hereditaments' means real property which on an intestacy might before the commencement of the Law of Property Act 1922 (see REAL PROPERTY vol 39(2) (Reissue) PARA 79) have devolved on an heir: University and College Estates Act 1925 s 43(iii). 'Manor' includes lordship, and reputed manor or lordship: see s 43(vi). 'Rent' includes yearly or other rent, and toll, duty, royalty, or other reservation, by the acre, or the ton, or otherwise: see s 43(ix).

(ii) Procedures for Property Transfers

A. IN GENERAL

1387. Land and property transfers.

The procedures for land and property transfers in relation to educational establishments were originally performed by the Education Transfer Council<sup>1</sup>. On the dissolution of the Education Transfer Council some of its functions became the responsibility of the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> in relation to Wales. The provisions relating to the Education Transfer Council have not been repealed, so that it is possible that a successor body to the Education Transfer Council might be established or that the Education Transfer Council might be re-established<sup>4</sup>.

The procedures which became the responsibility of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales concern land transfers in relation to schools changing category or joining or leaving foundation bodies<sup>5</sup>, property transfers to former grant-maintained schools<sup>6</sup> (both of which are effected under the Education Reform Act 1988) and property transfers under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992<sup>7</sup>. Other functions which were not transferred to the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales may be exercisable where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to the Education Transfer Council and its dissolution see PARAS 1380-1386 ante.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

3 As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

5 The Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, modify the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198 (as amended), Sch 10 (as amended) so that the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales may exercise powers in relation to transfers of land on schools changing category or joining or leaving foundation bodies under any regulations made or to be made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 21(5) (see PARA 104 ante) or s 35, Sch 8 para 5 (see PARA 116 ante): see the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, regs 5-7; and PARAS 1389-1396 post.

As to grant-maintained schools see PARA 102 note 16 ante.

8 Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198 (as amended) (see PARA 1388 post) applies to any transfer under any of the following provisions: (1) s 126 (see PARA 676 ante) (higher education corporations) or s 130 (see PARA 702 ante) (designated institutions); (2) the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 74, Sch 21 (see PARAS 1399-1404 post); or (3) any regulations made under s 21(5), (9) (see PARA 104 ante) or under s 20, Sch 2 para 10 (see PARA 102 ante) or Sch 8 para 5 (see PARA 116 ante): Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(1) (substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 137, Sch 29 para 2(2)).

The provisions described in heads (1)-(3) supra, so far as they relate to transfers, have in each case effect subject to the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 (as amended) (see PARAS 1389-1395 post): see s 198(1) (as so substituted). However, nothing in the provisions of Sch 10 (as amended; modified for certain purposes) other than Sch 10 para 2(4) (as substituted; modified for certain purposes) (see PARA 1390 post) or s 198(3) (as substituted; modified for certain purposes) (see PARA 1388 post) applies in relation to any transfer agreement falling to be made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 21 para 4 (see PARA 1400 post) or Sch 21 para 7 (see PARA 1403 post) or any corresponding provision of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(1A) (added by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 29 para 2(2)). As to transitional provisions see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (Commencement No 5 and Saving and Transitional Provisions) Order 1999, SI 1999/120, art 4.

B. PROCEDURES UNDER THE EDUCATION REFORM ACT 1988

1388. Procedures for property transfers.

The powers described below are exercisable by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> in relation to Wales until such time as a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>3</sup>.

The procedures under the Education Reform Act 1988 for transfers<sup>4</sup> have effect for the purpose of: (1) dividing and apportioning property, rights and liabilities<sup>5</sup> which fall to be transferred by a transferor authority or body where that property has been used or held, or the rights or liabilities have been acquired or incurred, for the purposes of more than one school<sup>6</sup> or other educational institution<sup>7</sup>; (2) excluding from transfer certain property, rights and liabilities which would otherwise fall to be transferred<sup>8</sup>; (3) providing for identifying and defining the property, rights and liabilities which fall to be transferred<sup>9</sup>; and (4) making supplementary and consequential provision in relation to such transfers<sup>10</sup>. In carrying out the functions conferred or imposed under the procedure for transfers, the Secretary of State or the Assembly must not act on behalf of the transferor, the transferee or any other interested person, but must seek to ensure that all such persons' interests are protected<sup>11</sup>.

If a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, then further provision is made as to its powers<sup>12</sup>.

5 'Liability' includes obligation: ibid s 235(1).

7 Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(2)(a) (s 198(2)-(4) substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 137, Sch 29 para 2(2)). As to the modification of the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198 (as substituted) in relation to property transfers to former grant-maintained schools in England see the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, reg 16. As to the division and apportionment of property see PARA 1389 post. As to grant-maintained schools see PARA 102 note 16 ante.

10 Ibid s 198(2)(d) (as substituted: see note 7 supra). As to the supplementary and consequential provisions that have been made see PARAS 1391-1395 post.

11 Ibid s 198(3) (as substituted (see note 7 supra); and modified by the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, reg 6(a)).

Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, in carrying out the functions conferred or imposed on it by the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 (as amended) (see PARAS 1389-1395 post): (1) it must, subject to s 198(4) (as substituted: see note 12 infra), not act on behalf of the transferor, the transferee or any other interested person, but must seek to ensure that all such persons' interests are protected; and (2) it is its duty, so far as it is reasonably practicable for it to do so, to secure that each transfer to which s 198 (as amended) applies is, so far as possible, fully effective on the date on which it takes effect under the Education Reform Act 1988 or under or by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: see the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(3) (as so substituted). As to the functions conferred or imposed on the Education Transfer Council by Sch 10 (as amended) see PARA 1387 ante. See also R v Secretary of State for Education, ex p Southwark London Borough Council [1995] ELR 308, [1994] COD 298.

12 As to the provisions that apply where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established see the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, regs 6(b), 16. Where the transferor under any transfer to which the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198 (as amended) applies is a local authority and in accordance with Sch 10 (as amended) (see PARAS 1389-1396 post) anything falls to be or may be done by the Education Transfer Council for the purposes of or in connection with that transfer: (1) it may not be done by the transferee; and (2) in doing it the Education Transfer Council must be regarded as acting on behalf and in the name of the transferee: s 198(4) (as substituted: see note 7 supra). In a case where the transferee is a body corporate established under the Education Reform Act 1988 or the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, head (2) supra applies both in relation to things done before and in relation to things done after that body is established: Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(4) (as so substituted). 'Local authority' means a county council, a county borough council, a district council, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London: s 235(1) (amended by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 66(6), Sch 16 para 83). As to areas and authorities in England and Wales see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq. Not later than the end of the period of six months beginning with the transfer date applicable in relation to any transfer to a higher education corporation under the Education Reform Act 1988 s 126 (see PARA 676 ante), the Education Transfer Council must provide the higher education funding council with a written statement giving such particulars of all property, rights and liabilities transferred to that corporation as are then available to the Education Transfer Council: s 198(5) (amended by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 93, Sch 8 para 44; and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 29 para 2(3)). If in any case within the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(5) (as amended) full particulars of all property, rights and liabilities transferred to the corporation concerned are not given in the statement required under s 198(5) (as amended), the Education Transfer Council must provide the higher education funding council with a further written statement giving any such particulars omitted from the earlier statement as soon as it is possible for it to do so: s 198(6) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 29 para 2(3)). For the meaning of 'transfer date' in relation to higher education corporations see PARA 676 note 6 ante. In relation to a designated institution, 'transfer date' means the designation date in relation to that institution: see ss 130(8), 228(10). As to the designation dates see PARAS 70, 702 ante. Similarly, any property, rights or liabilities of a transferor body must, where the nature of the property, rights or liability permits, be divided or apportioned between the transferees or, as the case may be, between the transferor body and the transferee or transferees, in such proportions as may be appropriate<sup>9</sup>.

5 For these purposes, references to a transferor authority are references to a local authority which is the transferor for the purposes of any transfer to which the Education Reform Act 1988 s 198(2) (as substituted), Sch 10 (as amended; modified for certain purposes) applies: Sch 10 para 1(5)(c) (Sch 10 para 1 substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 137, Sch 29 para 3). As to transitional provisions see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (Commencement No 5 and Saving and Transitional Provisions) Order 1999, SI 1999/120, art 4. For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 1388 note 12 ante.

6 Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 para 1(1)(a) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As to the transfers to which Sch 10 (as amended; modified for certain purposes) applies see PARA 1387 ante. 7 Ibid Sch 10 para 1(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

8 Ibid Sch 10 para 1(1) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). Any such property, right or liability as is mentioned in Sch 10 para 1(1) (as substituted) the nature of which does not permit its division or apportionment must be transferred to the transferee (or to one or other of the transferees) or retained by the transferor authority or body according to: (1) in the case of an estate or interest in land, whether on the transfer date the transferor authority or body or the transferee (or one or other of the transferees) appears to be in greater need of the security afforded by that estate or interest or, where none of them appears to be in greater need of that security, which of them appears on that date to be likely to make use of the land to the greater extent; or (2) in the case of any other property or any right or liability, which of them appears on the transfer date to be likely to make use of the property or (as the case may be) to be affected by the right or liability to the greater extent: Sch 10 para 1(4) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). For these purposes, references to a transferor body are references to any foundation body which is the transferor for the purposes of any transfer to which Sch 10 (as amended; modified for certain purposes) applies: Sch 10 para 1(5)(d) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). For the meaning of 'foundation body' see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of Sch 10 para 1(5)(d) (as so substituted). As to the meaning of 'interest in land', and as to the meaning of 'land', see PARA 1381 note 5 ante.

However, where these provisions apply to land transfers in relation to schools changing category or joining or leaving foundation bodies, the cases described in heads (1) and (2) supra are subject to such arrangements for the protection of the other person or persons concerned as may be agreed between the transferor authority or body and the transferee or determined by the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales under Sch 10 para 3 (as substituted and modified) (see PARA 1391 post): Sch 10 para 1(4) (as substituted (see note 5 supra); and modified by the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, reg 7(a)).

Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, the cases described in heads (1) and (2) supra are subject to such arrangements for the protection of the other person or persons concerned as may be agreed between the transferor authority or body and the relevant person or determined by the Secretary of State or the Assembly under the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 para 3 (as substituted) (see PARA 1391 post): Sch 10 para 1(4) (as so substituted). As to grant-maintained schools see PARA 102 note 16 ante.

Any transfer of any estate or interest in land under the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 para 1 (as substituted; modified for certain purposes) whether by virtue of an agreement or instrument entered into before or after the transfer date, is regarded as having taken place on the transfer date: Sch 10 para 2(5) (substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 29 para 4).

9 Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 para 1(2) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). Any such property, right or liability as is mentioned in Sch 10 para 1(2) (as substituted) the nature of which does not permit its division or apportionment must be transferred to the transferee (or to one or other of the transferees) or retained by the transferor authority or body according to: (1) in the case of an estate or interest in land, whether on the transfer date the transferor authority or body or the transferee (or one or other of the transferees) appears to be in greater need of the security afforded by that estate or interest or, where none of them appears to be in greater need of that security, which of them appears on that date to be likely to make use of the land to the greater extent; or (2) in the case of any other property or any right or liability, which of them appears on the transfer date to be likely to make use of the property or (as the case may be) to be affected by the right or liability to the greater extent: Sch 10 para 1(4) (as so substituted). However, where these provisions apply to land transfers in relation to schools changing category or joining or leaving foundation bodies, the cases described in heads (1) and (2) supra are subject to such arrangements for the protection of the other person or persons concerned as may be agreed between the transferor authority or body and the transferee or determined by the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales under Sch 10 para 3 (as substituted and modified) (see PARA 1391 post): Sch 10 para 1(4) (as so substituted; and modified by the Education (New Procedures for Property Transfers) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/3209, reg 7(a)). Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, the cases described in heads (1) and (2) supra are subject to such arrangements for the protection of the other person or persons concerned as may be agreed between the transferor authority or body and the relevant person or determined by the Secretary of State under the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 10 para 3 (as substituted) (see PARA 1391 post): Sch 10 para 1(4) (as so substituted).

The functions described below are exercisable by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> in relation to Wales until such time as a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>3</sup>.

The transferor and the transferee<sup>4</sup> must, whether before or after the transfer date<sup>5</sup>, so far as practicable arrive at such written agreements and execute such other instruments as are necessary or expedient to identify or define the property, rights and liabilities<sup>6</sup> transferred to the transferee or retained by the transferor or for making any arrangements relating to the division and apportionment of property<sup>7</sup> and as will<sup>8</sup>:

- 2593 (1) afford to the transferor and the transferee as against one another such rights and safeguards as they may require for the proper discharge of their respective functions<sup>9</sup>; and
- 2594 (2) make as from such date, not being earlier than the transfer date, as may be specified in the agreement or instrument such clarifications and modifications of the effect of the provision of the Education Reform Act 1988 or of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 under which the transfer is required on the property, rights and liabilities of the transferor as will best serve the proper discharge of the respective functions of the transferor and the transferee<sup>10</sup>.

Any such agreement must provide so far as it is expedient: (a) for the granting of leases and for the creation of other liabilities and rights over land whether amounting in law to interests in land or not, and whether involving the surrender of any existing interest or the creation of a new interest or not<sup>11</sup>; (b) for the granting of indemnities in connection with the severance of leases and other matters<sup>12</sup>; (c) for responsibility for registration of any matter in any description of statutory register<sup>13</sup>.

If and to the extent that he or it is requested to do so by the transferor or the transferee, the Secretary of State or the Assembly must<sup>14</sup>:

- 2595 (i) assist the transferor, the transferee and any other interested person in identifying or defining the property, rights and liabilities transferred to the transferee or retained by the transferor<sup>15</sup>;
- 2596 (ii) advise such persons as to the terms of any agreement or instrument falling to be made under the provisions described above<sup>16</sup>;
- 2597 (iii) prepare drafts of any such agreement or instrument<sup>17</sup>; and
- 2598 (iv) assist the parties in executing and giving effect to any such agreement or instrument<sup>18</sup>.

Within six months after the transfer date the transferor must send the Secretary of State or the Assembly a copy of an executed transfer agreement or, if no agreement has been executed, so notify him or it<sup>19</sup>.

1391. Resolution of disputes.

The powers described below are exercisable by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> in relation to Wales until such time as a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>3</sup>.

In the case of any matter on which agreement is required to be reached under the statutory provisions relating to the identification of property, rights and liabilities<sup>4</sup>, if such an agreement has not been reached within a period of six months from the transfer date<sup>5</sup>, the Secretary of State or the Assembly may give a direction determining that matter, and may include in the direction any provision which might have been included in an agreement under the provisions relating to the identification of property, rights and liabilities<sup>6</sup>.

Any property, rights or liabilities required by such a direction to be transferred to the transferee are regarded as having been transferred to, and vested<sup>7</sup> in, the transferee on the transfer date<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State or the Assembly must consult the transferor, the transferee and any other interested person before giving a direction<sup>9</sup>.

Any reference in a determination of the Education Transfer Council to a matter being referred to the Education Transfer Council for determination in the event of the parties failing to reach agreement is to be read as requiring the matter to be referred to the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales, as the case may be, in such event<sup>10</sup>.

Where a transfer to which these provisions apply<sup>1</sup> relates to registered land<sup>2</sup>, it is the duty of the transferor to execute any such instrument under the Land Registration Acts 1925 to 1986<sup>3</sup>, to deliver any such certificate under those Acts and to do such other things under those Acts as he would be required to execute, deliver or do in the case of a transfer by agreement between the transferor and the transferee<sup>4</sup>. Where on any such transfer the transferor is entitled to retain possession of any documents relating in part to the title to any land or other property transferred to the transferee, the transferor is treated as having given to the transferee an acknowledgment in writing of the right of the transferee to production of that document and to delivery of copies of it<sup>5</sup>.

LAND AND PREMISES/(3) LAND AND PROPERTY TRANSFERS/(ii) Procedures for Property Transfers/B. PROCEDURES UNDER THE EDUCATION REFORM ACT 1988/1394. Construction of agreements.

1394. Construction of agreements.

Where in the case of any transfer to which these provisions apply<sup>1</sup> any rights or liabilities<sup>2</sup> transferred are rights or liabilities under an agreement<sup>3</sup> to which the transferor was a party immediately before the transfer date<sup>4</sup>, the agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, has effect on and after the transfer date as if:

- 2599 (1) the transferee had been a party to the agreement<sup>5</sup>;
- 2600 (2) for any reference<sup>6</sup> to the transferor there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the transfer date, a reference to the transferee<sup>7</sup>;
- 2601 (3) any reference<sup>8</sup> to a specified officer of the transferor or a person employed by the transferor in a specified capacity were, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the transfer date, a reference to such person as the transferee may appoint or, in default of appointment, to an officer or employee of the transferee who corresponds as closely as possible to the person referred to in the agreement<sup>9</sup>; and
- 2602 (4) where the agreement refers to property, rights or liabilities which fall to be apportioned or divided between the transferor and the transferee, the agreement constituted two separate agreements separately enforceable by and against the transferor and the transferee as regards the part of the property, rights or liabilities retained by the transferor or, as the case may be, the part vesting in the transferee, and not as regards the other part<sup>10</sup>.

The transferee under a transfer to which these provisions apply and any other person has<sup>11</sup>, as from the transfer date, the same rights, powers and remedies, and in particular the same rights and powers as to the taking or resisting of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority, for ascertaining, perfecting or enforcing any right or liability transferred to and vested in the transferee<sup>12</sup> as he would have had if that right or liability had at all times been a right or liability of the transferee<sup>13</sup>.

Any legal proceedings or applications to any authority pending on the transfer date by or against the transferor, in so far as they relate to any property, right or liability transferred to the transferee<sup>14</sup>, or to any agreement relating to any such property, right or liability, is continued by or against the transferee to the exclusion of the transferor<sup>15</sup>.

1395. Third parties affected by vesting provisions.

The provisions described below are exercisable by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> in relation to Wales until such time as a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>3</sup>.

Any transaction effected between a transferor and a transferee<sup>4</sup> is binding<sup>5</sup> on all other persons, and notwithstanding that it would otherwise have required the consent or concurrence of any person other than the transferor and the transferee<sup>6</sup>. Where as a result of any such transaction any person's rights or liabilities<sup>7</sup> become enforceable as to part by or against the transferor and as to part by or against the transferee, the transferee<sup>8</sup> must give that person written notification of that fact<sup>9</sup>.

Where in consequence of a transfer to which these provisions apply<sup>10</sup> or of anything done in pursuance of these provisions:

- 2603 (1) the rights or liabilities of any person other than the transferor or the transferee which were enforceable against or by the transferor become enforceable as to part against or by the transferor and as to part against or by the transferee<sup>11</sup>; and
- 2604 (2) the value of any property or interest of that person is thereby diminished<sup>12</sup>, such compensation as may be just must be paid to that person by the transferor, the transferee or both<sup>13</sup>.

Where the transferor or the transferee purports by any conveyance or transfer to transfer to some person other than the transferor or the transferee for consideration any land<sup>14</sup> or other property which before the transfer date<sup>15</sup> belonged to the transferor, or which is an interest in property which before that date belonged to the transferor, the conveyance or transfer is as effective as if both the transferor and the transferee had been parties to it and had thereby conveyed or transferred all their interest in the property conveyed or transferred<sup>16</sup>.

A court has the power described below<sup>17</sup> if at any stage in proceedings before it to which the transferor or transferee and a person other than the transferor or the transferee are parties it appears that the issues in the proceedings: (a) depend on the identification or definition of any of the property, rights or liabilities transferred which the transferor and the transferee have not yet effected<sup>18</sup>; or (b) raise a question of construction on the relevant statutory provisions<sup>19</sup> which would not arise if the transferor and the transferee constituted a single person<sup>20</sup>. In any such case the court has power, if it thinks fit on the application of a party to the proceedings other than the transferor or the transferee, to hear and determine the proceedings on the footing that such one of the transferor and the transferee as is a party to the proceedings represents and is answerable for the other of them, and that the transferor and the transferee constitute a single person<sup>21</sup>.

Any judgment or order given by a court in proceedings determined on that footing bind both the transferor and the transferee accordingly: Sch 10 para 9(8). Transfer of land and property to institutions within the further education sector.

C. PROCEDURES UNDER THE FURTHER AND HIGHER EDUCATION ACT 1992

1397. Transfer of land and property to institutions within the further education sector.

The provisions described below are exercisable by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to England<sup>2</sup> or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> in relation to Wales<sup>4</sup> until such time as a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established<sup>5</sup>.

Where any land<sup>6</sup> or other property or rights which immediately before the operative date<sup>7</sup> in relation to any institution were held on trust for any particular purposes, or (as the case may be) for the general purposes of the institution<sup>8</sup>, and fall to be transferred under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992<sup>9</sup>, they continue to be so held by the transferee<sup>10</sup>.

The statutory provisions in relation to the identification and apportionment of property<sup>11</sup> have effect for the purpose of:

- 2605 (1) dividing and apportioning property, rights and liabilities<sup>12</sup> which fall to be transferred under any such transfer where that property has been used or held, or the rights or liabilities have been acquired or incurred, for the purposes of more than one educational institution<sup>13</sup>;
- 2606 (2) excluding from transfer in certain circumstances property, rights and liabilities which would otherwise fall to be transferred<sup>14</sup>;
- 2607 (3) providing for identifying and defining the property, rights and liabilities which fall to be transferred<sup>15</sup>; and
- 2608 (4) making supplementary and consequential provisions in relation to transfers<sup>16</sup>.

In carrying out the functions conferred or imposed by the provisions relating to the identification and apportionment of property, the Secretary of State or the Assembly must not act on behalf of the transferor, the transferee or any other interested person, but must seek to ensure that all such persons' interests are protected<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the Assembly must, not later than the end of the period of six months beginning with the operative date in relation to a further education corporation<sup>18</sup>, provide the appropriate learning and skills council<sup>19</sup> with a written statement giving such particulars of all property, rights and liabilities transferred to that corporation as are then available to him or it<sup>20</sup>.

5 As to the Education Transfer Council and its dissolution see PARAS 1380-1387 ante. Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, it is its duty, in carrying out the functions conferred or imposed on it by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Sch 5 (as amended) (see PARA 1398 post) to secure that each transfer to which s 36 (as amended) applies is, so far as practicable, fully effective on the date on which it takes effect under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992: s 36(5) (amended by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 136(2)). As to transfers to which the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 36 (as amended; modified for certain purposes) applies see note 9 infra.

Where a successor body to the Education Transfer Council is established or the Education Transfer Council is re-established, and where in accordance with the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Sch 5 (as amended) anything falls to be or may be done by the successor body or the Education Transfer Council for the purposes of or in connection with any such transfer: (1) it may not be done by the transferee; and (2) in doing it the successor body or the Education Transfer Council is to be regarded as acting on behalf and in the name of the transferee: s 36(6) (amended by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 136(2)). In a case where the transferee is a body corporate established under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, head (1) supra applies both in relation to things done before and in relation to things done after that body is established under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992: s 36(6).

1403. Transfers for purposes of community special schools.

Where a grant-maintained special school<sup>1</sup> (an 'existing school') became a community special school<sup>2</sup>: (1) any publicly funded land<sup>3</sup> was required on 1 September 1999<sup>4</sup> to be transferred to, and vested<sup>5</sup> in, the local education authority<sup>6</sup>; (2) any other land which, immediately before 1 September 1999, was held by the governing body for the purposes of the existing school was required to be transferred to, and vested in, the authority in accordance with a transfer agreement<sup>7</sup>; and (3) any land which, immediately before 1 September 1999, was held by any trustees for the purposes of the existing school<sup>8</sup> was required to be transferred to, and vested in, the authority in accordance with a transfer agreement<sup>9</sup>.

Where these provisions applied to an existing school and any land held by a person or body other than the governing body of the school was, immediately before 1 September 1999, used for the purposes of the school, any rights or liabilities<sup>10</sup> enjoyed or incurred by the governing body in connection with the use of the land<sup>11</sup> and subsisting immediately before 1 September 1999<sup>12</sup>, were required on that day to be transferred to, and vested in, the local education authority<sup>13</sup>.

Where these provisions applied to an existing school and any land held by a person or body other than any trustees who held any land for the purposes of the school was, immediately before 1 September 1999, used for the purposes of the school, any rights or liabilities enjoyed or incurred by any such trustees in connection with the use of the land<sup>14</sup> and subsisting immediately before 1 September 1999<sup>15</sup>, were required on that day to be transferred to, and vested in, the local education authority in accordance with a transfer agreement<sup>16</sup>.

- 2611 (3) any liability of a governing body<sup>4</sup> in respect of the principal of, or any interest on, any loan<sup>5</sup>;
- 2612 (4) any liability in tort<sup>6</sup>; or
- 2613 (5) any rights or liabilities which are determined in accordance with regulations to be rights or liabilities falling within these categories<sup>7</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> Ibid Sch 21 para 10(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'land' see PARA 1352 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to the meaning of 'liability' see PARA 1434 note 5 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). The reference in the text to excluded land, rights or liabilities is a reference to land, rights or liabilities excluded under Sch 21 para 10(2) or Sch 21 para 10(3). Where before 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante), the prospective transferee and transferor agreed in writing that any land should be excluded from the operation of Sch 21 Pt II (see PARAS 1399-1403 ante) and the Secretary of State gave his written approval of the agreement, the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, were so excluded: Sch 21 para 10(2). An agreement under Sch 21 para 10(2) may provide for the land to be used or held for the purposes of the school, as a school of a new category, on such terms as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the agreement: Sch 21 para 10(4). Where in default of agreement under Sch 21 para 10(2) the prospective transferee or transferor applied to the Secretary of State to exclude any land from the operation of Sch 21 Pt II and the Secretary of State by order directed its exclusion, the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, were so excluded: Sch 21 para 10(3). Directions under Sch 21 para 10(3) may confer any rights or impose any liabilities that could have been conferred or imposed by such an agreement, and have effect as if contained in such an agreement: Sch 21 para 10(4). Orders under Sch 21 para 10 are not made by statutory instrument: see s 138(2) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 ante. Orders under Sch 21 para 10 are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. For these purposes, 'the prospective transferee', in relation to any land, means the body to whom, apart from the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 21 para 10(2) or Sch 21 para 10(3), the land would fall to be transferred under Sch 21 Pt II (see PARAS 1399-1403 ante); and 'the prospective transferor' is to be construed accordingly: Sch 21 para 10(5). #### (iv) Transfer of Land to Academies

1406. Transfer schemes.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make a scheme in relation to land<sup>2</sup> if the following requirements are met<sup>3</sup>:

- 2616 (1) a local education authority<sup>4</sup> holds a freehold or leasehold interest in the land<sup>5</sup> when the scheme is made<sup>6</sup>;
- 2617 (2) at any time in the period of eight years ending with the day on which the scheme is made, the land was used wholly or mainly for the purposes of a county school<sup>7</sup> or community school<sup>8</sup>;
- 2618 (3) at the time the scheme is made the land is no longer used as mentioned in head (2) above or the Secretary of State thinks it is about to be no longer so used<sup>9</sup>;
- 2619 (4) before making the scheme the Secretary of State consulted the authority<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State may also make a scheme in relation to land if: (a) a local education authority holds a freehold or leasehold interest in the land when the scheme is made<sup>11</sup>; (b) the land forms the whole or part of a site specified in a notice published pursuant to proposals for new secondary schools<sup>12</sup> as a possible site for a new school<sup>13</sup>; and (c) before making the scheme, the Secretary of State consulted the authority<sup>14</sup>.

Any such scheme must meet the following requirements<sup>15</sup>:

- 2620 (i) it must provide for a transfer of the authority's interest in the land or in such part of it as is specified in the scheme<sup>16</sup>;
- 2621 (ii) the transfer must be to a person (the transferee) who is specified in the scheme and is concerned with the running of an academy<sup>17</sup>;
- 2622 (iii) the transfer must be made to the transferee for the purposes of the academy<sup>18</sup>;
- 2623 (iv) in the case of a scheme falling within heads (a) to (c) above, the academy must have been the subject of proposals published under the Education Act 2002<sup>19</sup>;
- 2624 (v) the scheme must provide for the transfer to the transferee of any right or liability<sup>20</sup> held by the authority as holder of the interest in the land or specified part concerned<sup>21</sup>.

A scheme may include such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks are appropriate<sup>22</sup>. It must be so expressed that it does not come into force<sup>23</sup> while the land concerned is used as mentioned in head (2) above<sup>24</sup>. When a scheme comes into force it has effect to transfer (in accordance with its provisions) the interests, rights and liabilities to which it applies<sup>25</sup>. A transfer made by virtue of a scheme is binding on all persons (as well as on the authority and the transferee) even if, apart from this provision, it would have required the consent or concurrence of any person<sup>26</sup>.

Regulations under these provisions<sup>27</sup> may in particular include:

- 2625 (A) provision requiring a person to be appointed by the Secretary of State in connection with the proposed making of a scheme<sup>28</sup>;

- 2626 (B) provision requiring the appointed person to identify the interests, rights and liabilities to be the subject of such a scheme<sup>29</sup>;
- 2627 (C) provision requiring the authority concerned to provide the appointed person with such documents as he may require in order to identify the interests, rights and liabilities to be the subject of such a scheme<sup>30</sup>;
- 2628 (D) provision requiring an authority whose interest is (or is to be) transferred by virtue of such a scheme to execute instruments and deliver certificates for the purposes of the enactments relating to registered land<sup>31</sup>;
- 2629 (E) provision treating such an authority as having given acknowledgement in writing of the right to production of documents<sup>32</sup>.

1407. Transfer of land from former academies.

The following provisions apply if:

- 2630 (1) a freehold or leasehold interest in land<sup>1</sup> is transferred from a local education authority<sup>2</sup> on or after 28 July 2000<sup>3</sup>;
- 2631 (2) the transfer is made to a person for the purposes of an academy<sup>4</sup>; and
- 2632 (3) the first or the second condition set out below is satisfied<sup>5</sup>.

The first condition referred to above is that the school concerned ceases to be an academy<sup>6</sup>, and immediately before the school ceases to be an academy the interest is held by a person for the purposes of the academy<sup>7</sup>. The second condition is that, although the school concerned continues to be an academy, the interest ceases to be held for the purposes of the academy<sup>8</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> may make a scheme providing for the transfer of the interest from the person holding it<sup>10</sup> to the authority from which the transfer mentioned in head (1) above was made<sup>11</sup>. Such a scheme may include such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks are appropriate<sup>12</sup>. A scheme comes into force on the day it specifies for it to come into force<sup>13</sup>. ## (v) Occupiers' Liability

1419. Occupiers' liability.

In relation to the duty owed to visitors in respect of dangers due to the state of the premises or things done or omitted to be done on them, occupiers of educational premises have the same statutory liability as occupiers of other premises<sup>1</sup>. This is also true of the duty owed to persons other than visitors<sup>2</sup>. There is a common law duty of care to ensure that young children are not permitted to stray from school premises<sup>3</sup>.

1 See the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 s 1(1); and NEGLIGENCE vol 78 (2010) PARAS 29-38. In general an occupier owes the same common duty of care to all his visitors: see s 2(1); and NEGLIGENCE vol 78 (2010) PARAS 32, 38. See also Griffiths v Smith [1941] AC 170, [1941] 1 All ER 66, HL. He must be prepared for children to be less careful than adults: see the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 s 2(3)(a); and NEGLIGENCE vol 78 (2010) PARA 32. The duty of care extends to the state and condition of the school premises: Lyes v Middlesex County Council (1962) 61 LGR 443. #### 1422. Transfer of control agreements for community or community special schools.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

The governing body<sup>2</sup> of a community or community special school<sup>3</sup> may enter into a transfer of control agreement<sup>4</sup> with any body or person if its purpose, or one of its purposes, in doing so is to promote community use<sup>5</sup> of the whole or any part of the school premises<sup>6</sup>. However, the governing body must not enter into any transfer of control agreement which makes or includes provision for the use of the whole or any part of the school premises during school hours<sup>7</sup> unless it has first obtained the local education authority's<sup>8</sup> consent to the agreement in so far as it makes such provision<sup>9</sup>. A transfer of control agreement is taken to include the following terms, namely:

2645 (2) that the controlling body, in exercising control of the use of any premises subject to the agreement:

10

6. (a) the use of the specified premises at those times must be under the control of the governing body<sup>14</sup>; and

7. (b) accordingly, those premises may be used at those times by or in connection with the school for such purposes as may be specified in the notice<sup>15</sup>,

2647 even though their use at those times would otherwise be under the control of the controlling body<sup>16</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> The provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 40, Sch 13 are repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3, as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed. See PARA 1420 ante.

Where a transfer of control agreement makes express provision for the use of any school premises which are subject to the agreement to be occasionally under the control of the governing body, instead of the controlling body, in such circumstances, at such times or for such purposes as may be provided by or under the agreement, Sch 13 para 2(3)(c) (prospectively repealed) does not have effect in relation to the transfer of control agreement if, at the time of entering into it, the governing body was of the opinion that the express provision would be more favourable to the interests of the school than the term that would otherwise be included by virtue of Sch 13 para 2(3)(c) (prospectively repealed): Sch 13 para 2(4), (5). ### 1420-1427 Control of Use of School Premises by Governing Bodies

Repeal of School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 40, Sch 13 in force in relation to Wales 31 March 2008: SI 2006/3611.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/12. LAND AND PREMISES/(5) CONTROL OF USE OF SCHOOL PREMISES BY GOVERNING BODIES/1426. Transfer of control agreements for voluntary schools.

1426. Transfer of control agreements for voluntary schools.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

The governing body<sup>2</sup> of any voluntary school<sup>3</sup> has power to enter into a transfer of control agreement<sup>4</sup> with any body or person if the governing body's purpose, or one of its purposes, in doing so is to promote community use<sup>5</sup> of the whole or any part of the school premises<sup>6</sup>. It may do so even though the trust deed<sup>7</sup> for the school would otherwise expressly or impliedly preclude it from entering into such an agreement with that body or person or from conferring control on the controlling body<sup>8</sup> in question<sup>9</sup>, but it must not enter into a transfer of control agreement unless the use to which the premises may be put under the agreement is in all other respects in conformity with any such requirements, prohibitions or restrictions imposed by the trust deed as would apply if control were being exercised by the governing body<sup>10</sup>. However, the governing body must not enter into any transfer of control agreement which makes or includes provision for the use of the whole or any part of the school premises during school hours<sup>11</sup> unless it has first obtained the consent of the local education authority<sup>12</sup> to the agreement in so far as it makes such provision<sup>13</sup>. A transfer of control agreement is taken to include the following terms, namely:

2651 (1) that the governing body must notify the controlling body of any directions given to the governing body<sup>14</sup> and any determination made by the foundation governors<sup>15</sup>;

2652 (2) that the controlling body, in exercising control of the use of any premises subject to the agreement, must do so in accordance with any directions or determinations from time to time notified to that body in pursuance of head (1) above<sup>16</sup>, and must have regard to the desirability of the premises being made available for community use<sup>17</sup>; and

2653 (3) that, if reasonable notice is given in writing by the governing body to the controlling body that such of the premises subject to the agreement as may be specified in the notice are reasonably required for use by or in connection with the school at such times as may be so specified, then:

10. (a) the use of the specified premises at those times must be under the control of the governing body<sup>18</sup>; and

11. (b) accordingly, those premises may be used at those times by or in connection with the school for such purposes as may be specified in the notice<sup>19</sup>,

2654 even though their use at those times would otherwise be under the control of the controlling body<sup>20</sup>.

1 The provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 40, Sch 13 are repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3, as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed. See PARA 1420 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'transfer of control agreement' means an agreement which (subject to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 13 para 6(3) (prospectively repealed) (see the text and notes 14-20 infra)) provides for the use of so much of the school premises as may be specified in the agreement to be under the control, at such times as may be so specified, of such body or person as may be so specified: Sch 13 para 6(7). See note 1 supra. As to the meaning of 'premises' see PARA 1352 note 3 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

7 As to the meaning of 'trust deed' see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8).

8 For these purposes, 'the controlling body' means the body or person (other than the governing body) who has control of the use of the whole or any part of the school premises under the transfer of control agreement in question: ibid Sch 13 para 6(7). See note 1 supra.

15 Ibid Sch 13 para 6(3)(a)(ii). See note 1 supra. The reference in the text to a determination is a reference, in the case of a voluntary controlled school, to a determination made under Sch 13 para 7(2) (prospectively repealed): see PARA 1427 post. For the meaning of 'foundation governor' see PARA 104 note 6 ante.

Where the governing body enters into a transfer of control agreement, it must, so far as reasonably practicable, secure that the controlling body exercises control in accordance with any such directions or determinations as are notified to that body in pursuance of Sch 13 para 6(3)(a) (prospectively repealed): Sch 13 para 6(6).

20 Ibid Sch 13 para 6(3)(c). Where a transfer of control agreement makes express provision for the use of any school premises which are subject to the agreement to be occasionally under the control of the governing body, instead of the controlling body, in such circumstances, at such times or for such purposes as may be provided by or under the agreement, Sch 13 para 6(3)(c) (prospectively repealed) does not have effect in relation to the transfer of control agreement if, at the time of entering into it, the governing body was of the opinion that the express provision would be more favourable to the interests of the school than the term that would otherwise be included by virtue of Sch 13 para 6(3)(c): Sch 13 para 6(4), (5). ## (6) RATING

1428. Rating of educational premises generally.

Educational premises are classified as non-domestic hereditaments for the purposes of rating<sup>1</sup>, and, therefore, a local education authority is rateable for its schools<sup>2</sup>.

Where an employee of an educational institution is required to occupy a hereditament in order to carry out the purposes of his employer's business, or to secure the better performance of his duties, the occupation for rating purposes is that of the employer<sup>3</sup>.

1 See the Local Government Finance Act 1988 Pt III (ss 41-67) (as amended). As to the system of non-domestic rating see RATING AND COUNCIL TAX vol 39(1B) (Reissue) PARA 7 et seq. However, a building used by university students of a particular religious denomination for recreation or social purposes has been held to be exempted from non-domestic rates: see Mageean v Valuation Comr [1960] NI 141, NI CA; and RATING AND COUNCIL TAX vol 39(1B) (Reissue) PARA 41.

1429. Rating of maintained schools.

For the purposes of the statutory provisions relating to non-domestic rating<sup>1</sup>, the occupier of any hereditament so far as consisting of the premises<sup>2</sup> of a maintained school<sup>3</sup> is taken to be the local education authority<sup>4</sup>, where it is a community, voluntary controlled or community special school<sup>5</sup>, or the governing body<sup>6</sup>, where it is a foundation, voluntary aided or foundation special school<sup>7</sup>.

13. EDUCATIONAL TRUSTS

1430. Trusts for the advancement of education.

Not every object which is beneficial to the community is charitable<sup>1</sup>. However, the advancement of education is one of the four recognised types of charitable purposes. Charitable purposes, in the legal sense, derived from the ancient statute of Elizabeth I<sup>2</sup>, and have been classified into four principal divisions<sup>3</sup>: (1) the relief of poverty<sup>4</sup>; (2) the advancement of education<sup>5</sup>; (3) the advancement of religion<sup>6</sup>; and (4) other purposes beneficial to the community not falling under any of the preceding heads<sup>7</sup>. In addition, certain purposes are declared to be charitable by the Recreational Charities Act 1958<sup>8</sup>; these may be regarded as forming part of the fourth category. All claims to bring a purpose under the head of charity must assert that it comes within one or more of these four divisions<sup>9</sup>. Many purposes which fall to be considered under the division of charitable purposes for the advancement of education may also be considered under the fourth head<sup>10</sup>, and may be accepted as falling under either or both of these heads<sup>11</sup>.

1431. Extent of local authorities' powers relating to trusts for charitable purposes.

A local education authority has no locus standi to institute legal proceedings for the construction of a will purporting to create a charitable trust<sup>1</sup>. ### 1432. Local education authorities' powers to accept gifts for educational purposes.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> is empowered to accept, hold and administer any property on trust for purposes connected with education<sup>2</sup>, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient in connection with the operation of any provision of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, the Learning and Skills Act 2000 or the Education Act 2002, or anything done under or for the purposes of any such provision. Any intention on the part of the authority that a school, other than a nursery school<sup>3</sup> or a special school<sup>4</sup>, should be vested in the authority as trustees is treated<sup>5</sup> as an intention to establish a new community school<sup>6</sup>. Accordingly proposals for that purpose must be published in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>7</sup>. Any school which is so vested in a local education authority as trustees<sup>8</sup> is a community school<sup>9</sup>.

Where under any provision, however expressed, of a scheme made under the Endowed Schools Acts 1869 to 1948<sup>1</sup> the power of the trustees under the scheme to apply any property to which the scheme relates for purposes authorised by the scheme is subject to the approval or order of any other person, the scheme has effect as if no such approval or order was required<sup>2</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> may, on the application of any person whose approval or order would otherwise be required under such a scheme, direct that the requirement is to continue to have effect<sup>4</sup>, but no liability<sup>5</sup> is to be taken to have been incurred in respect of any failure before the making of such a direction to obtain any such approval or order<sup>6</sup>.

1435. Powers of central government in relation to trusts for religious education.

Where in relation to any time before 1 September 1999<sup>1</sup>, the premises of a voluntary or grant-maintained school<sup>2</sup> have ceased to be used for such a school<sup>3</sup>, or in relation to any time on or after 1 September 1999<sup>4</sup>: (1) the premises of a foundation<sup>5</sup> or voluntary school have ceased to be used for such a school<sup>6</sup>; or (2) in the opinion of the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> it is likely such premises will cease to be so used<sup>8</sup>, he may by order<sup>9</sup> made by statutory instrument make new provision as to the use of any endowment<sup>10</sup> if it is shown<sup>11</sup> either<sup>12</sup>:

- 2655 (a) that the endowment is or has been held wholly or partly for or in connection with the provision at the school of religious education in accordance with the tenets of a particular religion or religious denomination<sup>13</sup>; or
- 2656 (b) that the endowment is or has been used wholly or partly for or in connection with the provision at the school of such religious education and that the following requirements are fulfilled<sup>14</sup>, namely:
  - 16
  - 12. (i) that the school was or has been maintained as a voluntary or grant-maintained school or as a foundation or voluntary school since 1 April 1945<sup>15</sup>; and
  - 13. (ii) that religious education in accordance with the tenets of the religion or denomination concerned is, and from that date has been, provided at the school or, where the premises have ceased to be used for the purposes of the school, was provided at the school from that date until immediately before the premises ceased to be so used<sup>16</sup>.

Such an order may require or authorise the disposal by sale or otherwise of any land<sup>17</sup> or other property forming part of an endowment<sup>18</sup> affected by the order, including the premises of the school and any teacher's dwelling-house<sup>19</sup>, and may consolidate any endowments to be dealt with by the scheme<sup>20</sup>. Subject to this, and to any statutory provision affecting the endowments, such an order must establish and give effect, with a view to enabling the religion or denomination concerned to participate more effectively in the administration of the statutory system of public education, to a scheme or schemes<sup>21</sup> for the endowments dealt with by the order to be used<sup>22</sup> for appropriate educational purposes<sup>23</sup>.

Where a scheme so given effect<sup>24</sup> provides for the endowments dealt with by the order or any part of them to be used for the purposes specified in the provision relating to uniform statutory trusts for educational endowments<sup>25</sup>, any such scheme may provide for the endowments thereby dealt with or any part of them to be added to any existing endowment applicable for those purposes (whether it is so applicable by virtue of a scheme so given effect or otherwise)<sup>26</sup>. Any such order has effect despite any Act of Parliament (other than a public general Act), letters patent or other instrument relating to, or trust affecting, the endowments dealt with by the order<sup>27</sup>.

9 The order may be made only on the application of the persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be the appropriate authority of the denomination concerned: ibid s 555(1). The Secretary of State must, not less than one month before making the order give notice of the proposed order and of the right of persons interested to make representations on it: s 555(2). The Secretary of State must take into account any representations that may be made to him by any person interested in it before the order is made: s 555(4). The notice must be given: (1) by giving to any persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be trustees of an endowment affected by the proposed order a notice of the proposal to make it, together with a draft or summary of the provisions proposed to be included; and (2) by publishing, in such manner as the Secretary of State thinks sufficient for informing any other persons interested, a notice of the proposal to make the order and of the place where any person interested may, during a period of not less than a month, inspect such a draft or summary, and by keeping a draft or summary available for inspection in accordance with the notice: s 555(3). Section 568(5) (as amended) (general provision as to orders: see PARA 15 note 6 ante) does not apply to an order under s 554 (as amended), but such an order may include such incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient either for the bringing into force or for the operation of any scheme established by it, including in particular provisions: (a) for the appointment and powers of trustees of the property comprised in the scheme or, if the property is not all applicable for the same purposes, of any part of that property (s 556(6)(a)); and (b) for the property or any part of it to vest by virtue of the scheme in the first trustees under the scheme or trustees of any endowment to which it is to be added or, if not so vested, to be transferred to them (s 556(6)(b)).

1436. Adoption of statutory trusts.

The trustees of any endowments<sup>1</sup> may by resolution<sup>2</sup> adopt the uniform statutory trusts<sup>3</sup> as the trusts on which those endowments are to be held<sup>4</sup>. On the adoption by trustees of the uniform statutory trusts in respect of any endowments the scheme or order which regulates the endowments has effect as if the uniform statutory trusts were incorporated in the scheme or order to the exclusion of the corresponding provisions of the scheme or order<sup>5</sup>. The trustees of two or more endowments which are held on the uniform statutory trusts may, by resolution<sup>6</sup>, consolidate all or any of those endowments and, where they do so, the endowments must be treated, for all purposes, as held for the purposes of a single charity<sup>7</sup>.

The trustees may, after payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust, apply the capital and income of the relevant trust assets<sup>8</sup> for any of the following purposes:

- 2657 (1) in or towards the purchase of a site for, or the erection, improvement or enlargement of, the premises of any relevant school<sup>9</sup> in the area<sup>10</sup>;
- 2658 (2) for the maintenance of any relevant school in the area<sup>11</sup>;
- 2659 (3) in or towards the purchase of a site for, or the erection, improvement or enlargement of, the premises of a teacher's house for use in connection with any relevant school in the area<sup>12</sup>; and
- 2660 (4) for the maintenance of a teacher's house for use in connection with any relevant school in the area<sup>13</sup>.

The trustees may also, after payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust, apply the income of the relevant trust assets for any of the following purposes:

- 2661 (a) in or towards the provision of advice, guidance and resources (including materials) in connection with any matter related to the management of, or education provided at, any relevant school in the area<sup>14</sup>;
- 2662 (b) the provision of services for the carrying out of any inspection of any relevant school in the area required by Part I of the Education Act 2005<sup>15</sup>; and
- 2663 (c) to defraying the cost of employing or engaging staff in connection with<sup>16</sup>:
- 18
- 14. (i) the application of income of the relevant trust assets for either of the purposes referred to in heads (a) and (b) above<sup>17</sup>; or
- 15. (ii) the application of capital or income of the relevant trust assets for any of the purposes referred to in heads (1) to (4) above<sup>18</sup>.
- 19

1 As to the meaning of 'endowment' see PARA 1435 note 10 ante; definition applied by the Education Act 1996 s 557(9). Section 557 (as amended) applies to endowments which are:

- 125 (2) held under any such scheme or order on trusts which provide for capital or income or both to be applicable for or in connection with:
7. (a) the provision of religious education at relevant schools, or relevant schools of any description (but not only at a particular school or schools) in a diocese or other geographical area (s 557(1)(b)(i)); or
  8. (b) the provision of premises for relevant schools, or relevant schools of any description (but not only at a particular school or schools) at which religious education is or is to be provided in a diocese or other geographical area (s 557(1)(b)(ii)),

126 but s 557 (as amended) does not apply to an endowment if or in so far as it constitutes a religious education fund: s 557(1)(b).

'Qualifying scheme' means a scheme in force on 1 January 1994 (the date when the Education Act 1993 s 287 (repealed: see now the Education Act 1996 s 557) came into force): Education Act 1996 s 557(9). 2 The resolution must be passed by a simple majority of the trustees or, if the trustees are a body corporate or a company, by a simple majority of the members of the body corporate or an ordinary resolution of the company, and it must be recorded in the records of the decisions of the trustees affecting the endowments of the trust: ibid s 557(6). 'Company' means a company formed under the Companies Acts (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 1 et seq): Education Act 1996 s 557(9). 3 The uniform statutory trusts are those set out in the Education Act 1996 Sch 36 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales): s 557(3).

4 Ibid s 557(2). Where trustees pass a resolution under s 557(2), it is their duty to send a copy of the resolution to the Secretary of State: s 577(7). except in so far as any right falling within s 557(8)(a) is or has been extinguished by an order under s 554 (as amended) (see PARA 1435 ante) or the Education Act 1973 s 2 (repealed) made by virtue of the Reverter of Sites Act 1987 s 5 (as amended): Education Act 1996 s 557(8). 1437. Sex discrimination: application by trustees to remove or modify restriction.

Where a trust deed or other instrument concerns property available for or in connection with the provision of education in certain establishments<sup>1</sup> and in any way restricts the benefits available under the instrument to persons of one sex<sup>2</sup>, the trustees or the responsible body<sup>3</sup> may apply to the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> for the removal or modification of the restriction<sup>5</sup>. If, on such an application, the Secretary of State is satisfied that the removal or modification of the restriction would conduce to the advancement of education without sex discrimination, he may by order make such modifications of the instrument as appear to him expedient for removing or modifying the restriction, and for any supplemental or incidental purposes<sup>6</sup>. If the trust was created by gift or bequest, no such order may be made until 25 years after the date on which the gift or bequest took effect, unless the donor or his personal representatives, or the personal representatives of the testator, have consented in writing to the making of the application for the order<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State must require the applicant to publish a notice: (1) containing particulars of the proposed order<sup>8</sup>; and (2) stating that representations may be made to the Secretary of State within a period specified in the notice<sup>9</sup>. The applicant must publish the notice in such manner as may be specified by the Secretary of State, and the cost of any publication of the notice may be defrayed out of the property of the trust<sup>10</sup>. Before making the order the Secretary of State must take into account any representations duly made in accordance with the notice<sup>11</sup>.
